And it is further distinctly understood and agreed that if said railroad company shall be delayed in the prosecution of said work required to be done under the provisions of this ordinance, by reason of the obstruction of pipes, conduits, wires or other property of private corporations or individuals as mentioned in Section 5 of this ordinance, or by reason of any delay on the part of the City of Chicago or any of its officers in performing the duties imposed upon the City and its officers by this ordinance in respect to the work herein required to be done by said railroad company, then and in that case the time which said railroad compeny is delayed shall be added to the time specified for the completion of said work during which said company is required by the terms of this ordinance to complete said work.

SECTION 14. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication; provided, however, this ordinance shall be null and void unless said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall through its authorized officers file with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago within thirty (30) days from the passage and approval by the Mayor of this ordinance, an agreement or agreements duly executed, whereby said railroad company shall undertake to do and perform all the matters and things required of it by this ordinance.

After the filing of said agreement by said company and not before, this ordinance shall not be materially modified or amended without the consent of said company, unless said company shall be in default in the performance of the several matters and things required by this ordinance and undertaken to be done by such agreement. But nothing in this ordinance contained shall be deemed a waiver or surrender of the police power of the city or to deprive the city of the right to properly exercise such power.

SECTION 15. Upon the passage and approval of this ordinance, and the acceptance of the same by the duly authorized officers of the Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company, or its Receivers, and the said acceptance shall be filed with the City Clerk of the City of Chicago, then and in that event the ordinance passed by the City Council July 16, 1900, published on pages 1035 to 1044 inclusive, of the Official Records of the Council Proceedings of the City of Chicago be and the same is hereby repealed.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

Ald. Moynihan presented orders for sewers and water supply pipes in Colfax, Kingston, Essex, Yates and Phillips avenues, which were Referred to the Board of Local Improvements.

Ald. Derpa presented the following resolutions, which were ordered published and deferred one week:

WHEREAS, The Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago in his opinion rendered in 1905, and contained on page 625 of the opinions of the Corporation Counsel for that year pointed out that the City Council might enact an ordinance prohibiting telephone companies from charging in excess of the rates fixed by the city ordinance and providing penalties for violations of such ordinance;

WHEREAS, The information given by the Corporation Counsel with reference to such an ordinance with proper penalties has never been acted upon or passed by this City Council;

WHEREAS, The illegality of tolls charged by the telephone company for messages within the city and the method of securing their speedy abolition has been the subject of thought, discussion and legal opinion by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago who deemed it important and endeavored to have it settled by the courts as is evidenced by the fact that in the Illinois Supreme Court in the quo warranto proceedings brought by the city had the subject brought at length to its attention;

WHEREAS, From the report submitted to-day by Assistant Corporation Counsel Maclay Hoyne it appears that more than one-half of the briefs filed on the part of both parties in the quo warranto case were taken up with the discussion of the "toll," but that the Supreme Court in its opinion in the 220th Ill. makes no reference whatever to this point;

WHEREAS, The pending quo warranto case in being prosecuted will be confined to the lines of the opinion of the Supreme Court, and for that reason will practically leave the "toll" question alone;

WHEREAS, The abolition of tolls within the city limits is a question separate and distinct from all negotiations for new franchises or extension of old franchises to the telephone company;

WHEREAS, The telephone company by opposing the contentions of the city on the "toll" question in the briefs filed in the Supreme Court publicly proclaims that it is unwilling to give the people their just rights and equal treatment without legal contest;

WHEREAS, Past experience with public utility corporations dealing with the people has shown that most is secured by the people by openly and constantly demanding and insisting upon the protection of their rights, and by bringing on court proceedings whenever they are necessary;

WHEREAS, In the efforts to secure transfers to the people of the north and west side street car lines it was at first urged that the subject be delayed until the solution of the traction problem, but that dealing with the transfer problem in the courts without delay saved the people of Chicago large sums of money, because had they waited with the transfer litigation until the solution of the traction franchise question the transfers would still be a thing of the future instead of a reality of the present; therefore be it

Resolved and Ordered, By the City Council, that the Corporation Counsel of the City of Chicago

FIRST-in line with his opinion of 1905 contained on page 625 of Opinions of Corporation Counsel for the year 1905, draft a proper ordinance which the City Council might enact prohibiting telephone companies from practicing extortion upon the people of Chicago in charging rates in excess of those provided by the law, and especially providing penalties for violations of such ordinance; further, it is hereby Ordered and Resolved, That in view of the present status of the pending quo warranto proceedings the Corporation Counsel immediately file a bill for an injunction against the Chicago Telephone Company to restrain it from charging tolls within the city limits for calls within the city limits to any of its subscribers or users of telephones; that this action be taken at once, independently of the pending franchise negotiations between the company and the city, just as were the proceedings to secure transfers on the North and West Side taken during the pendency of the much disputed traction question;

Resolved, further, That if the Chicago Telephone Company in retaliation for the city's effort to give all the people of Chicago an equal and just treatment should seek to change its charges, both within the toll prescribed districts, and in other sections of Chicago to higher rates, that such conduct be at once brought to the attention of this City Council, so that then more drastic action may be taken, and the Chicago Telephone Company may then be looked upon and regarded as an undesirable concern for renewal of its franchise ordinance.

WHEREAS, The question of improving the street car service in this city has been before the City Council and the public for nearly ten years; and,

WHEREAS, The failure on the part of the city authorities to agree among themselves on the conditions that should underlie a settlement with the present companies, has been seized upon by those companies as an excuse for their unwillingness to invest the necessary capital to bring their service up to the standard of excellence which the citizens of this city have a right to demand; and,

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision in March, 1906, in the so-called "ninety-nine year cases," which has removed all reasonable causes of difference between the city and the companies, except the price to be paid to the companies for their properties in the event of a purchase by the city; and,

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council that ordinances providing for a complete and immediate settlement of the entire surface transportation problem in this city, should be reported to this Council before the end of the current year—to the end that the citizens of Chicago may no longer be humiliated and outraged for the sake of financial manipulation on the one hand, and political manipulation on the other, but that they be given relief from the intolerable conditions of service which they have so long and so patiently endured.

SECTION 10. Permission and authority is hereby given to said company whenever the same shall be necessary in the prosecution of the work which it is herein authorized or required to perform, to obstruct temporarily any public street, avenue or alley to such extent and for such length of time as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and it is also hereby authorized whenever the same shall be necessary to erect and maintain temporary structures and false work in any of said streets and avenues during the construction of its said elevated railroad tracks, subject to like approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

SECTION 11. When the said railroad in Section 1 of this ordinance mentioned shall have elevated its respective tracks in accordance with this ordinance, so that the same shall be ready for use, then and thereupon all the provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to speed of railway trains, the length of trains, the number of cars to constitute a train, and the maintenance of gates, flagmen, watchmen, signals and signal towers, and the ringing of bells shall cease to be applicable to said railroad; provided, however, that this ordinance is not to be construed as a waiver or surrender by the City of Chicago of any of its police powers or of the right at any time hereafter to pass necessary and reasonable police ordinances in relation to the matters last above enumerated. After such elevation it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, save employes of said company, in the discharge of their duties to enter or be upon or to walk along or across the said elevated structure or railroad at any place. If any person shall willfully trespass upon said elevated roadway such person and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein shall be liable to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than one-hundred dollars for each and every offense.

SECTION 12. Said Chicago Terminal Transfer Railroad Company shall at least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of any part or parts of said work submit to the Commissioner of Public Works for his approval, complete plans and speci-

Such bridges shall conform to the general plan of the bridges provided for in this ordinance, except as to such changes in the details thereof as may be agreed upon by the City Engineer of the City of Chicago and the Chief Engineer of said railroad company; but in all other respects such crossings shall be constructed in accordance with the provisions thereof in respect to streets named in this ordinance. They shall have, at or near the top of the pole, an arm or bracket of suitable design for carrying electric street lights, and the City of Chicago shall at all times during the maintenance of said poles have the right, without charge to it, to equip the same with its electric wires and lamps for street lighting, said equipment to be at the expense of said city and under the supervision of the City Electrician, and to be done and maintained at all times in such a manner as not to interfere with the use of said poles for the operation of said railways, in consideration whereof the City of Chicago shall indemnify and save harmless the said company from all damages, judgments and costs which the said company may suffer by the said use of said poles by the said city.

Section 3. It is hereby made an express provision of this ordinance that the grantee herein, its successors and assigns, shall pave the center sixteen (16) feet in width, in said 40th avenue, from West Madison street to West 31st street (being the sixteen (16) feet to be occupied by the tracks of the said grantee) with granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification and free from an excess of mica or feldspar. Such blocks shall measure from three and one-half (3½) to five and one-half (5½) inches in width, and from seven (7) to eleven (11) inches in length (except that shorter stones may be used to break joints) and not less than five (5) inches in depth. They shall be dressed so as to have substantially plane surfaces, so that when in place the points at the ends and sides shall average one quarter (¼) inch in width. Soft or weather-worn stones, obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic shall not be used. They shall be laid in such manner as may be prescribed by the said Commissioner of Public Works, and the said pavement shall be kept in good order and condition, clean and free from snow and ice, and shall be sprinkled during the period from May 1st to September 30th of each year, so as to be free from dust, all at the expense of the said grantee herein, or its successors and assigns.

SECTION 4. The consent, permission and authority granted by this ordinance are so granted upon the express condition that the said Company shall, within fifteen days after the acceptance of this ordinance, weather permitting, lay down and operate a temporary single track in said South 40th avenue, from the north line of West Madison street to the center line of West Taylor street, on the West side of South 40th avenue and parallel to the single track now in said South 40th avenue, between said points, and equip and operate the same sufficiently to accommodate the traffic on said street between said points, from the aceptance of this ordinance to the 1st day of August, A. D. 1907, said temporary tracks and equipment to be of such character and in such location as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works and the City Electrician of said city; and upon the further condition that the said company shall, on or before the 1st day of August, A. D. 1907, remove said temporary tracks and construct, equip and operate the tracks authorized and described in the preceding sections of this ordinance, and under the several provisons and requirements thereof. In the event of any failure to comply with the provisions of this section, all of the rights, privileges and authority granted by this ordinance to the said company shall be forfeited and shall wholly cease and determine.

SECTION 5. The permission and authority hereby granted shall wholly cease and determine on the 18th day of February, A. D. 1915, and thereupon all and every or any right whatever of the said Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, or its successors, lessees or assigns, or any or either of them, to construct, maintain or operate any of the said street railway tracks authorized by this ordinance shall wholly cease and determine. Provided, however, that in the event that the City of Chicago, or any person, persons or corporation authorized thereto by the City of Chicago shall (either before or after the said 18th day of February, 1915) seek to acquire by purchase or condemnation the street railway tracks and appurtenances of the said company authorized to be constructed, maintained and operated in the said streets in said city by this ordinance, the value of the said street railway tracks and appurtenances shall be fixed and determined for the purpose of such purchase without including in such value any sum or allowance as the value of the earning power of such property or the then unexpired portion of the franchise or right to occupy the said streets granted by this ordinance. But such valuation for the purpose of any such purchase shall be fixed wholly upon the then cost to reproduce the physical property then constituting the said street railway tracks and appurtenances less the then existing depreciation of the said physical property.

SECTION 6. This ordinance shall take effect from and after the filing with the City Clerk of said city of a written acceptance hereof, duly executed by the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company (said last named company being in possession of and now operating said lines) and by the receivers of the said Chicago Union Traction Company, provided that if the said acceptance is not filed within ten (10) days from the passage hereof, then all rights and privileges hereby granted shall be wholly null and void and of no effect.

CHARLES WERNO,
Chairman.

CHICAGO, December 4, 1906.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Judiciary to whom was referred an ordinance regulating billboards, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of the accompanying substitute ordinance:

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Article XXIII of Chapter XV of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Article XXIII of Chapter XV of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended so that said Article shall hereafter read as follows:

"ARTICLE XXIII.

BILLBOARDS, SIGNBOARDS AND WOODEN FENCES.

"705. (Billboards or Signboards on Buildings.) Every billboard of greater height than two feet and placed on any building shall be faced with iron or other incombustible material with framework of wood or iron, and shall be securely anchored and fastened to such building in such manner as to make the same safe, to the satisfaction and approval of the Commissioner of Buildings. When such billboard or signboard is situated above or upon the roof of any building the supports and framework for same may be of wood, and the number of such supports and the construction of same and the construction of the framework for same shall be satisfactory to and approved by the said Commissioner.

"No billboard or signboard anchored to, fastened to, or situated above or upon the roof of any building shall be placed so that the face of same shall come within three feet of the inner plane of the outer wall of such building, nor shall the same be constructed so that the bottom of such billboard or signboard shall be less than one foot or more than three feet above the surface of such roof; the face of such billboard of signboard shall not exceed ten feet in height, nor shall it exceed twenty-four feet in length for every twenty-five feet of frontage on the building on which it is placed, nor extend beyond the wall of said building; and such billboard or signboard shall have a door in the center of same which can be readily opened and which when so opened will leave a clear space at least four feet in width and seven feet in height from the roof to the top of said door.

"No billboard or signboard shall be anchored to, fastened to or situated above or upon the roof of any building more than two (2) stories in height; and no billboard or signboard shall be anchored to, fastened to or situated above or upon the roof of any building having other than a flat roof.

"No billboard or signboard such as is described in this section, whether anchored to or fastened to any building or situated or located upon the roof thereof, shall be constructed and put in place unless in accordance with plans and specifications which have been submitted to and approved by the Commissioner of Buildings.

"706. (Size and Construction of Billboards and Signboards Erected Within Fire Limits Otherwise Than on Buildings.) No Billboards or signboards erected within the fire limits as now defined or as they may hereafter be defined by ordinances of the City (other than signboards and billboards referred to in Sections 705 and 707 hereof) shall exceed twelve (12) feet in height, and the same shall be constructed of tin or galvanized iron or some other equally incombustible material, except that the stringers, uprights and braces thereof may be made of wood. All such billboards or signboards shall be so curely anchored or fastened so as to be safe and substantial.

"706a. (Height and Distance from Ground of Billboard or Signboard Erected Within Fire Limits.) No billboard or signboard (other than those referred to in Sections 705 and 707 hereof) shall be constructed within the fire limits at a greater height than seventeen feet above the level of the adjoining street, and the base of the billboard or signboard shall be in all cases at least five feet above the level of the adjoining street, and in case the surface of the ground upon which such billboard or signboard is erected is above the grade of the adjoining street, the base of such billboard or signboard shall be not less than two feet above the surface of the ground. In case the grade of the adjoining street or streets has not been established, no such billboard or signboard shall be constructed at a greater height than seventeen feet above the level of the street adjoining the ground upon which such billboard or signboard is erected.

"707. (Wooden Billboards or Signboards — Construction — Size — Exceptions.) Billboards or signboards not exceeding twelve square feet in area may be built of wood or other combustible material, and such billboards or signboards shall be exempt from the provisions of this article. Signs erected flat against the face of buildings shall also be exempt from the provisions of this Article, provided that such signs shall be safely and securely fastened to the building.

"708. (Billboards or Signboards Erected Outside of the Fire Limits—Construction—Size.) All billboards or signboards erected outside of the fire limits as now defined or as they may hereafter be defined by the ordinances of the city (other than those referred to in Sections 705 and 707 hereof) shall comply with the following conditions:

"If such billboard or signboard be erected or located so that no part thereof is nearer than ten feet to any building, wooden fence, or other structure, such billboard or signboard may be constructed of wood or other combustible material, but no part of same shall exceed seventeen feet in height, and the same shall be so constructed that there shall be a clear space of not less than five feet between the bottom of such billboard or signboard and the surface of the ground upon which such billboard or signboard is erected. If any part of such billboard or signboard shall be within ten feet of any building, wooden fence, or other structure, the size and construction of such billboard or signboard shall be limited as is provided in Sections 706 and 706a for billboards or signboards erected within the fire limits. All billboards or signboards erected outside of the fire limits as provided for in this section shall be securely anchored or fastened so as to be safe and substantial.

"709. (No Billboard or Signboard Shall Be Erected Without Permit.) No billboard or signboard such as is described in this article shall be erected or maintained within the City unless a permit shall first have been secured by the person desiring to erect or maintain such billboard or signboard from the Commissioner of Buildings, to whom application for such permit shall be made; and such application shall be accompanied by such plans and specifications of the proposed billboard or signboard as are necessary to fully advise and acquaint the said Commissioner with the construction of such proposed billboard or signboard. If the plans and specifications accompanying such application shall be in accordance with the provisions of this article said Commissioner shall thereupon issue a permit for the erection of such billboard or signboard, upon the payment by the applicant of a fee as hereinafter fixed; provided, however, that none of the provisions of this article shall apply to or affect any billboard erected upon land abutting the right-of-way of any railroad where such billboard does not come within twenty-five feet of any public highway and where the bottom of such billboard is not less than three feet from the ground and the same is situated more than fifty feet from any building.

"710. (Alteration and Repair of Billboards and Signboards.) No material alteration or repair of any billboard or signboard shall be made except upon a written permit issued by the Commissioner of Buildings authorizing such alteration or repair; and such permit shall be issued upon application in writing made to such Commissioner by the owner of such billboard or signboard or by the person in charge, possession, or control thereof accompanied by a plan or statement of the proposed alterations and repairs to be made; which, if satisfactory to and approved by the Commissioner of Buildings, shall authorize such applicant to receive a permit upon the payment of a fee therefor as hereinafter fixed; but such alteration shall not be construed to apply to the changing of any advertising matter of any billboard or signboard, nor the refacing of the framework supporting same.

"711. (Billboards Now Existing to Be Altered to Comply With the Provisions of This Article.) Every now existing billboard or signboard, whether erected upon or above the roof of any building or attached or fastened to the wall or walls of any building, or standing upon or erected upon any lot or premises, which is now erected or which is now maintained contrary to the provisions of this article, shall be forthwith removed or altered, changed, or cut down so as to fully comply with such provisions; and any billboard or signboard now existing and not complying with the provisions of this article which shall not have been removed or torn down or so altered and changed within sixty days from and after the passage of this ordinance as to be brought into conformity with the provisions of this article by the owner thereof or by the person in charge, possession, or control thereof, shall be torn down by the Commissioner of Buildings and the cost and expense of tearing down such billboard or signboard shall be charged to the owner of such billboard or signboard or the person in charge, possession, or control thereof, and shall be recovered from such person for the use of the city by any appropriate proceeding therefor.

"712. (Duty of Commissioner—Owner's Name to Be Placed on Top of Billboard.) It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Buildings to inspect all plans and specifications submitted in connection with the erection or construction or the alteration or repair of any billboard or signboard and to approve same if the method of construction and provisions made for fastening, securing, anchoring, and maintaining such billboards or signboards are such as will serve to protect the public and to render such billboards or signboards safe and substantial. It is further made the duty of the Commissioner of Buildings to exercise a supervision over all billboards and signboards erected or being maintained under the provisions of this article; and whenever it shall appear to said Commissioner that any such billboard or signboard has been erected in violation of this ordinance or is in an unsafe condition or has become unstable or insecure or in such a condition as to be a menace to the safety of the public, he shall thereupon issue or cause to be issued a notice in writing to the owner of such billboard or signboard or the person in charge, possession or control thereof, if the whereabouts of such person is known, informing such person of the violation of this ordinance and the condition of such billboard or signboard and directing him to make such alterations or repairs thereto or to do such acts or things as are necessary or advisable to place such billboard or signboard in a safe, substantial, and secure condition, within such reasonable time as may be stated in said notice. If the person so notified shall refuse, fail, or neglect to comply with and conform to the requirements of such notice, said Commissioner shall, upon the expiration of the time therein mentioned, tear down or cause to be torn down such billboard or signboard and shall charge the expense of such tearing down to the person so notified. If the owner of such billboard or signboard or the person in charge, possession, or control thereof cannot be found or his whereabouts is not easily ascertainable, the Commissioner shall attach or cause to be attached to such billboard or signboard a notice of the same import as that required to be sent to the owner where such owner is known; and if such billboard or signboard shall not have been made to conform to this ordinance and placed in a secure, safe, and substantial condition, in accordance with the requirements of such notice, within thirty days after such notice shall have been attached to such billboard or signboard, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Buildings to thereupon order such billboard or signboard torn down; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the Commissioner of Buildings from adopting such precautionary measures as may be necessary or advisable in case of imminent danger in order to place such billboard or signboard in a safe condition, the expense of which may be charged to and recovered from the owner of same in any appropriate proceeding therefor. No permit shall be issued to any applicant for permission to erect a billboard or signboard unless such applicant shall agree to place and maintain on the top of such billboard or signboard the name of the person or corporation owning same or who is in charge, possession, or control thereof. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Buildings to see to it that the name of the person or corporation owning or in possession, charge, or control of such billboard or signboard is placed upon such billboard or signboard forthwith upon the erection thereof and is kept thereon at all times while such billboard or signboard is maintained; and in case the owner of such billboard or signboard or the person in charge, possession, or control thereof shall fail or refuse to place and maintain such name on the same after due notice from the Commissioner of Buildings he shall be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided for.

"713. (Fees for Permits.) The fee to be charged for permits issued for the erection or construction of billboards or signboards or for the alteration or repair thereof shall be two dollars ($2.00) for each billboard or signboard.

"714. (Penalty.) Any person or corporation owning, operating, maintaining, or in charge, possession, or control of any billboard or signboard within the city, who shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this article, or who erects, constructs, or maintains any billboard or signboard that does not comply with the provisions of this article, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense; and each day on which any such person shall permit or allow any billboard or signboard owned, operated, maintained, or controlled by him to be erected, constructed, or maintained in violation of any of the provisions of this article shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

"715. (Fences—Height Of.) No wooden fences shall be constructed of greater height than eight feet above the sidewalk grade or eight feet above the surface of the ground where no grade is established."

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after January 1, 1907.

GAS, OIL AND ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light submitted the following report:

December 10, 1906.

To His Honor, the Mayor, and the Members of the City Council:

Your Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light, to whom was referred a resolution introduced by Alderman B. W. Snow on November 12, 1906, and which resolution follows, has considered such resolution and respectfully submits the following report:

"WHEREAS, It is reported in the public press that a proposition is under consideration looking to the leasing of the Chicago Edison Company to the Chicago Subway interests, the latter being the interests controlling the franchise granted the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company, both being public service corporations existing and doing business by virtue of franchise rights granted by the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, It further appears in the public press that the basis of the proposed leasing of the Chicago Edison Company is a 'guarantee for three years of a dividend of eight per cent. on Chicago Edison stock, and for the succeeding two years eight and one-half per cent., and for the remaining period of the lease nine per cent.' with the lease to be made for a period of ninety-nine years; and

WHEREAS, The Chicago Edison Company is now operating under a franchise that expires in 1912, while the franchise of the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company expires in 1929; and

WHEREAS, The Legislature of Illinois in 1905 enacted a statute, since adopted by popular vote providing that 'the City of Chicago shall have the power and authority to sell surplus electricity for heat, light and power within the corporate limits of said city, and is hereby empowered to prescribe by ordinance maximum rates and charges for the supply of gas and electricity for power, heating and lighting furnished by any individual, company or corporation to such city and the inhabitants thereof,' the only limitation upon such right being that the rates and charges established shall be just and reasonable; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the City Council of the City of Chicago,

First, That it is contrary to public policy and inimical to proper public control for public service corporations to enter into contractual relations or assume contractual obligations extending beyond the term of the franchise under which they are operating; and

Second, That the rate charged for public services rendered by public service corporations should not be one calculated to return greater than six per cent. as the annual dividend upon the capital actually invested in the plant of such corporation, such capital not to include any capitalization either of franchise or good will; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light be and is hereby instructed to investigate the reported merger and to report to this Council all facts connected therewith."

The above resolution was taken up for consideration by your committee at its meeting Wednesday, November 14, 1906. The introducer of the resolution appeared before the committee, and the resolution was discussed generally. The following points seemed to be pertinent under the subject of the resolution:

If such a merger is contemplated, what power has the city to take part in it or to prevent such merger?

In what way would the rights of the city or the public be prejudiced by such reporter merger?

Is it possible under the laws of the State of Illinois for a public service corporation of such character to lease the rights given under its franchise to another such public service corporation?

Would the rights of the city under authority given it by the legislature, to regulate the rates to be charged for electricity used for light or power, be interfered with if such reported contractual relation should be entered into?

In case the Chicago Edison Company should fail of itself to secure sufficient net earnings to pay the rates of dividend reported as guaranteed, would the controlling corporation seek to increase other charges made upon the public, sufficiently, to make up the deficiency in the payment of such guaranteed charges?

Under the ordinance granted to the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company the city has the right to take over its property at the expiration of its franchise in 1929. Would such lease or contractual relation in any way affect or prejudice the rights of the city to take over such property at the expiration of the franchise?

And lastly, that possible purchasers of stocks or bonds should have notice in advance that the City of Chicago questions the right of such corporations to enter into any such lease or contractual relation.

After such general discussion, the committee instructed its chairman to communicate with the Corporation Counsel and to ask his opinion regarding the rights of the city, based upon the assumption of the facts as stated in the resolution. The Corporation Counsel sent to the committee the following partial report which was presented at its meeting November 16, 1906. The chairman was further directed to request representatives of the two corporations mentioned to appear before the committee to give such information as they were willing to give regarding the proposed merger.

Accordingly the chairman invited Mr. Samuel Insull, President of the Chicago Edison Company, Mr. William G. Beale, General Counsel for the Chicago Edison Company, and Mr. A. G. Wheeler, President of the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company, to be present at the meeting of the committee to be held November 16, 1906. At such meeting Mr. Insull and Mr. Beale representing the Chicago Edison Company, and Judge N. C. Sears, representing the Subway interests, were present. The subject was discussed at length and your committee herewith reports a summary of the statements made by Mr. Beale, Mr. Insull and Judge Sears:

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL.

OFFICE OF CORPORATION COUNSEL,
November 15, 1906.

Hon. Linn H. Young, Chairman of Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light.

DEAR SIR—I beg to acknowledge the communication from yourself and your committee, of date of November 14th, to which is appended a copy of a resolution by Alderman Snow, referred to your committee by the Council.

Your honorable committee propounds questions to me of such serious importance—and which I may add have been subjects of much vexatious differences among the courts of our country—that I beg to be excused from rendering an opinion upon the same within the short length of time your committee limits me. The official matters of the city upon me just at present so monopolize my immediate opportunities that I cannot give to the subject the personal investigation which I would prefer to give previous to announcing a conclusion. For reasons quite satisfactory to myself I prefer to enter upon this investigation personally rather than to commit it to any one of my assistants.

Permit me also to say that your letter calls for my opinion generally. I would like to know whether it is your desire to be informed as to whether the companies referred to entered into their consolidations or arrangements under the State law, or the general laws prevailing as to corporations, and their powers? or whether—did your honorable committee mean to ask—could such be done under the existing ordinances of the city? or, if such was done under the general existing laws, do the ordinances concerning those particular companies affect the question either as an aid or preventative? When you ask "what are the rights of the city," did you mean the rights of the city to consent to consolidation, should such be attempted, or did you mean what privilege, or right, or authority, would the city have to still enforce the particular provisions of the ordinances concerning these companies, or either of them, and if such rights of the city existed to the same degree and extent against the consolidated companies as existed against the individual companies previous to consolidation?

As to the question "what would the effect upon the rights of the city to take over the property of the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph Company, at the expiration of its franchise in 1929," did your honorable committee mean to ask what would be its effect as to whether such would be a preventative to the city or not, or did your committee mean to ask whether the city could take over the franchise as against the consolidated company the same as it might have done under the constitutent company? or did you mean to ask what would be the effect upon the rights of the city to regulate the uses, charges, etc., of the consolidated company?

If your honorable committee can make these matters clear to me as to your desires, it will give me great pleasure personally to serve you; but should your time not allow any more specific inquiry than that contained in your communication of the 14th, I will, upon my return from New York —which I trust will be as early as

Tuesday—give specific investigation as to all of the matters which I assume your inquiry might cover and lay upon your table such further, complete information as I have upon the subject, to the end that your committee may have my judgment touching all phases as I assume them.

I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully,

J. HAMILTON LEWIS,
Corporation Counsel.

STATEMENT BY MR. REALE.

Overtures have been made by some gentlemen to stockholders in the company to buy their stock, simply, but there is no sale by the company. There has been no idea of a sale, no thought of a sale by the company. There could not be any sale by the companies. The Chicago Edison Company will be here just the same and the Commonwealth Company will be here just the same.

The state has not given us the right to lease, and until the state gives it to us we could not lease if we wanted to. If anybody should come to me to buy my stock, there is no reason why I should not sell it to him if he is willing to pay me enough. All I want to say is, whether it materializes or amounts to anything or not I do not know, that they have come to one or two of the large stockholders. They have not come to the company, because the company could not do it, and these stockholders will not sell to anybody and get out unless an offer is made which will allow any stockholder to sell. If anything is done it will be done in such a way that any stockholder can sell. Whether there would be any consolidation or not depends on the purchaser. There is no movement on foot of any attempt at consolidation that I know of.

Now, let me tell you again the exact facts. There is no idea of a lease. We could not lease if we wanted to. There has been no discussion of a lease. The laws of this state do not permit any such lease, and any lawyer in this room knows it. By force of a special statute authorizing railway companies to lease, one to another, the Supreme Court of this state has held that statute applicable to street railway companies. But there is nothing applying to other public service corporations, nothing at all as to electric lighting companies or gas companies or telephone companies, or any of the so-called public service corporations. We could not lease if we wanted to. We have discussed here the facts that we could not consolidate our own two corporations, the Edison Company and the Commonwealth Company, and how could we consolidate with the Subway Company?

We have not a scrap of paper or a scratch of a pen making any proposition either to the stockholders or to the company. Whether we will ever get one or not I do not know. I expect that ultimately the stockholders will get some kind of a proposition from gentlemen to buy them out in some way.

It is simply impossible, gentlemen, as a proposition of law for a corporation to to give more rights than it has. Nothing in contemplation would have prejudiced the rights of the city.

As a matter of fact the amount of stock that a public service corporation has out is of no consequence at all except as one indication of what is fair compensation. The general rule is that just compensation is compensation on the value of the property at the time it is being used. If there is too much stock out, they will not get so much compensation on it. You cannot make stock and bonds a final test.

STATEMENT BY JUDGE SEARS.

I assume that what the Council is interested in is the action of the two public utility companies. namely, the Illinois Tunnel Company and the Edison Company, which enjoy franchises from the City of Chicago.

I said to my friend, Mr. Beale, this morning, when I met him here that if a merger was contemplated or being negotiated between the company of which he was general counsel and the company of which I was general counsel, it was a little singular that he and I had not met for three months last past, and I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Insull until this morning in this room.

Now, so far as the Illinois Tunnel Company is concerned, of which I am general counsel, I wish to say this, so far as I am concerned, and I believe I know: so far as I am aware no overtures have been made and none have been contemplated, and as long as I am general counsel of the company none will be made or contemplated, looking to a merger with the Chicago Edison Company or the Commonwealth Company or looking to the purchase of any of the stock of any of the stockholders of that company. If the Illinois Tunnel Company ever undertakes any of these things it will be against my advice and after I have ceased to be its general counsel, because it cannot do it. It cannot become a stockholder in the Edison or Commonwealth, and it cannot merge with the Edison and the Commonwealth.

Now the situation probably is, although I do not know this, that some gentlemen in New York City have been trying to buy some of the stock of these companies. The Illinois Tunnel Company has not undertaken and I believe will not, undertake to go into any merger with either of these companies.

STATEMENT BY MR. INSULL.

A newspaper man asked me recently whether we contemplated leasing our property or merging it with the Illinois Tunnel Company, and I said we did not; and he asked me whether there was any other proposition under consideration and I said there had been some interviews here with some people here, and in New York, but that there was not a single proposition of any kind whatsoever reduced to writing. I cannot express m self any plainer.

On the legal side of the situation, M Beale has stated our position. I rea do not know whether we will ever ceive a proposition—that is, I am n talking of the stockholders—and after is received I do not know whether stockholders will accept it if it is ma If any is made it will be made on basis of purchasing other securities, I would dislike very much at this ti to hazard an opinion that the proposit would be made and that such a prop tion, if it is made, would be accepted.

There has never been a communicat of any kind whatsoever made to the b of stockholders, and I do not believe t ten stockholders out of the seven hund of the Edison Company have been spo to, certainly not by me. There is ab lutely no negotiation under considerati The only thing that is being discussed all is the question of buying shares of stock of the Edison Company. There no leasing or anything else.

Instead of a merger of this kind be opposed to public policy, if it were po ble to make it, and any lawyer in room knows that it is not possible, no ing would be so conducive to the inter of the people who want cheap light cheap manufacturing, than for all of concerns manufacturing electric light current or manufacturing current to under one head.

In the communication of the Corp tion Counsel presented to the commi at its meeting November 14th, 1906, Corporation Counsel suggested a fur communication after securing, if possi more complete information regarding subject under consideration. The c mittee, therefore, directed the chair to take up the subject further with Corporation Counsel with the purpos securing additional information and vice. As a result of such conference following additional communication received from Corporation Counsel Lewis, and presented to the committee at its meeting held Saturday, December 8, 1906:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,

To the Honorable, the Chairman and Committee Upon Gas, Oil and Electricity, etc.

GENTLEMEN—Upon the request of your honorable committee, initiated by resolution from Aldlerman Snow, demanding that I investigate the matter of the statements and general public information of the consolidation and amalgamation of the electric lighting companies and the electric companies of the City of Chicago, and that upon such information as I obtained, I advise your honorable committee of what I esteem to be the law in the premises.

Referring to my letter to your committee of the date of November 15, 1906, you will observe that I went to the city of New York for the purpose of obtaining direct information from the lips of those who could speak authoritatively, and under the directions of your honorable chairman I endeavored to obtain the information from as direct a source as was possible.

I am not permitted by the sources of my information to reveal publicly the names of my authority. But I am authorized to reveal these names to any members of the committee who might desire such for the purpose of knowing what sources of further information might be resorted to.

I inform you that at my visit to New York I sought the sources who were reputed to be representing the interests in the consolidation undertaken.

From these sources in which I rely, but which I do not regard without the possibility of misinformation themselves, I am able to report to you that it is currently understood in the financial circles of New York:

First. That the Commonwealth Electric Company is to pass into the hands of the Edison Company, either by the purchase of the stock of the one company in behalf of the other company, either by that company direct, or by an intermediate agency acting therefor.

Second. That these two companies when consolidated, or these interests when amalgamated, are then to pass into the hands of the Harriman interests and combined with the Automatic Telephone interests, and the interests of the Tunnel Company now being exercised and enjoyed in the joint name of the Illinois Telephone & Telegraph Company and the Illinois Tunnel Company.

I desire to inform your honorable committee that it is stated that this latter consolidation with the Harriman interests has no other purpose than to give greater enforcement to the electrical power for the purpose of conducting a railroad by electricity through the tunnel, and through such streets underground as the tunnel may go.

It is assumed that electric engines will be necessary, as it is impossible for the tunnels to be used by locomotive engines, smoking with coal, and this it is said, is the only reason for combining the electrical power, so far as the railroad in the tunnel interests are concerned.

It is also reported to me from sources which I must credit, that there has been initiated a move to include the gas companies, to-wit, The Peoples Gas and the Ogden Gas within the consolidation. I am informed that the interests representing the gas companies refuse to enter into the arrangement, pointing out that under some obligations to the honorable City Council of Chicago, they felt barred from considering the proposition, and could only do so, if at all, with the consent of your Honorable Body. My information is that one of the stockholders of the Gas Company, a Mr. Brady, as spokesman for the company, so communicated the situation. It is reported that those interested in the Cosmopolitan ordinance are also to enter into the amalgamation, so far as any rights under the said ordinance to conduct electrical business are granted.

From other sources it was learned by me that these electrical companies would make some arrangement with the General Electric Company of New York, by which that company became the owner of a large interest in the amalgamated property herein referred to. I wish to say that I am compelled to arrive at a contrary conclusion concerning this latter information. I am able to inform your honorable committee that reliable information assures me that the financial interests represented in what is known as the Harriman syndicate is the same financial interests as is represented by what is known as the Standard Oil interests and Mr. John D. Rockefeller and his associates. I am personally informed, and am personally acquainted with the fact, that on the other hand, the interests of the General Electric Company of New York is controlled by interests under the domination of the banking house of John Pierpont Morgan & Company. If I may be pardoned for referring to my personal history, I was one of the counsel in the late litigation known as the Northern Securities case, and previous to taking my present office was counsel in the contest between the Harriman and Hill and Morgan interests in this important railroad conflict. I personally know that conditions exist which make it almost impossible to assume at this time that there is any harmony or amalgamation in the arrangements and financial dealings between the interests represented by Harriman and those by Mr. Morgan—the exception to this statement is limited to matters which began and transpired previous to March, 1905. I am quite certain that your honorable committee may eliminate any consideration of the General Electric of New York being now interested in, or to be interested in, the properties of the Harriman interests at the city of Chicago.

The amalgamation to which I have referred, would result in putting all electric companies, or in other words, the electrical interests, into the hands of one power, and that power dominating the distribution of such electrical enterprises, as to its judgment seemed profitable, limited by such supervision as your Honorable Body, coupled with the City Council, would see fit to impose.

I beg to say that I have conferred with the Honorable William G. Beale because of interests he represents at this time, to-wit, the Commonwealth and Edison Electric Companies, have brought to his attention that I was possessed of information apparently in conflict with the statement he made before your honorable committee. He pointed out to me with all clearness —and with what I regard satisfactory —that the conflict is more apparent than real;—that he stated to your committee "that the stock of one of the concerns, or both of them, might be purchased from the stockholders by some new or intervening agency, or by some individual personally, but that depended wholly upon a further consideration of propositions which up to the date of his speaking, had only been tentatively suggested."

I beg to say that any information I here convey that may appear to be in conflict with the statement of Mr. Beale, could all exist and the events of the same have accrued subsequent to such statement made by Mr. Beale, and can be wholly consistent with his statement that some intermediate agency will purchase the stock of the stockholders, instead of the companies purchasing each others. In other words, the information of your honorable committee from all sources, indicates an attempt at amalgamation direct between the companies themselves, or one indirectly through the stockholders of the companies.

I beg to call to your attention that it is current history, that Mr. John J. Mitchell of the City of Chicago, banker and financier, in behalf of the enterprises I herein pointed out, visited New York and conferred with his associates in the undertaking, as early as April of the past year, again in June, and did this community the fairness to publicly have himself quoted in the public press, revealing as late as September, or thereabouts, what he had been doing, and what the contemplations were in respect to this proposed amalgamation. I am inclined to the conclusion that the statement of Mr. Mitchell justifies the presumption that the information given me at New York is ratified by him. My conclusion of fact therefore is that there is now existing a tentative and preliminary compact by which the stock or interests of both electrical companies may pass in to the hands of a third ownership in order to centralize the same, and that third ownership will pass into some form of joint ownership or control with or by the Harriman interests, which it is alleged, now control the interests of the Automatic Telephone and Telegraph Company. As to whether the plan when finally considered would be legal, would altogether depend upon the manner in which it was projected, the method of its arrangement, and the details of its device. Until this is made evident with some degree of exactness, I am unable to give to your honorable committee what may be said to be a complete opinion of the law. However, I make free to lay before you abstractly, one or two legal considerations with respect to your inquiry upon this subject:

ON THE LAW.

The ordinances of both electrical companies clearly disclose that any franchise exercised by either could only be transferred into the hands of others, with the consent of the City Council. And while it is in the power of those companies to transfer the right to conduct their business to some operating agency, the companies themselves would ever be looked to by the city as the responsible source; nor could it at any time, defeat or evade any responsibility under the ordinances, by virtue of any fact disclosing a transfer arrangement by the companies to some operating company.

Should there be an attempt to transfer the franchises of such companies, such transfer would infringe the rights of the city and trespass against the law forbidding monopoly. More, such would be in violation of any inherent rights on the part of the companies, now vesting in them, or either of them —though such transfer could be had with the consent of your honorable body, either through transfer or by an original form of franchise to the new agency, merely duplicating the provisions of the old ones. Whether or not the stockholders could transfer their stock into the hands of third persons—there can be no doubt such is the right of the use of property, that any stockholder may sell his stock to whomsoever he pleases, and thus any one person may be the owner of all the stock of many companies. In this manner, the one person is therefore simply the stockholder. Such is the actual relation of Mr. James J. Hill to many railroad companies which go by the name of railroad companies, but the stock is personally owned in its majority by Mr. James J. Hill. It is a notorious fact in financial history that Baron Rothschild, one son and one brother, own all the stock of seventy enterprises which traverse the civilized world in their extensions. The enlightened law, together with the march of commerce has not been able consistent with man's inherent rights and liberty, to prohibit an individual from doing with his own as he pleases, so long as by so doing he does not hurt others. Nevertheless, the question will still remain whether your honorable body wishes to allow such persons when they have become owners to do business in your community, or do the business they will seek to do, or in the manner that they would attempt to do. While it is not in your power to prohibit the transfer of stock in any manner from many owners to some one individual, nevertheless your power to say whether such transferee shall conduct business as such owner in the City of Chicago still exists, and will always be exercised by you consonant with what you deem to be the interests of the City of Chicago. Nor can you be compelled to grant privileges against your own good judgment wherever that judgment is exercised through the avenues of your official discretion as the agents of the people.

This feature at this time need not be considered further than to say, that should future developments call for a more extended or more applied opinion, your honorable body will have such from me based exclusively upon the contents of the amalgamation and directed to such questions as your honorable body or the Council may direct to me for reply.

I have heretofore had the privilege of giving to your committee an opinion as to the rights of transferees under certain public service ordinances in which I have pointed out, that the right to do business or to enjoy such transfer was subject to the approval of the Council. In that opinion I referred to several citations disclosing that such view was the authority of the leading states of the union, as well as the federal courts of the nation. Such is still my opinion, and adhering to same I conclude this note by informing your honorable body that whatever may be the final facts respecting the subject of the amalgamation or consolidation or transfer, the control of the same, so far as the same shall exercise authority or do business within the precincts of the City of Chicago and the corporate limits, will remain and rest under the guidance and supervision of your honorable body. As each instance of control or direction from the committee or the Council will of course turn upon the individual event under consideration at the time, I assume there is no necessity for anticipating the situation, nor offering your committee any suggestions until the necessity shall arise.

I have the honor to be,

With respect,

JAS. HAMILTON LEWIS,

Corporation Counsel.

The statements of Mr. Beale, Mr. Insull and Judge Sears, and the two communications from Corporation Counsel Lewis, present all the facts and information which the committee has been able to secure pertaining to the subject-matter of the resolution before the committee for its consideration. There seems to be no further action by the committee necessary pending future developments.

The committee therefore recommends that the resolution be placed on file.

Very respectfully submitted,

LINN H. YOUNG,

Chairman.

Ald. Young moved to place the resolution and report on file.

The motion prevailed.

or to deposit a certified check drawn upon some responsible bank doing business in the City of Chicago, which deposit or certified check shall be for five per cent of the total yearly amount of their bid.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

WATER DEPARTMENT.

The Committee on Water Department submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Reese, deferred and ordered published:

CHICAGO, December 10, 1906.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Water Department, to whom was referred a communication concerning Section 2434 of the Revised Code of 1905, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of accompanying ordinance and the publication of the opinion of the Assistant Corporation Counsel:

OFFICE OF CORPORATION COUNSEL,

Hon. A. C. Anson, City Clerk:

DEAR SIR—On the 24th inst. you requested the Corporation Counsel to give you an opinion as to the present status of Section 2434 of the Revised Code of 1905, which is a part of the water ordinance, and requires that certain establishments shall have the water supplied to them controlled by water meters.

It appears from your communication that on July 5, 1905, the City Council passed an ordinance (Council Proceedings p. 866) which contained the following language:

"SECTION 2. Sections 2395, 2423, 2428, 2434, and 2436 of said Revised Code of Chicago of 1905 are hereby repealed."

It also appeared that on June 25, 1906, the City Council passed on ordinance (Council Proceedings pp. 998-1001) which attempted to amend certain sections of the Revised Code of 1905, and particularly Section 2434 (Council Proceedings p. 999) in the following language:

"SECTION 2. Sections and all amendments thereto of Sections 2402, 2421, 2434, 2442 and 2443 of said Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 are hereby repealed."

Section 1 of the said ordinance of June 25, 1906, amends or attempts to amend Sections 2402, 2421, 2434, 2442 and 2443 of the said code and all amendments thereto so as to make those sections read in a particular manner. It seems plain that the City Council intended that there should be a section of the Revised Municipal Code of 1905 to be known as Section 2434, and also intended that that section should contain the language set forth in Section 1 of the ordinance of June 25, 1906 (page 999).

It has been said in regard to statutes that a statute or an entire section thereof which has been wiped out of existence by repeal is no longer the subject of further legislation by amendment. (Am. and Eng. Ency. of Law, 2d Ed., Vol. 26, p. 703.)

By Section 3 of an act entitled "'An Act to revise the law in relation to the construction of statutes" (Hurd's Rev. Statutes, 1905, p. 1947), it is provided that "No act or part of an act repealed by the General Assembly shall be deemed to be revived by the repeal of the repealing act."

It is frequently said that the rules relating to the construction of statutes also apply to the construction of municipal ordinances; but certainly an ordinance is in many respects different from a statute, and it is doubtful whether a city ordinance comes within the language of the statute just quoted.

If, as I have indicated, our act relating to the construction of statutes does not apply to city ordinances, then the common law rule would be in force, and this rule is that when a statute has been repealed and afterwards the repealing act is itself repealed by a later statute the earlier law is thereby revived. (Am. and Eng. Ency. of Law, 2d Ed., Vol. 26, p. 760). But even this rule is of little aid here because while the ordinance of June 25, 1906, by Section 2, repeals all the amendments to certain sections, including Section 2434, the ordinance of July 5, 1905, did not amend Section 2434, but by Section 2 repealed it absolutely and there is nothing in the ordinance of June 25, 1906, repealing Section 2 of the ordinance of July 5, 1905.

In the American and English Encyclopedia of Law, 2 Ed., Vol. 21, page 1004, the rule is laid down that the repeal of an ordinance is rendered inoperative by the subsequent repeal of the ordinance by which it was affected, and that thereafter the original ordinance continues in full force and effect. The cases cited as upholding the text lend some support to the rule as stated, but they do not decide it in a satisfactory manner. Most of the authorities cited are decided on other points, as will appear from an examination of them.

New York v. Broadway etc. R. Co., 97 N. Y. 275.

Van Denburgh v. Greenbush, 66 N. Y. 1.

People v. Davis, 61 Barb. 456.

But here again, assuming the rule to be as stated, we are met with the objection that the ordinance of June 25, 1906, does not attempt to repeal Section 2 of the ordinance of July 5, 1905, which section repeals Section 2434 of the Revised Code of 1905.

In view of this unfortunate situation and the rather unsatisfactory state of authorities, it is a doubtful question whether Section 2434 of the Revised Municipal Code as enacted by Section 1 of the ordinance of June 25, 1906, is in force. If it is to be regarded as now in force, it must be by reason of the principle of statutory construction that when an amendment takes effect as independent legislation of its own force, its validity is unaffected by the fact that the act or section which it purports to amend has been repealed. (Am. and Eng. Ency. of Law, 2d Ed., Vol. 26, p. 705).

The ordinance of July 5, 1905, which repeals Section 2434 of the Revised Municipal Code of 1905 was, generally speaking, an amendatory ordinance intended to change a chapter of the Revised Code relating to water, and it has been held that when an act has been repealed by an amendment, it may be the subject of subsequent amendment, which will be enforced as valid if the legislature has control over the subject matter, if its purpose is plain, and if the statute is such that it may stand as an independent enactment. (Am. and Eng. Ency. of Law, 2 Ed., Vol. 26, p. 705, Note 2).

Section 2434 of the Revised Code of 1905 as enacted by Section 1 of the ordinance of June 25, 1906, might, I think, stand as an independent enactment and by Section 3 of the ordinance of June 25, 1906, it is provided that that ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

I think, then, that despite the decidedly confused state of this legislation and the doubt as to the law, it may be said that the City Council intended to restore to the Revised Code of 1905 a section to be known as Section 2434, and that it intended that that section should contain the language found under those figures in Section 1 of the ordinance of June 25, 1906.

I have pursued this tedious course which I have taken in outlining the difficulties in this case so that you might see for yourself the difficulty of reaching a conclusion from the steps by which it is reached. It would seem advisable that the matter should be cleared up by some further legislation which would remove all conflict and chance of confusion.

Very truly yours,

MACLAY HOYNE,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That so much and such parts of the ordinance passed June 25, 1906, as amends Section 2434 of the Municipal Code of 1905, also so much and such parts of the ordinance passed July 5, 1905, as repeals said Section 2434, also said Section 2434 of said Municipal Code, be and the same hereby are repealed; and the following, to be known as Section 2434, shall stand and be in lieu thereof:

"SECTION 2434. Certain Premises Required to Be Under Meter.) All manufactories and other establishments, including breweries, bookbinderies, bottling establishments, brick yards, chemical laboratories, and all buildings or premises where water meters are found to be in use, cigar manufactories, cooperage, condensing water for steam engines, confectioneries, distilleries, dye and scouring houses, fish packing, gang saws in stone yards, hat factories, hydraulic elevators, hydraulic motors for elevators, livery stables, malt houses, natatoriums, photograph galleries, printing offices, packing houses, public laundries, public hospitals and other public institutions and buildings, railroad engine and round houses, railroad passenger and freight depots, rectifying establishments, rendering plants, swimming tanks, silver plating establishments, slaughtering houses, sugar refineries, syrup factories, soap factories, soda and other prepared water factories, telegraph and telephone battery rooms, vinegar factories, wood washing, etc., obtaining water from the Chicago water works system shall have the water supply thereto controlled by water meters."

Ald. Bennett presented the following communications and order:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, December 10, 1906.

Hon. Frank I. Bennett, Chairman, Committee on Finance:

DEAR SIR—With reference to the attached letter and order which I shall be pleased if you will have introduced in the Council to-night, I beg to state that the actual conditions of the formation of the rock was not finally determined until last Friday. I made a personal investigation of the conditions yesterday morning, and as the contractor is at about the elevation as originally planned and would get to the new elevation in the course of two or three days, if so authorized, I take it that it would be advisable that the matter be settled at once so that there will be no interruption in the work pending any decision that would have to be made pending the action of the Finance Committee next Friday.

Yours truly,

J. H. SPENGLER,
Assistant City Engineer.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
CHICAGO, December 10, 1906.

Hon. Frank I. Bennett, Chairman, Committee on Finance:

DEAR SIR—Several months ago, by authority of the Council, plans were made for the construction of a water pipe tunnel through the rock on Ashland avenue passing under the West Fork of the South Branch of the Illinois and Michigan Canal and Canal Feeders, such tunnel being about 1,600 feet in length. The plans provided that in the south shaft (known as No. 2) the inside bottom of the tunnel should be at an elevation of —60.64 below Chicago datum, and at the north shaft (known as No. 1) —55.54 below Chicago datum.

The specifications provided that this depth of the tunnel could be modified so that the tunnel could be put at a lower elevation, not exceeding five feet, than that called for on the plans and as above noted. The shafts are now in rock sufficiently deep to show that the character of the rock for a number of feet is of such a nature, being very much broken up and interspersed with clay and sand seams, that it is considered advisable, from an engineering and constructional point of view so as to get a satisfactory tunnel, that the shafts be lowered so that the bottom of the tunnel at No. 2 or south shaft be established at —71 Chicago datum, and at No. 1 or north shaft be —76.

This constitutes about twenty feet of additional shaft beyond that called for in the specifications and plans, and as it is additional work, and, furthermore, as the contractor will consent to deepen these shafts to the points as above indicated, at the same price as now obtains in his contract per lineal foot, I see no objection to making these changes in depths, and respectfully ask that you introduce the attached order in the Council at to-night's meeting.

Yours truly,

J. H. SPENGLER,
Assistant City Engineer.

Approved:

W. A. SHAW,
Engineer in Charge.

Approved:

JOHN ERICSON,
City Engineer.

Approved:

WM. L. O'CONNELL,
Commissioner of Public Works.
By J. C. WERDELL,
Deputy Commissioner.

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works is hereby authorized and directed to enter into an agreement with the firm of John J. O'Heron & Co., the same having a contract for the construction of a water pipe tunnel on Ashland avenue near 31st street, so that the bottom of the tunnel at Shaft No. 1 will be lowered from —55 to —76, and the bottom of the tunnel at Shaft No. 2 from —60.5 to —71, Chicago datum, with the understanding that the prices now in force under the contract will remain the same for this additional depth of shafts and tunnel, and that the contractor will not claim any extras on account of such change in depth of the shafts and tunnel.

Ald. Bennett moved to pass the order.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Bennett presented the following order, which was, on motion, duly passed:

Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue a permit to the Illinois Humane Society to erect a drinking fountain for people, teams, etc., in front of the Hyde Park Police Station, situated on Lake avenue north of Fifty-third street.

Ald. Bennett moved that the claim of the American Printing Ink Company, placed on file February 26, 1906, and the claim of Mary Duerr, placed on file November 26, 1906, be taken from file and re-referred to the Committee on Finance.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Bennett presented the claims of Chas. H. Spoor, Agnes Maloney and Fred Burgess, which were

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Board of Local Improvements submitted a recommendation, estimate and ordinance for six-inch drains in 69th street, between Indiana avenue and Calumet avenue.

By unanimous consent, on motion of Ald. Bennett, the estimate was approved and the ordinance was passed by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Kenna, Coughlin, Harding, Dixon, Foreman, Pringle, Richert, Martin, McCormick, Young, McCoid, Bennett, Snow, Moynihan, Derpa, Harris, Fick, Scully, Hurt, Cullerton, Hoffman, Zimmer, Riley, Considine, Harkin, Maypole, Smith, Schermann, Sitts, Dever, Powers, Bowler, Stewart, Finn, Reese, Foell, Sullivan, Dougherty, Werno, Jacobs, Hahne, Krumholz, Dunn, Williston, Lipps, Reinberg, Siewert, Blase, Larson, Herlihy, Wendling, Golombiewski, Burns, Bradley, O'Connell, Roberts, Fisher, Hunt, Bihl, Kohout, Nolan, Race—63.

WHEREAS, ALSO, The City of Chicago is now the owner of a strip of land commonly known as the Gage farm which said strip of land is not now being used to any great advantage, but would be a fit and proper place to build a school or home for boys under the modern theories where boys under the age of sixteen or seventeen years now at the John Worthy School, or hereafter to be sent there could be sent to or kept and enjoy the benefits of the same kind of education, training and culture as do the boys of the St. Charles Home and the Boys' Home at Glenwood and where the boys of different ages could be segregated and properly looked after so that the young and weak boys will not suffer at the hands of the bigger boys as they do now in the John Worthy School, and boys suffering from contagious or infections diseases might be segregated from the healthy ones, all of which redound to the benefit of the boys and the people of the City of Chicago; therefore be it

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Your Honorable Body, at the instance of Alderman Race, passed an order at its last regular meeting under the terms of which the elevated railway companies of this city are directed to leave open the front and rear gates of all trains passing around the loop. Since the passage of this order I have received written remonstrances and protests from said companies in which they declare that the enforcement of this order will be dangerous to life and limb. Their communications and protests are hereto attached.

I would respectfully suggest that your Honorable Body take up the consideration of these protests and take such action as in the wisdom of your Honorable Body may seem just and proper.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

December 15, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed at the last regular meeting of your Honorable Body and published on page 2322 of the current printed Council Proceedings, directing the Chief of the Fire Department to flood the old ball park, corner of Harrison and Throop streets, so that the same can be used for public skating, for the reason that it does not clearly appear that this park will not be used for somebody's private profit. I would, therefore, recommend that the vote by which said order was passed be reconsidered and the accompanying substitute passed without the usual reference to a committee.

Respectfully submitted,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

E. Wells to erect lamp posts on 47th street, between Forestville avenue and St. Lawrence avenue, for the reason that in my judgment privileges of this nature ought not be given except by ordinance requiring the beneficiary to protect the city against any claim of damage, and also requiring him to pay compensation for the privileges enjoyed. I, therefore, recommend that the vote by which the order was passed be reconsidered and that the order be referred to the proper committee for further consideration.

"1970. To Stop at Bridges, Grade Crossings, etc.) Every conductor, gripman, motorman, or other person having charge of any street car in operation upon any street railroad in this city, shall, when such car is approaching a grade crossing of any steam railroad, or when approaching a swing, draw or bascule bridge in use as such, bring such street car to a full stop at a point one hundred feet from such crossing or bridge, and shall then cause such street car to approach such crossing or bridge at a rate of speed not exceeding two miles per hour. Provided, however, that if at any such point one hundred feet from such crossing or bridge the tracks of any such street railroad are laid at an incline which departs more than five per cent from the horizontal plane, the point at which such full stop shall be made shall be at the point, more than one hundred feet from such crossing or bridge, where such incline begins. Every such person having charge of any such street car shall also, when approaching any cross street occupied by street railway tracks which intersect with those on which such street car is being operated, bring such car to a full stop before arriving at and within ten feet of the nearest intersection line of such cross street."

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and due publication.

The following is the ordinance as passed:

WHEREAS, On February 18, 1895, the City Council of the City of Chicago passed an ordinance granting to the Ogden Street Railway Company the right and privilege to lay down, construct, maintain and operate for a period of twenty years from the date of the passage thereof, a single or double track street railway on certain streets therein named, including South 40th avenue, otherwise known as Crawford avenue, from the north line of West Madison street to the center line of West 31st street, which said right and privilege will expire on February 18, 1915; and

WHEREAS, Said company has constructed a single track in said South 40th avenue, from West Madison street, to West Taylor street and a double track from West Taylor street to Ogden avenue and a double track from West 26th street to West 31st street; and

WHEREAS, The time limit in said ordinance fixed for the construction of said railway has expired and no further work can be done under said ordinance by reason of the expiration of the time limit therein contained; and

WHEREAS, By reason of the incomplete condition of the street car tracks in said South 40th avenue, the street car service in said street is inadequate and there is not sufficient accommodation for that portion of the population of the city residing contiguous to said street; and

WHEREAS, Such accommodation will be greatly increased if a complete double track shall be constructed and operated in said South 40th avenue between West Madison street and West 31st street, with proper connections with all intersecting lines; and

WHEREAS, Said Ogden Street Railway Company has assigned to the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company all its rights under said ordinance of February 18, 1895; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That, subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations hereinafter expressed, permission and authority are hereby given and granted to the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, its successors and assigns, to lay down, construct, maintain and operate an additional street railway track in South 40th avenue, from the north line of West Madison street to the center line of West Taylor street, and parallel to the single track now in said South 40th avenue between said points, and to move the present single track in said South 40th avenue between said points, so that the said tracks shall occupy the center sixteen feet of said South 40th avenue between the points aforesaid; to lay down, construct, maintain and operate a double track street railway in said South 40th avenue, between the center line of Ogden avenue and the center line of West 26th street, such tracks to be connected with the tracks already laid in said South 40th avenue and extending from the north into Ogden avenue and from the south into said West 26th street; to connect said line, when completed, in said South 40th avenue, by proper curves, with the intersecting lines located in West 12th street, Ogden avenue and West 26th street; and to erect all poles and string all wires necessary to operate the said street railway tracks, when completed, by electricity applied by means of the overhead contact trolley system.

SECTION 2. In the construction of the street railway tracks hereby authorized, the rails to be laid shall consist of modern, grooved, steel rails, of the weight and pattern provided for by the Revised Municipal Code of 1905 of the City of Chicago and the amendments thereto, which shall be supported upon and carried in a concrete road-bed of sufficient strength to sustain the surface load. The rails shall be properly welded or bonded, so that the conductivity of the joints shall be equal to the conductivity of the rail. All overhead construction shall be of the most modern type. The overhead contact trolley wires, together with the feeder wires, shall be suspended from poles set in concrete within the curb lines, so as to obstruct the public use of the streets and sidewalks as little as possible. Said poles shall be of iron or steel, ornamental in design and kept well painted.

Said electric trolley wires shall be suspended not less than eighteen and one-half (18½) feet above the rails, and the said poles and supports shall be placed at an average of one hundred and fifteen (115) feet apart, except that at the intersection of streets, avenues or alleys, or the crossings of railroad tracks, when said distance would place the said poles or supports on intersecting streets, avenues or alleys or railroad rights-of-way, said poles shall be placed at some convenient distance from such crossings, less than one hundred and fifteen (115) feet apart.

All trolley wires shall be of hard-drawn copper, phosphor bronze, silicon bronze or some other material of strength equal to hard-drawn copper. There shall be at least two insulations between all trolley wires and each supporting pole.

All materials used in said electric overhead construction shall be of the most modern type, and capable of sustaining all weights and strains that may come upon it; including those due to wind, sleet and ordinary accidents.

All wires and conductors for the transmission of electricity in and along any of said railways shall be installed in a substantial and workmanlike manner, so as to interfere as little as possible with the public use of said streets, alleys or sidewalks, and all electric work of every kind and character shall comply strictly with the ordinances of the City of Chicago now or hereafter in force, applicable thereto.

All electrical work shall be installed, operated and maintained under the supervision and subject to the approval of the City Electrician of said city.

All work of construction and repair of every kind and character, other than electric work, authorized by this ordinance shall be done and maintained under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of said city.

Both the character and design of the trolley poles hereby authorized to be erected shall be subject to the approval of the Mayor of the said City of Chicago. They shall have, at or near the top of the pole, an arm or bracket of suitable design for carrying electric street lights, and the City of Chicago shall at all times during the maintenance of said poles have the right, without charge to it, to equip the same with its electric wires and lamps for street lighting, said equipment to be at the expense of said city and under the supervision of the City Electrician, and to be done and maintained at all times in such a manner as not to interfere with the use of said poles for the operation of said railways, in consideration whereof the City of Chicago shall indemnify and save harmless the said company from all damages, judgments and costs which the said company may suffer by the said use of said poles by the said city.

Section 3. It is hereby made an express provision of this ordinance that the grantee herein, its successors and assigns, shall pave the center sixteen (16) feet in width, in said 40th avenue, from West Madison street to West 31st street (being the sixteen (16) feet to be occupied by the tracks of the said grantee) with granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification and free from an excess of mica or feldspar. Such blocks shall measure from three and one-half (3½) to five and one-half (5½) inches in width, and from seven (7) to eleven (11) inches in length (except that shorter stones may be used to break joints) and not less than five (5) inches in depth. They shall be dressed so as to have substantially plane surfaces, so that when in place the points at the ends and sides shall average one quarter (¼) inch in width. Soft or weather-worn stones, obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic shall not be used. They shall be laid in such manner as may be prescribed by the said Commissioner of Public Works, and the said pavement shall be kept in good order and condition, clean and free from snow and ice, and shall be sprinkled during the period from May 1st to September 30th of each year, so as to be free from dust; all at the expense of the said grantee herein, or its successors and assigns.

SECTION 4. The consent, permission and authority granted by this ordinance are so granted upon the express condition that the said Company shall, within fifteen days after the acceptance of this ordinance, weather permitting, lay down and operate a temporary single track in said South 40th avenue, from the north line of West Madison street to the center line of West Taylor street, on the West side of South 40th avenue and parallel to the single track now in said South 40th avenue, between said points, and equip and operate the same sufficiently to accommodate the traffic on said street between said points, from the acceptance of this ordinance to the 1st day of August, A. D. 1907, said temporary tracks and equipment to be of such character and in such location as may be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works and the City Electrician of said city; and upon the further condition that the said company shall, on or before the 1st day of August, A. D. 1907, remove said temporary tracks and construct, equip and operate the tracks authorized and described in the preceding sections of this ordinance, and under the several provisons and requirements thereof. In the event of any failure to comply with the provisions of this section, all of the rights, privileges and authority granted by this ordinance to the said company shall be forfeited and shall wholly cease and determine.

SECTION 5. The permission and authority hereby granted shall wholly cease and determine on the 18th day of February, A. D. 1915, and thereupon all and every or any right whatever of the said Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, or its successors, lessees or assigns, or any or either of them, to construct, maintain or operate any of the said street railway tracks authorized by this ordinance shall wholly cease and determine. Provided, however, that in the event that the City of Chicago, or any person, persons or corporation authorized thereto by the City of Chicago shall (either before or after the said 18th day of February, 1915) seek to acquire by purchase or condemnation the street railway tracks and appurtenances of the said company authorized to be constructed, maintained and operated in the said streets in said city by this ordinance, the value of the said street railway tracks and appurtenances shall be fixed and determined for the purpose of such purchase without including in such value any sum or allowance as the value of the earning power of such property or the then unexpired portion of the franchise or right to occupy the said streets granted by this ordinance. But such valuation for the purpose of any such purchase shall be fixed wholly upon the then cost to reproduce the physical property then constituting the said street railway tracks and appurtenances less the then existing depreciation of the said physical property.

SECTION 6. This ordinance shall take effect from and after the filing with the City Clerk of said city of a written acceptance hereof, duly executed by the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company (said last named company being in possession of and now operating said lines) and by the receivers of the said Chicago Union Traction Company, provided that if the said acceptance is not filed within ten (10) days from the passage hereof, then all rights and privileges hereby granted shall be wholly null and void and of no effect.

Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for such offense; if any person, having been once convicted of violating any provision of this ordinance, shall again be convicted of violating any provision thereof, and if such person has a license, the Mayor may in his discretion revoke his license, and no license shall thereafter be issued to such person until the expiration of two years from and after the date of the judgment of such second conviction.

Ald. Snow moved to defer consideration on the ordinance and amendment, and that the amendment and the opinion of the Assistant Corporation Counsel accompanying the report be published.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the opinion:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,

Hon. Winfield P. Dunn, Chairman, Committee on License.

DEAR SIR—In your communication of the 12th inst. you requested an opinion of the Corporation Counsel as to the legality of an ordinance licensing hotels. In your letter you say, "If there is a reasonable chance for the ordinance being upheld, if tested in court, we want to pass it."

Section 1 of the proposed ordinance which you enclose defines a hotel, for the purpose of the ordinance, as "any inn," etc., or a "place which provides lodging for hire, either with or without board, for the transient accommodation of the public."

Section 2 requires that a license be obtained to conduct a hotel.

Section 3 provides that licenses for the keeping of a hotel shall be granted by the Mayor and specifies the prerequisites for obtaining a license.

Section 4 points out how and for what periods hotel licenses shall be issued and fixes the amount of the license fee at $15.00.

Section 5 requires that all hotels licensed under the ordinance shall keep a register, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Mayor or members of the Police Department. This section is very similar to Section 17 of an Act entitled: "An Act to amend an Act entitled, 'An Act to create and establish a Board of Health in the State of Illinois,' approved May 28, 1877, in force July 1, 1877, by adding thereto four new sections to be numbered fifteen (15), sixteen (16), seventeen (17), and eighteen (18)," approved and in force April 21, 1899. (Hurd's Revised Statutes, 1905, page 1882, chap. 126a).

Before discussing the remaining sections of the ordinance, the power of the city to adopt an ordinance licensing hotels may be properly discussed. Section one of Article V. of the Cities and Villages Act gives to the City Council, among others powers, the following:

"Fourth—To fix the amount, terms and manner of issuing and revoking licenses . . . .

Forty-first—To license, tax, regulate, suppress and prohibit hawkers . . . keepers of ordinaries . . . and to revoke such licenses at pleasure . . .

Forty-fifth—To suppress bawdy and disorderly houses, houses of ill-fame or assignation, within the limits of the city and within three miles of the outer boundaries of the city. . . .

Sixty-sixth—To regulate the police of the city or village and pass and enforce all necessary police ordinances . . . .

Ninety-sixth—To pass all ordinances, rules and make all regulations proper or necessary to carry into effect the powers granted to cities and villages, with such fines or penalties as the City Council or board of trustees shall deem proper. . . ."

I find no other powers granted the City Council which may be said to even remotely bear upon the question of the right of the city to adopt the proposed ordinance. There is then no express power granted to the City of Chicago by the General Assembly to regulate or license hotels, inns, lodging houses, boarding houses or places of a like character. Few cases can be found defining the meaning of the word "ordinary" or "keepers of ordinaries." Apparently an ordinary means an eating house or dining room where meals are served at settled prices to all. I do not believe the word referred to can be said to include lodging houses or hotels generally. There is probably no doubt that the State itself could adopt legislation of the kind suggested by your committee. Our Supreme Court has said that where the public welfare demands legislation prescribing regulations and restrictions to prevent evils which have become manifest in the carrying on of a private business, such legislation may require the procuring of a license to carry on such business, the payment of a license fee and the execution of a bond as a prerequisite to the issuance of a license.

Price vs. People, 193 Ill. 114; Gundling vs. City of Chicago, 176 Ill. 340.

It is a matter of grave doubt whether a municipality possesses equally broad powers in such cases.

Having pointed out then that in my opinion the right of the city to pass this ordinance is doubtful, I desire to say that it is my conclusion that there is a very fair chance, despite this doubt, that the courts will uphold the proposed ordinance. I will indicate as briefly as possible the reasons for this conclusion. I think the courts can and would take judicial notice of the fact, and therefore it may be conceded, that abuses have arisen and will arise in the carrying on of the hotel business and that most or many disorderly houses or houses of assignation conduct their operations under the guise of hotels, lodging houses or boarding houses. This being so, the city may under such general police powers as it possesses, and particularly under the powers above specified, license (as a means of regulation) all hotels and like places as an incidental means of suppressing assignation houses and disorderly houses, especially in view of the power granted to the city to suppress "disorderly houses, houses of ill-fame or assignation, within the limits of the city," etc. Concluding then as I have said that there is a very fair chance to sustain an ordinance licensing and regulating hotels, for the reasons stated, it becomes necessary to examine the remaining sections of the proposed ordinance and see whether they are calculated to suppress the evils before referred to and whether these provisions are reasonable.

Section 6 prohibits the sale or disposal of intoxicating liquors in hotels except in accordance with the provisions of a Dram Shop license. This is no doubt a valid and necessary provision.

Section 7 forbids any person keeping a hotel to permit the same to become the resort of disreputable persons or to knowingly permit it to be used or occupied by persons for immoral purposes. This section I believe is valid, tends to accomplish the result aimed at by the framers of the ordinance and places no undue hardship upon hotel keepers.

Section 8 provides for a fine for the violation of any of the provisions of the ordinance and for the revocation of the hotel license upon the conviction of a second violation, if the Mayor sees fit. There is also a prohibition in this section against the issuance of a new license after such revocation until the expiration of two years after the date of the second conviction. The power of the City Council to pass the rest of the ordinance being assumed, this section is also valid.

Section 9 is apparently designed to provide that the ordinance shall not be construed so as to include boarding houses or similar places, where board and lodging are furnished for a week or for a longer period. The section it seems to me is ambiguous and the last word in the second line, "alone," should be stricken out. Inasmuch as the ordinance is penal it will be strictly construed, and I am uncertain from a reading of it, with this rule of construction in mind whether the courts would hold that the ordinance did not apply to any boarding house or not. Did not your committee intend the section to read somewhat as follows?

> This ordinance shall not be so construed as to include any boarding house, or any other place where board and lodging are furnished exclusively by the week or for a longer period.

I have made no attempt to redraw Section 6 of the ordinance, as if your committee shares my views on that section, it will probably have some suggestions to make.

I return herewith the draft of the ordinance submitted.

Very truly yours,

MACLAY HOYNE,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

AN ORDINANCE

Granting to the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, the right to construct, maintain and operate a railway passenger station between West Lake, Canal, West Madison and Clinton Streets and the right also to construct, maintain and operate certain new elevated tracks in the ordinance described.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. Paragraph 1. Permission and authority are hereby granted to the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate a railway passenger station located as may be found by said Railway Company, or its successors or assigns, proper and convenient within the boundaries of West Lake street, Canal street, West Madison street and Clinton street; including all tracks, buildings and structures of every kind essential or convenient ient for such station as herein authorized and provided. Said tracks, buildings and other structures shall be constructed and maintained in accordance with such particular requirements as are hereinafter set forth.

Paragraph 2. Permission and authority are hereby granted also to said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate adjoining railway tracks, not more than four in number, upon the following lines or routes:—Said tracks shall start from a point in the existing right of way of the said company between North May street and Elston avenue, or from a starting point farther northerly in said existing right of way, from which such tracks may be constructed at a suitable grade upon the existing subway bridges of said company without reduction, either in height or width, of the clear passageway now afforded in the streets so bridged. In case such tracks are started northerly of a point about 30 feet west of the west line of North May street, their alignment to that point shall lie within the existing right of way of said company. From said point about 30 feet west of the west line of North May street the alignment of the western-most of said tracks shall be as follows:—Southeasterly in a straight line for a distance of about 500 feet to a point near the west line of North Carpenter street near its intersection with Cornell street; thence southeasterly by a curve to the right for a distance of about 865 feet to a point about 120 feet west of the west line of Lessing street; thence southeasterly in a straight line for a distance of about 2,640 feet to a point about on the south line of Grand avenue and about 80 feet east of the east line of North Union street; thence southeasterly by a curved line to the left for a distance of about 600 feet to a point in Austin avenue about midway between North Des Plaines street and North Jefferson street; thence southeasterly in a straight line for a distance of about 250 feet to a point near the east line of North Jefferson street; thence southeasterly by a curve to the right for a distance of about 970 feet to a point in or near the south line of Carroll avenue, between North Clinton and Canal streets. The alignment of the other three tracks authorized in this paragraph shall be substantially parallel to that of the westernmost track, just described; except that the easternmost of such other three tracks, when constructed, shall terminate at a point north of West Kinzie street, and may there be connected, if it is so desired, with any of the other tracks authorized in this paragraph.

Paragraph 3. Permission and authority are hereby granted also to said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate adjoining railway tracks, not more than four in number, upon the following lines or routes:—Said tracks shall start from a point in the existing right of way of said company between North Ada street and North Ashland avenue, or from a point in the existing right of way of said company westerly of North Ashland avenue, from which such tracks may be constructed at a suitable grade upon the existing subway bridges of said company without reduction, either in height or width, of the clear passageway now afforded in the streets so bridged. In case such tracks are started westerly of a point about 800 feet east of the east line of North Ashland avenue, their alignment to that point shall lie within the existing right of way of said company. From said point about 800 feet east of the east line of North Ashland avenue the alignment of the northernmost of said tracks shall be as follows:—Northeasterly by a curved line to the left for a distance of about 700 feet to a point about 75 feet north of the north line of Kinzie street about midway between North Ada street and Noble street; thence northeasterly in a straight line for a distance of about 290 feet to a point about 56 feet east of the east line of North Ada street and about 175 feet north of Kinzie street; thence easterly by a curved line to the right for a distance of about 700 feet to a point about 165 feet west of the west line of North Center avenue, near and south of the south line of Austin avenue; thence easterly in a straight line substantially parallel with the south line of Austin avenue for a distance of about 3,908 feet to a point about 135 feet east of the east line of North Des Plaines street; thence southeasterly by a convenient curve to the right for a distance of about 260 feet to near the east line of North Jefferson street; thence on a line substantially parallel with the alignment of the westernmost of the tracks described in the last preceding paragraph for a distance of about 965 feet to a point in or near the south line of Carroll avenue, between North Clinton and Canal streets. The alignment of the other three tracks authorized in this paragraph shall be substantially parallel to that of the northernmost track, just described; except that the southernmost of such other three tracks, when constructed, shall terminate at a point short of the last crossing of West Kinzie street by the other tracks, and may there be connected, if it is so desired, with any of the other tracks authorized in this paragraph.

Paragraph 4. Permission and authority are hereby granted also to the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, to extend the six tracks described in Paragraphs 2 and 3, which run to Carroll avenue, from their above indicated termination to and into said railway passenger station, above authorized, and to construct, maintain and operate also other railway tracks leading into said passenger station on suitable and convenient lines from points of connection with said first mentioned tracks south of Carroll avenue, and to construct, maintain and operate also convenient connecting or cross-over tracks between the tracks south of Carroll avenue which are authorized in this paragraph; except that the number of tracks other than the suitable and intermediate cross-over or connecting tracks shall not exceed six over Fulton street and Milwaukee avenue, or ten over West Lake street, or eighteen over West Randolph street or West Washington street.

Paragraph 5. The grades of the tracks authorized in Paragraph 2 shall be substantially as follows:—Beginning on the existing elevated roadbed of said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, the tracks shall ascend from their starting point by convenient and practical grade to the west line of Lessing street, where an elevation of not less than 34 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence the grade shall be approximately level for a distance of about 196 feet to about the south line of West Chicago avenue; thence there shall be a descending grade of about one-tenth of one per cent for a distance of about 1,125 feet, to an elevation of not less than 33 feet above city datum; thence the grade shall be about level for a distance of about 79 feet; thence there shall be an ascending grade of about eight one-hundredths of one per cent for a distance of about 1,655 feet to about the north line of Austin avenue, where the elevation of said tracks shall be not less than 34 feet above city datum; thence the grade shall be level for a distance of about 315 feet to about the east line of North Jefferson street; thence there shall be a descending grade of about eleven one-hundredths of one per cent for a distance of about 970 feet to a point in or near the south line of Carroll avenue, where there shall be an elevation of not less than 33 feet above city datum. The grade of the fourth, or easternmost, track authorized in Paragraph 2 and required not to extend beyond West Kinzie street may be modified so far as may be necessary to effect a connection of said track with its adjoining tracks.

Paragraph 6. The grade of the tracks authorized in Paragraph 3 shall be substantially as follows:—Beginning on the existing elevated roadbed of the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, the tracks shall be constructed on a convenient and practical grade to about the east line of Noble street, where an elevation of not less than 31 feet above city datum shall be attained; thence the grade shall be approximately level for a distance of about 1,570 feet; thence there shall be an ascending grade of about four-tenths of one per cent for a distance of about 1,440 feet to about the west line of North Sangamon street, where the elevation shall be not less than 37 feet above city datum; thence the grade shall be approximately level for a distance of about 1,603 feet to a point about 33 feet east of the east line of Milwaukee avenue, where the elevation shall be not less than 37 feet above city datum; thence there shall be a descending grade at the rate of about forty-one one-hundredths of one per cent for a distance of about 705 feet to the east line of North Jefferson street, where the elevation shall be not less than 34 feet above city datum; thence the grade of said tracks shall be substantially the same to about the south line of Carroll avenue, as prescribed in the last paragraph for the adjacent tracks. The grade of the fourth, or southernmost, track authorized in Paragraph 3 and required not to extend beyond West Kinzie street may be modified so far as may be necessary to effect a connection of said track with its adjoining tracks.

Paragraph 7. The grade of the tracks authorized in Paragraph 4 shall be substantially as follows: Beginning at about the south line of Carroll avenue at an elevation of not less than 33 feet above city datum, thence there shall be a descending grade of about 11-100 of 1 per cent for a distance of about 147 feet, where the elevation shall be not less than 33 feet above city datum; thence there shall be a descending grade of about 5-10 of 1 per cent for a distance of about 623 feet to about the north line of West Lake street, where the elevation shall be not less than 29 feet above city datum; thence the grade shall be approximately level for a distance of about 80 feet to about the south line of West Lake street; thence there shall be an ascending grade of about 93-100 of 1 per cent for a distance of about 378 feet to about the north line of West Randolph street, where the elevation shall be not less than 33 feet above city datum; thence there shall be an ascending grade of about 13-100 of 1 per cent for a distance of about 463 feet to about the north line of West Washington street, where the elevation shall be not less than 34 feet above city datum; thence the grade shall be level for a distance of about 474 feet to or near the north line of West Madison street.

Paragraph 8. All elevations of railroad tracks required in this ordinance shall refer to the top of the rail.

Section 2. (1) That all alleys in Blocks twenty-eight (28), forty-five (45) and fifty (50) in the Original Town of Chicago, or in any subdivisions of said blocks or any parts thereof, or in any portion of plats covering parts of said blocks, and all alleys in that portion of Block twenty-three (23) in Original Town of Chicago which lies south of Milwaukee avenue, or in any subdivision of that portion of said block, or in any parts thereof, or in any portions of plats covering the said portion of said Block twenty-three (23), as shown on the blue print attached hereto, which for greater certainty is made a part of this ordinance, be and the same are hereby vacated, inasmuch as said alleys are no longer required for public purposes and the public interest will be subserved by their vacation.

(2) Any water mains, conduits, sewers or other structures now located in said vacated alleys shall be removed from their present location and re-located by the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company at its own expense in position suitable therefor and approved by the Commissioner of Public Works in the streets adjoining the blocks containing such vacated alleys.

(3) The vacation herein provided for is made upon the express condition that within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance the said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, who may derive pecuniary benefit from the above vacation, shall pay to the City Collector of the City of Chicago the sum of one hundred fifty-seven thousand two hundred seventy-two and 40-100 dollars ($157,272.40), and further that the said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company shall also within thirty (30) days after the passage of this ordinance file for record in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Cook County, Illinois, a plat showing said vacation. In case said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors or assigns, shall fail to construct the new depot as is required by this ordinance, and the City of Chicago in that event shall re-establish any or all of the alleys hereby vacated, then said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors or assigns shall pay to the City of Chicago for the benefit of the owners of property who may be put to any expense, by special assessment, for the re-establishment of such alley or alleys the full amount of such expense; and said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company shall file with the City Clerk, within sixty (60) days after the passage of this ordinance, a proper agreement on its part to secure such payment.

SECTION 3. Not only the tracks hereinbefore authorized and permitted, but the station building, train shed, and other suitable station structures of said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors or assigns, may be constructed, maintained and operated over bridges or subways hereinafter provided for and required in West Washington street and West Randolph street, for the full length of said streets between Canal street and Clinton street. The width of West Washington street, between Canal street and Clinton street, shall be increased by the addition of a strip twenty feet wide on each side of the street as heretofore established, and all necessary condemnation and other proceedings in the name or on the part of the City of Chicago to the end of so widening West Washington street are hereby authorized and directed. The sidewalks and roadway in West Washington street, as widened by this ordinance, between Canal street and Clinton street, shall be conveniently re-arranged under the supervision of the Commissioner of Public Works. All the expense of widening West Washington street, as by this ordinance required, including all sums paid by the city in acquisition of the property requisite therefor and all sums expended in re-arranging, sidewalking, curbing, paving and otherwise improving the street between Canal and Clinton streets shall be borne by the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, and paid by them to the city. In case, however, the authority to widen West Washington street, as herein provided, be found to be vested in the Board of West Chicago Park Commissioners, all the provisions of this ordinance, except those concerning the widening of West Washington street, shall remain in full force and effect and have the same validity as if this second paragraph of Section 3 were not in the ordinance, in case said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors or assigns, comply with whatever requirements said Board of West Chicago Park Commissioners may make within six (6) months from the passage and approval of this ordinance in reference to widening West Washington street. The said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company shal light and pave all subways provided for by this ordinance, and shall clean and pave those portions of Washington, Lake and Randolph streets covered by its depot building.

SECTION 4. The elevated tracks permitted by this ordinance may be constructed, except in the streets and alleys where by the other provisions of this ordinance they are required to be upon specifically described structures, either upon suitable metal viaducts, masonry structures or embankments, as may be found desirable in different places. Where an embankment is used, it may be composed of earth, sand, gravel, cinders, slag, broken stone, or other suitable material, whether obtained in the course of excavation of subways or from foundation pits and trenches along the line of work or otherwise. The side slopes and lateral dimensions of such embankment shall be fixed by the natural angle of repose of the materials of which it is constructed; but the embankment may be retained, where that is desired, on any side by a wall of stone, concrete or brick masonry; provided that whenever any such retaining walls are of insufficient height properly to protect the right of way and to prevent trespassing thereon, then such retaining walls shall be surmounted with a suitable fence or railing, and whenever retaining walls are not used the right of way shall be fenced in or otherwise properly enclosed, in compliance with the present ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to fencing of railroad tracks.

Wherever a retaining wall or masonry construction is used for supporting an embankment or track, its footings or foundation courses may be constructed not more than four feet within the limits, and under the surface, of any street or alley adjoining the right of way.

SECTION 5. The elevated tracks and station structures permitted by this ordinance shall be carried across all intersecting streets, avenues and alleys, which by the terms of this ordinance are required to be bridged or provided with subways, on suitable bridges of one, two, three or four spans, whose superstructures shall consist of iron or steel girders, with iron or steel main floor or ordinary track stringers; but should the latter method be adopted some suitable device shall be provided to prevent storm water, dirt, oil and other substances from dropping from such elevated structures upon the street or alley underneath. The said bridges shall be supported upon abutments of concrete, stone or brick masonry or on rows of iron or steel columns, braced together laterally and erected on and anchored to masonry foundations, constructed within the limits of the railroad's right of way and in the center and curb lines of the intersecting avenues and streets, as provided in the Schedule of Bridges and Subways, herein contained; provided that the footings and foundation courses of such abutments or of the masonry foundations for columns at the sides of streets or alleys may be constructed not more than six (6) feet within the limits, and under the surface, of the adjoining street or alley; and provided, farther, that, in order not to interfere with the existing tunnel approach in West Washington street, the bridge over that street may have five spans and may be supported by rows of columns placed immediately inside the curb lines of the street and also along the side lines of the tunnel approach; and provided, farther, that, if it shall be found necessary anywhere to construct retaining or side walls in connection with any street or alley approaches to bridges or subways, then such walls may be constructed within the limits of the street, alley or way upon which such approach is situated, and the abutments or side walls of the bridge or subway itself, reached by such approach, may be correspondingly advanced into the street, so as to be in a continuous straight line with the approach wall; and in any such case the other details and dimensions of the bridge or subway in the Schedule of Bridges and Subways hereafter, may be changed as far as necessary to accord with the location of the retaining or side walls or abutments as aforesaid.

SECTION 6. Paragraph 1. Subways or bridges shall be constructed to carry the tracks authorized in Section 1, Paragraph 2, where said tracks cross North Carpenter street, Front street, North Sangamon street, Lessing street, West Chicago avenue, West Superior street, Pratt street, North Green street, Phillips street, West Erie street, North Halsted street, West Ohio street, North Union street, Grand avenue, North Des Plaines street, Austin avenue, North Jefferson street, West Kinzie street and Carroll avenue.

Paragraph 4. The several subways and bridges referred to in Paragraph 1 of this section shall be constructed as to their size and dimensions, locations and other details, in accordance with the following which are to be depressed in connection with the construction of subways or approaches to subways, as hereinbefore provided, are hereby changed so as to conform to the grades of such subways and their approaches as constructed hereunder.

SECTION 8. Wherever in the construction of subways and approaches, as hereinbefore required, two different grades will intersect, a vertical curve shall be made with an extent of not less than 10 feet on each side of said intersection of grades and with a middle ordinate equal to one-quarter of the difference between the elevations of the ends of such curve.

SECTION 9. All such excavations shall be made in streets and alleys as may be required for depression of such subways and their approaches, or for construction of footings and foundation courses of abutments or masonry supports for columns within the limits and under the surface of streets or alleys; but the streets, alleys and sidewalks so disturbed shall be restored to serviceable condition for the use of the public as soon as practicable.

SECTION 11. In those portions of any street whose grades are changed under this ordinance said Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company, its successors or assigns, shall lay a pavement, set curbs and construct sidewalks of suitable materials and in accordance with specifications to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago and to his satisfaction. Where portions of any street or alley are disturbed in the course of the work done under this ordinance, but their grade is not changed by this ordinance, they shall be restored by said Railway Company as nearly as may be to their original condition without expense to the City of Chicago.

Any street railway company occupying any portion of a street whose grade is changed, or in which posts or columns are to be constructed, under this ordinance, shall, when and as such grade is actually to be altered or such posts or columns are to be constructed, conform the grade of its track or tracks to the altered street grade and alter the alignment or spacing of its tracks as may be necessary to accommodate such columns or the work of putting in their foundations; and the changes so necessitated in the tracks of said street railway compay are hereby authorized. The grants made and the privileges conferred under this ordinance shall not be assignable to any corporation or persons organized for or conducting the business of a street railway company, nor shall anything in this ordinance operate as a grant or ex-

SECTION 13. All the work in this ordinance required or permitted to be done within the boundaries of any street, avenue or public alley shall be performed under the superintendence and subject to the inspection and approval of the Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Chicago. At least ten days before the commencement of any part of such work the plans and specifications therefor shall be submitted to said Commissioner for his examination, and, if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, such plans and specifications shall be approved by said Commissioner of Public Works, and after such approval all of the work outlined and included therein shall be done in conformity therewith.

The provisions of the ordinances of the City of Chicago relating to speed of railway trains, the number of cars to constitute a train, and the maintenance of gates, flagmen, watchmen, signals and signal towers, shall not apply to the elevated tracks constructed under this ordinance; provided that this ordinance is not to be construed as a waiver or surrender by the City of Chicago of any of its police powers or of the right at any time hereafter to pass necessary or reasonable police ordinances relating to the matters above enumerated. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, save employes of the company operating said railway tracks, or any of them, when in the discharge of their duties, to enter or be upon or to walk along or across any of said elevated tracks or bridges. Any person willfully trespassing upon such elevated roadway, and all others aiding, abetting or assisting therein, shall be liable to a fine of not less than five (5) dollars nor more than one hundred (100) dollars for each and every offense.

SECTION 16. Said Chicago & North-Western Railway shall give and grant suitable switch track connections from the southernmost of the tracks constructed under authority of Section 1, Paragraph 3, of this ordinance to manufacturing, industrial, or commercial establishments, located between that track and the now existing tracks of said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company along Kinzie street, and between the proposed new right of way and the present right of way of the said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, known as the Wisconsin Division. Said switch track connections shall be given as aforesaid only upon the passage of a proper ordinance therefor by the City Council, and upon such reasonable terms as the City Council may require.

SECTION 17. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be so construed as to prevent the location and construction of bridge or subway abutments at any distance back from the lot lines of the street, avenue or alley across which the bridge is built, so as to enable the construction, maintenance and use of station or other buildings entirely within the right of way or property of the railroad company.

SECTION 18. The grants made and privileges conferred under this ordinance may be revoked and forfeited by the City of Chicago unless the work of constructing said railway passenger station authorized in Section 1, Paragraph 1, and tracks of sufficient number and character to afford a serviceable connection with the existing tracks of said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company is begun within two years from the passage and approval of this ordinance, and unless said work is completed, so as to bring such passenger station into actual use in connection with the railway of said company, as early as January first, 1912, except that the time during which commencement or completion of said passenger station and necessary connecting tracks shall be prevented by strike, riot or legal proceedings, or by delayed elevation of the tracks of the elevated railway in Lake street to such height as may be required for construction of the railway tracks authorized by this ordinance, shall be added to the time hereby limited.

It is hereby made an express provision of this ordinance that if any public improvement is hereafter made, the cost of which is to be paid by special assessment or special taxation, the property heretofore or hereafter acquired by said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company for its right of way on the lines prescribed by this ordinance shall be subject to such special assessment or special taxation the same as if said property had not been acquired by said company.

SECTION 19. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.

In connection with the foregoing ordinance Ald. Sitts presented the following order, which was, on motion, duly passed:

Ordered, That the Mayor be and he is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a contract in behalf of the city with the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company for the construction of new viaducts over the tracks of that company at the approaches to the Grand avenue and Erie street and North Halsted street bridges.

The Clerk, on motion of Ald. Foell, presented the resolution for a new viaduct on Dearborn avenue to be constructed by the C. & N. W. Ry. Co., temporarily deferred, page 2372.

Ald. Foell moved to adopt the resolution.

The motion prevailed.

The following is the resolution as adopted:

WHEREAS, The Sanitary District of Chicago is now constructing a new bridge over the Chicago River at Dearborn avenue; and

WHEREAS, The dilapidated condition of the viaduct on said Dearborn avenue extending from the north end of said bridge over the tracks of the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, laid in North Water street, together with the dangerous condition resulting from the location of said tracks in said street, makes it both desirable and imperative that the present viaduct be replaced by a modern structure, in keeping with the character of said bridge being so constructed; and

WHEREAS, There is now pending before the Council an ordinance granting to said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, its successors and assigns, permission to construct, maintain and operate a railway passenger station between West Lake, Canal, West Madison and Clinton streets, and to construct, maintain and operate certain new elevated tracks within the city limits; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Council that, as part compensation for the rights and privileges to be granted in said ordinance, said company should reconstruct said viaduct; now, therefore,

Be it Resolved, by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

That the Mayor be, and he is hereby authorized to enter into and execute on behalf of the City of Chicago, a contract with said Chicago & North-Western Railway Company for the construction of a new viaduct on said Dearborn avenue over the tracks of said company on North Water street, extending from the north abutment of said bridge to Kinzie street; said viaduct to be constructed wholly at the expense of said company, according to plans and specifications to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works and to be completed at or before the time of the completion of said bridge.

Ald. Harris presented communications from the Bureau of Engineering and the Department of Track Elevation to the Committee on Streets and Alleys, West Division, concerning the ordinance just passed, and moved that they be published.

The motion prevailed.

The following are the communications:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
November 26, 1906.

Hon. T. M. Hunter, Chairman of Committee on Streets and Alleys, West, City of Chicago:

DEAR SIR—Pursuant to your request of November 22d that I report to the Committee on Streets and Alleys of the West Division and furnish a detailed statement concerning the grades and streets over which is to be the proposed elevation of tracks of the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company (new station terminals) and report as to the proposed head rooms at Lake, Randolph and Washington streets, I beg to submit a list of grades prepared by William H. Hedges, Bench and Street Grade Engineer, which grades should be adopted to govern the street grades at the various street intersections as noted and also covering all street crossings made by the proposed elevation. I have examined the proposed grades as submitted by Mr. Hedges and recommend their adoption. The ordinance covering these grades will be submitted to the City Council for passage Monday, November 26th, 1906. You will note that in many instances the grades proposed by Mr. Hedges are a higher elevation than the old grades. In some few instances they are lower. If the grades as presented to the Council are passed, it means that all future permanent improvements on streets crossed by the track elevation will be made in accordance with the same.

The plat hereto accompanying this report also has all corrected grades indicated in red, and where there is a change it is indicated by a double circle around the grades. All figures on the plat covering the elevation of streets have been carefully checked and agree with all grades submitted to the Council for adoption. The minimum clear head room, as indicated on plat, agrees with the proposed ordinance for the elevation of the tracks in the printed copy of the Council Proceedings of October 8th, with the following exceptions:

On page 1413 of the said Council Proceedings the minimum clear head room of roadway is omitted for bridge over North Desplaines street, also on page 1416 of the same Council Proceedings for bridge over Fulton street the ordinance calls for 14½ feet minimum clear head room. Plat shows 14 feet.

The proposed clear head room for Lake street is 13½ feet, which will necessitate the depression of Lake street one foot under the elevated structure. The proposed head room for Randolph street is 13½ feet, which will necessitate the depression of Randolph street one foot near the west line of Canal street. The proposed head room for Washington street is 15 feet with no depression of the surface of the street.

I beg to call your attention to proposed addition, known as paragraph 8, to Section 6, in which the Chicago & North-Western Railway officials propose to add to the ordinance, which is as follows: "The minimum clear head room of roadway prescribed in the preceding parts of this section shall be measured from the level of the street grade, as established by this ordinance or by other ordinances in force at the time of the passage of this ordinance."

Also attached please find proposed corrections made by the railway officials to paragraphs 5, 6 and 7 of Section 1, embodied in ordinance, which agree with the red figures and red grade lines on the plat herewith. On the plat herewith accompanying this report in all cases the red figures and the red lines take precedence over the black figures and the black lines.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. SHAW,

Engineer in Charge.

BUREAU OF SEWERS,
CHICAGO, November 19, 1906.

Alderman T. M. Hunter, Chairman, Committee of Streets and Alleys, West Side:

DEAR SIR—The detailed statement and report requested by your committee, from the office of Acting City Engineer W. A. Shaw, concerning the grades of streets over which the tracks of the Chicago & North-Western Railway are proposed to be elevated, having been referred to the Bench and Street Grade Engineer, a list of those grades carefully revised and corrected to date, is herewith respectfully presented to the committee, showing all the street grades at or near the proposed line of elevation. It should be borne in mind that all street grades are established on or along the curb lines of the streets; and the elevation of the center of the street, generally varies more or less, above or below the lines of curb grade, as may be found necessary by the engineer of the Board of Local Improvements, when planning his work. A plat of the territory affected, showing the street grades along the line of the railway elevation, is also herewith submitted for the guidance and consideration of your committee.

In relation to questions concerning the head room at different streets, etc., this Bureau has not the data on which to base a suitable report or statement thereon; and it is respectfully suggested that the expert on track elevation could best serve the committee in giving information on all such technical points.

Very respectfully,

W. H. HEDGES,

Bench and Street Grade Engineer.

Approved:

WM. E. QUINN,

Superintendent Bureau of Sewers.

DEPARTMENT OF TRACK ELEVATION,
CHICAGO, November 26, 1906.

Hon. Thomas M. Hunter, Chairman, Committee Streets and Alleys, West:

DEAR SIR—After a careful examination of the ordinance, maps and other details submitted for the elevation of the roadbeds and tracks of three divisions of the Chicago & North-Western Railway Company, we find that the Wisconsin and Milwaukee divisions are to be elevated from a point between North May and North Curtis streets, south of Elston avenue, to a point about on the north line of Kinzie street; also the elevation of the roadbed and tracks of the Galena division of said company, from a point near Noble street, to a connection with the Wisconsin and Milwaukee divisions, about on the north line of Kinzie street; and also for the elevation of these three divisions from their junction at or near Kinzie street, south between Canal and Clinton streets, into the proposed new depot building to be erected between the west line of Canal street and the east line of Clinton street; the north line of Madison street and the south line of Lake street; and find the same to be in accordance with the following prepared schedule, which shows the elevation of the tracks to the top of rail, the depth of the floor system, head room or clearance, the established grade of the street, the depression of the streets below the established grade of street, if any, and the width of the streets.

The city authorities have established the grade of the streets on the curb line, which in many cases are higher than the crown of the street.

Schedule No. 2 was prepared in accordance with the grades and figures specified in the ordinance as presented to the City Council October 8th, 1906. Schedule No. 1 has been prepared to agree with the ordinance as it will be when corrected and amended. There is very little difference between the grades and figures in the two schedules, and what difference there may be is of no material consequence, because in the schedule of subways as embodied in the ordinance, it is therein distinctly stated that there shall be no depression of the street and the head room or clearance is positively defined. The head room or clearance is 14 feet, with the exception of Lake and Randolph streets 13.5 and one foot depression; Austin avenue and Washington street, 15 feet; Jefferson street, 16.5 feet; Kinzie street, 17 feet, and Carroll avenue 17.5 feet.

We also find, in comparing the head room in this ordinance with the head room as specified in other ordinances presented to and passed by the City Council for the elevation of the roadbeds and tracks of the various railroad and railway companies, that the lowest head room specified in this ordinance, that is, 13.5 feet is as high, if not higher, than is required in the most of them.

A memorandum of the head room under the elevated railroad at several stations, from the crown of the street to the lowest part of the overhead structure, is herewith submitted.

Most respectfully,

JOHN O'NEILL,

Expert on Track Elevation.

The Clerk, on motion of Ald. Reese, presented the report of the Committee on Water Department, on a communication concerning Section 2434 of the Revised Code of 1905, relating to certain establishments required to be under meters, deferred and published December 10, 1906, page 2311.

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
January 2, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, the ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the meeting on December 17, 1906, Council Proceedings 2401, granting authority to Ed. V. Price & Company to string an electrical wire across the public alley running north and south between Franklin and Market streets, north of Van Buren street, for the reason I am advised by the Law Department that the ordinance is void and without effect inasmuch as there has not been filed the written consent of the persons owning property frontage upon both sides of the alley proposed to be used for this purpose, and this requirement of the statute cannot be avoided.

I would suggest a reconsideration of the vote by which the ordinance was passed and that the ordinance be re-referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys, South Division, for further consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

Ald. Hurt moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Corporation Counsel submitted an opinion concerning the right of the Chicago Union Hospital to conduct a general hospital on Dayton street, which was Referred to the Committee on Health Department.

ALSO,

The following opinion, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on Local Transportation:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
December 27, 1906.

To the Honorable, the City Council.

GENTLEMEN—At the instance of Alderman Cullerton your Honorable Body passed an order requesting of this Department an opinion as to the status of the different street railway companies operating lines of street cars on Ashland avenue south of 12th street, and also what, if any, method can be devised to secure a continuous transportation on said lines.

It appears that the Chicago Union Traction Company, under a lease from the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, executed June, 1899, operates a line of street cars on Ashland avenue, from 12th street to 22d street, constructed under a twenty-year ordinance to said West Chicago Street Railroad Company, passed March 21 1892. The Chicago General Railway Company operates a line of street cars between 22d and 31st streets (Blue Island avenue and Archer avenue), built by said company under an assignment of an ordinance to the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, dated July 27, 1896, for a period of twenty years.

Ashland avenue, from 31st street to 39th street, is occupied by tracks constructed and operated by the Chicago City Railway Company under an ordinance passed May 26, 1884, expiring twenty years from July 30, 1883, and renewed from July 30, 1903, to December 31, 1904.

The line on Ashland avenue south of 39th street, to 55th street was constructed and is operated by the Chicago City Railway Company under ordinance of February 2, 1887, for a period of twenty years.

The two sections of railway line between 12th street and 31st street were constructed and are operated under the ordinance of March 21, 1892, granted to the West Chicago Street Railroad Company.

Under the decision of our Supreme Court in the "Transfer Case" (199 Ill. 484) the city doubtless has the right to compel the Union Traction Company and the Chicago General Railway Company to operate a continuous line of transportation from 12th street to 31st street on Ashland avenue.

As the Chicago City Railway Company is now operating its line between 31st and 39th streets without the authority of an ordinance, the city cannot consistently require it to enter into any operating arrangements with the other companies for the purpose of securing a continuous line of transportation from 12th street south to the end of the street car lines. Nor can Section 1974 of the Municipal Code be invoked, since the line south of 31st street is not owned, leased or operated by the same person, firm, company or corporation that owns, operates or leases either of the other sections of railway on Ashland avenue.

I am therefore of opinion that at the present time the city has no authority to compel the operation of a continuous line of cars on Ashland avenue, from 12th street to the south terminus of the street railway line on Ashland avenue.

Very respectfully,

W. W. De Armond,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

Wm. D. Barge,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICITY,
CHICAGO, ILL., December 29, 1906.

Hon. F. I. Bennett, Chairman, Finance Committee.

DEAR SIR—Supplementing my request for authority to approve bills at 3½ cents per K. W. H. for electric light current furnished the city during the year 1906 by the Chicago Edison Company and the Commonwealth Electric Company, I beg leave to state that the price of 3½ cents per K. W. hour is the best that could be obtained and is a very low price considering that the current is delivered to all parts of the city in various quantities and at all hours, current being furnished to fire engine houses, police stations, pumping stations, etc., places where it is impossible for the city to furnish current from its street lighting stations.

The price is the lowest ever obtained by the city and lower than is given to any other firm or corporation where current is delivered in the City of Chicago under similar conditions.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. CARROLL,
City Electrician.

Ordered, That the City Electrician be and he is hereby authorized and directed to approve all bills for electric current furnished to the City of Chicago by the Chicago Edison Company and the Commonwealth Electric Company, during the year 1906, at the rate of three and one-half (3½) cents per kilowatt hour; and the City Comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to issue warrants to said companies for the amounts due them for such electric current furnished the City of Chicago during the year 1906 as evidenced by bills for the same whereon the approval of the City Electricitn appears, upon proper vouchers signed by the heads of the Departments to which such electric current was furnished; all such bills to be paid out of the appropriation for the year 1906.

CHICAGO, Ill., January 2, 1907.

Hon. F. I. Bennett, Chairman Finance Committee.

DEAR SIR—If consistent, kindly have the attached order passed through the next meeting of the City Council so as to authorize the payment of the Commonwealth Electric Company's bills for rented arc lights during the year 1906.

The rate of $90.00 per lamp per annum has been voluntarily made by that company and is $13.00 per lamp per year lower than any rate the city has obtained during the past six years, in which the rate has been $103.00 per year. Previous to that time it was considerably higher.

This is the best rate we have been able to obtain and, in my opinion, under present conditions, it is reasonable.

Very truly yours,

City Electrician.

P. S.—The amount involved in the above order is $48,810.61, approximately.

Ordered, That the City Electrician be and he is hereby authorized and directed to approve all bills for rented electric arc lights furnished to the City of Chicago by the Commonwealth Electric Company, during the year 1906, for public street lighting, at the rate of ninety ($90.00) per lamp per annum; and the City Comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to issue warrant to said company for the amount due it for such rented electric arc lights furnished the City of Chicago during the year 1906, as evidenced by bills for the same whereon the approval of the City Electrician appears, upon proper voucher signed by said City Electrician; all such bills to be paid out of the appropriation for the year 1906.

SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO,
CHICAGO, December 20, 1906.

Hon. Otto Reese, Chairman Water Committee, Chicago City Council, Chicago, Illinois:

DEAR SIR—The Sanitary District of Chicago has applied for permission to furnish to the South Side Elevated Railroad Company water from the 39th street intercepting sewer, for boiler purposes. It already has the right to furnish this water for condensing purposes.

This permission should be given because it is not fair to compel a company to use more expensive and less desirable water when less expensive and more desirable water is to be had, and because the water works are unable to supply enough water for the needs of the city, and if relieved of the amount used for the boilers of the South Side Elevated Railroad Company will have so much more for the benefit of those who cannot now obtain enough.

Trusting that you will take the matter up with the proper officials, I am,

Yours very truly,

ROBT. R. MCCORMICK,
President.

No permit shall be issued to any applicant for permission to erect a billboard or signboard unless such applicant shall agree to place and maintain on the top of such billboard or signboard the name of the person or corporation owning same or who is in charge, possession, or control thereof. The following communication:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,

To the Honorable, the City Council.

GENTLEMEN—Ordinances are now under consideration by your Committee on Local Transportation, which aim at a complete settlement of the street railway question. They, therefore, fall within the description of the Foreman resolution of your body of October 16, 1905, which received the almost unanimous approval of the Chicago newspapers at that time and was adopted by the Council by a vote of 63 to 0. This resolution declared it to be "the sense of the Council that the procedure in dealing with any ordinance or ordinances for the settlement of the Chicago street railway question" should provide for a referendum. To that course of procedure, I, therefore, submit that your Honorable Body is pledged with reference to the pending ordinances for the settlement of said question. Many of your members are likewise pledged by the political platform upon which you were elected. And, as Mayor, I also am pledged to the same effect, as was my opponent at the last mayoralty election. In addition to these obligations of honor, it behooves us all as trustees of the people to proceed with caution in this matter; for the ordinances in question are not yet in proper form to effectuate the purposes of the "Werno letter," and objections have been raised to them in their present form which, if valid and not corrected, might operate to confer unwarranted and unintended franchise rights upon the traction companies. For these reasons and in order that the said ordinances may not be adopted without public scrutiny and approval, and also in order that the people may be fully assured of opportunity for such scrutiny and approval I respectfully recommend that your Honorable Body readopt the aforesaid Foreman resolution of October 16, 1905, as follows:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council that the procedure in dealing with any ordinance or ordinances for the settlement of the Chicago street railway question shall be as follows:

"The ordinance or ordinances shall be framed up for passage and voted on in Committee of the Whole without final action by the City Council. Thereupon such ordinance or ordinances as shall receive a majority of votes taken by roll call in the Committee of the Whole shall be published and the City Council shall take steps to have the question whether it or they shall be passed by the City Council placed on the ballot to be voted on by the people.

"The form of the proposition or propositions to be placed on the ballot shall be formulated by the Committee on Local Transportation and approved by the City Council.

"The City Council pledges itself not to pass any ordinance or ordinances that shall not receive a majority of the votes cast by the people upon the proposition or propositions. Provided, however, that before any such ordinance is submitted to the people for their approval or disapproval, it and all ordinances purporting to grant franchises, proposed on or about the same time, shall first be submitted to the grantees named in such ordinance for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not said grantees will accept such ordinances if favorably acted on by the people. The answer of said grantees to be made in writing within a time certain. Only one proposition shall be submitted to the voters on any one ordinance that may be recommended for passage to the City Council by the Committee on Local Transportation, and the City Council hereby pledges itself not to recommend the submission of any proposition or propositions other than those herein provided for."

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

Ald. Bennett moved to publish the communication and to defer consideration thereon until the Committee on Local Transportation report ordinances to the Council for settlement of the street railway question.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
January 7, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an order passed by your Honorable Body at the meeting of January 2, 1907, Council Proceedings 2468, directing the Commissioner of Public Works to lay electric wires in conduit on Sheffield avenue, from Clybourn avenue to Fullerton avenue, for the reason that matters of this nature come more properly within the Department of Electricity.

I would recommend that the vote by which the order was passed be reconsidered, that the order be amended by striking out the words "Commissioner of Public Works" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Department of Electricity," and then be repassed.

Yours respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,

Mayor.

ALSO,

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
January 7, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the meeting of January 2, 1907, Council Proceedings page 2474, amending Sections 761 and 762 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905.

I am advised that this ordinance was passed without being considered by any committee and without mature and deliberate consideration by the Council. It has been represented to me that the ordinance does not provide against cruel and inhumane practices, and should be amended by the insertion of provisions that would prevent the cruel and unnecessary torture of dumb animals. As it stands now no precautions against such practices are taken.

I would, therefore, recommend that the vote by which the ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the ordinance be referred to the Committee on Judiciary and the Commissioner of Health for consideration and report.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

Ald. Foreman moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

Ald. Foreman moved to refer the ordinance to the Committee on Judiciary.

The motion prevailed.

ALSO,

The following veto message:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
January 7, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, upon the recommendation of the Law Department, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the meeting of January 2, 1907, Council Proceedings, page 2489, which will prohibit any person from conducting a hotel without first obtaining a license therefor, for the reason that, in my judgment, Section 6 of said ordinance imposes undue liabilities and hardships upon persons conducting hotels and dramshops connected therewith.

The ordinances and statutes regulating the keeping of dramshops provide sufficient safeguards for the welfare of the community and impose adequate penalties upon those violating them, and there is no reason for imposing heavier penalties such as are proposed by the ordinance in question.

While it may be, and oftentimes is, proper to deprive a person guilty of repeatedly violating the dramshop ordinance of the opportunity to obtain a new license, there is no justification for prohibiting him from engaging in another business, even though such other business is controlled by ordinance.

I herewith attach opinions of Mr. William D. Barge, Assistant Corporation Counsel, and Mr. Frank D. Comerford, Attorney for the Police Department, and respectfully ask your consideration of the same in reference to this matter.

I would suggest that the vote by which the ordinance was passed be reconsidered and that the ordinance be amended by striking out said Section 6 and then be repassed.

Respectfully,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

Ald. Dunn moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

Ald. Scully moved to lay on the table the motion to recommit.

The motion to lay on the table prevailed by yeas and nays as follows:

The following is the ordinance as passed:

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. For the purposes of this ordinance, a hotel is defined to be any hotel, inn, rooming house, lodging house, or other public house or place which provides lodging for hire either with or without board, for the transient accommodation of the public.

SECTION 2. No person shall keep, conduct, or maintain a hotel unless he be licensed so to do in accordance with and pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance. Every day in which a hotel is kept, conducted or maintained without such license shall be a separate violation of this ordinance.

SECTION 3. The Mayor shall grant a license for the keeping of a hotel to any person who shall apply to him in writing therefor, who shall be of good character and shall furnish the Mayor with satisfactory evidence of the same and who shall not be indebted to the City of Chicago on account of any unpaid fine adjudged against him for the violation of any provision of any ordinance of the City of Chicago relating to the keeping or conducting of a hotel. Such application shall specifically describe the premises and the number of lodging rooms for guests in which it is proposed to conduct such hotel.

Provided, however, that no license to keep a hotel shall be issued to any one other than the proprietor except in the case of a corporation, in which case the license may be issued either to the corporation or to any one designated by such corporation as manager. Where a corporation is proprietor, the application shall be signed by its President or Secretary, and shall truly state the names and addresses of all of its officers and directors. A license to a firm shall be issued in the names of the individual members of the firm.

Every applicant shall execute to the city a bond, with at least two sureties to be approved by the City Collector, in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned that the applicant will faithfully observe and conform to all ordinances in force at the time of his application, or thereafter passed, during the period of the license applied for, concerning or in any manner relating to the conduct or management of hotels and will promptly pay all fines which may be adjudged against him for the violation of any provision of any such ordinance during the period of his license. No application for a license shall be considered until the bond herein required shall have been filed and approved.

SECTION 4. Any person complying with the aforesaid requirements, and upon the payment in advance to the City Collector of a license fee of fifteen dollars, shall receive a license under the corporate seal, signed by the Mayor, and attested by the City Clerk, which shall authorize the person or persons therein named to keep a hotel at the place and of the number of rooms designated in the license and for the period stated therein. Licenses may be issued for the full licensed year or for the unexpired portion thereof, and if issued for the unexpired portion of the license year the fee to be paid therefor shall bear the same ratio to the sum required for the whole year that the number of days in such unexpired portion bears to the whole number of days in the year; provided that no license shall extend beyond the thirtieth day of April next following its issuance.

SECTION 5. Every hotel licensed under this ordinance shall at all times keep a book or register wherein shall be entered and registered at the time and in the proper order the name of every person becoming a guest of such hotel or an occupant of any room or portion of the premises, excepting employees of the hotel. Such register shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Mayor, the Chief of Police, and the police officers of the City of Chicago and their assistants.

SECTION 6. No person keeping or conducting a hotel shall permit the same to be or become a resort of disreputable persons nor knowingly permit or suffer the same to be used or occupied by persons for immoral purposes.

SECTION 7. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for such offense; if any person, having been once convicted by the judgment of any court of violating any provision of this ordinance, the Mayor may, in his discretion, if such person has a license, in addition to other penalties provided by ordinance or by law, revoke such license, and if any person shall be convicted of a second offense by the judgment of any court of violating any provision thereof, and if such person has a license, the Mayor shall revoke his license, and no license shall thereafter be issued to such person until the expiration of two years from and after the date of the judgment of such second conviction.

SECTION 8. This ordinance shall not be so construed as to include boarding houses or places where board or lodging alone are furnished exclusively by the week or longer period.

SECTION 9. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and due publication.

CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Assistant Corporation Counsel presented the following opinion, which was ordered published and placed on file:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
January 7, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Your Honorable Body at the instance of Alderman Uhlir recently passed an order requesting of this department an opinion as to what if any right the West Park Commissioners—in carrying forward the work of improving Marshall boulevard under a special assessment levied for that purpose—had to close or obstruct the streets opening into said boulevard, and also whether the expense of such improvement can be met otherwise than by special assessment in the event that the Commissioners extend such streets into and across said boulevard.

What is now Marshall boulevard existed and was known as Southwest boulevard long before the land abutting and adjoining it was subdivided in blocks and lots—long before any streets or alleys were ever plotted or existed there.

The streets that are closed by the Commissioners never extended across the boulevard, but ended at the boulevard line.

Until the work of improvement was in actual progress the residents along these streets believed that the streets extended across the boulevard and while the special assessment proceedings were pending in court interposed no objection to the plan of the improvement, and it would seem did not realize the extent or effect of the improvement until it was too late to remedy the injury that has thus fallen upon them.

The law provides that the cost of such improvement shall be paid by special assessment levied upon the property benefited and the Commissioners have no authority to adopt another and different method than the one provided by law for meeting these expenses. They cannot, therefore, use money otherwise obtained to pay for this improvement.

The Commissioners fear that if they should now open these streets into and across the boulevard, litigation would arise involving the right and authority to collect the assessment, since it would be levied for one improvement and collected and applied upon another and different improvement.

I am informed by the attorney for the West Park Board that the Commissioners have expressed a willingness, to open these streets free of expense to the property owners, after three of the five installments have been collected.

As neither the city nor the persons assessed for this improvement can compel the Commissioners to open these streets into Marshall Boulevard, there seems no other course left than to abide the time when of their own accord the Commissioners shall restore to these property owners the street benefits and privileges now withheld from them.

Very respectfully,

W. W. DeArmond,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

Wm. D. Barge,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

FRANK I. BENNETT,

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICITY,
CHICAGO, January 7, 1907.

Hon. F. I. Bennett, Chairman, Finance Committee:

DEAR SIR—Attached hereto please find proposal of the American Development Company to furnish and maintain gasoline lamps on certain streets in the City of Chicago during the year 1907, at $2.25 per lamp per month. This is an advance of 10 cents per lamp per month over the price paid last year, which advance the company claims is caused by the increased cost of labor and gasoline oil.

The company claims that gasoline alone costs them 13 1-3 cents per lamp per month more than it did during the year 1906.

There was only one proposal received in response to advertisements in the Chicago Daily Journal, and, as a matter of fact, the company appears to be the only one in position to bid as they own the poles and lamps now in operation, and owing to prospective arc lights operated with Drainage Canal power it is doubtful if any company can be found to go to the expense of putting up posts and lamps for a one-year contract.

These facts are submitted for the consideration of your Honorable Committee and such action as you may deem proper.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. CARROLL,
City Electrician.

GAS, OIL AND ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light submitted the following report, which was, on motion of Ald. Young, deferred and ordered published:

CHICAGO, January 5, 1907.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light, to whom was referred an ordinance establishing a department for the inspection of gas meters and gas, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report and recommend the passage of the accompanying substitute ordinance and the publication of the accompanying communication:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
January 3, 1907.

Hon. Linn H. Young, Chairman, Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light:

DEAR SIR—Replying to yours of December 20th, relative to ordinance in reference to inspection of gas meters, permit me to say:

In my opinion it is desirable that the provision in Section 3 that the inspection shall be "conclusive both upon the gas company owning such meter and the consumer" should be incorporated in the ordinance, and that there is an advantage in having this provision in the ordinance for the reason that such provision saves many disputes over inspection.

In relation to that portion of your letter regarding the payment of salaries of inspectors for inspecting new or replaced meters, I beg to say that I know of no provision that could be incorporated in the ordinance providing that the company should pay these inspectors, and the manner suggested in your letter is the usual and ordinary course followed in many instances by the city where inspectors and other employes of the city are paid by private parties or concerns, and if any dispute arises over that question it can be settled at the time it arises.

I attach hereto typewritten copy of the ordinance for introduction in the Council, which has been carefully inspected for errors in wording and phraseology, and which is in accordance with the suggestions submitted to me by the Gas Inspector and your Committee.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Yours very truly,

FRANK L. CHILDS,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

WM. D. BARGE,
Assistant Corporation Counsel.

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Sections 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 932, 933, 935, 937, 938 and 940 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, and providing for test of new meters and presence of representative of company at test.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

SECTION 1. That Section 924 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"924. Duty to Test Meters.) It shall be the duty of such Inspector to examine and test any gas meter furnished to any consumer of gas by any gas company furnishing illuminating gas in this city whenever requested to do so by such consumer. Said inspection upon the request of a consumer shall be made substantially in accordance with the following requirements: Whenever any consumer of illuminating gas furnished by a gas company furnishing gas in the city shall make a request for such inspector to have any meter or meters so furnished and installed by such gas company on the premises of such consumer inspected for the purpose of ascertaining whether such meter registers accurately and correctly and pays the fee as hereinafter fixed, said inspector shall proceed to make a test of such gas meter. Before making any such test the inspector shall give notice to the person making application for such test, and also to the gas company whose meter is about to be tested, of the time and place where he intends to test such meter. Notice to the company shall be given in writing sent by mail to such gas company at its principal office in the city, and notice shall be sent to such applicant in writing by mail addressed to the premises described in the application for such test. Such notice shall be mailed at least twenty-four hours before the time set for the test of such meter. The test of such meter shall be made by the inspector or his duly authorized agent or agents at such place as he may designate in such notice or notices, and shall be made in such manner as to thoroughly test such meter with a view of ascertaining whether it registers accurately."

SECTION 2. That Section 925 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"925. Testing of Meters—Unit of Measure—Pressure at Which Test Is to Be Made—Standard Meters—Variations Allowed.) The unit of measure to be employed by the inspector in making the test of meters herein provided for shall be the cubic foot containing 62.321 pounds of rain or distilled water at a temperature of sixty-two degrees Fahrenheit, and at a barometric pressure of thirty inches.

All meters shall be tested at a pressure which will balance a column of water five-tenths of an inch in height, and the accuracy of such meter shall be determined by the use of standard meter provers designed and constructed for the purpose.

There shall be maintained in the office of the Inspector of gas meters and gas at least three standard gas meters which have been tested, sealed and certified by the United States Bureau of Standards. The meters so maintained shall be used as standards for the purpose of checking the working provers which are used by said Inspector in checking and testing meters used by consumers of gas. Any consumer's meter tested by said Inspector shall be deemed to be correct if it registers not to exceed two per cent above or two per cent below accuracy. Any meter found to be either fast or slow as herein defined shall be adjusted by the gas company owning same so as to bring it as close as practical to accuracy within the limits herein specified before again being placed in service."

SECTION 3. That Section 926 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"926. Inspection Conclusive.) The inspection herein provided for to be made by such Inspector shall be conclusive both upon the gas company owning such meter, and the consumer in or upon whose premises such meter was installed, and the amount of gas flowing through such meter for a period of six months before the close of the month in which such meter shall be inspected shall be adjudged to be as if such meter were during such six months in the same condition as it was at the time such inspection was made."

SECTION 4. That Section 927 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"927. By Whom Fee Is to Be Finally Paid.) If the result of any such inspection shall show any meter so inspected to be inaccurate as herein defined, and to have registered in such a manner as to show a greater consumption of gas than was actually consumed or than actually flowed through such meter, the amount advanced by the person desiring such test shall be forthwith returned to such person, and such inspection shall be made without any cost or expense of any kind to him, the cost of making such inspection of any meter so found to be inaccurate shall be paid by the company furnishing gas through the same, and by whom or for whose benefit such meter was installed, and the amount of the fee as herein fixed for such inspection shall be paid by such company upon a bill being presented to it by the Inspector with his certificate showing that such meter was found by him to be inaccurate. If the result of any inspection of any meter shall show such meter to be registering accurately as herein defined or to have registered a smaller amount of gas than actually flowed through such meter, in such case the expense of such inspection shall be paid for out of the fee required to be advanced by the person, firm or corporation making application for such inspection, and no part of such fee shall in any case be returned to such applicant."

SECTION 5. That Section 928 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"928. Fees.) Any person, firm or corporation desiring the inspection of any gas meter within the city as provided in Section 4 (four) hereof shall accompany the application for such inspection with a fee of one dollar which shall be paid to the City Collector, and for which such applicant shall obtain a receipt from the City Collector, showing such payment, which receipt shall describe the location of the gas meter to be inspected and shall contain the name of the person, firm or corporation for whose benefit said gas meter was installed, said receipt when presented to the Inspector shall be his authority for making the inspection herein provided for."

SECTION 6. That Section 929 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"929. Disconnection of Meters to Be Inspected.) Whenever a request shall be made to inspect any meter which is installed in any premises, the Inspector of Gas Meters and Gas shall have the right, upon giving the notices hereinbefore provided for, to require the gas company owning the same to disconnect and detach such meter and convey the same to such place as he may direct for the purpose of making his inspection, the said gas company installing another meter in place of the one so removed for inspection and test."

SECTION 7. That Section 930 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"930. Office Hours—Apparatus.) Said Inspector shall keep an office in the City Hall, where he shall be found during all business hours of each business day, except when absent on business connected with his official duties.

He shall keep in his office a standard one hundred inch bar photometer, with the ordinary and usual accessories of the same."

SECTION 8. That Section 932 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"932. Records to Be Kept.) Said Inspector shall keep a register or registers in his office, in which he shall record the number and description of each meter inspected by him, and the time when it was tested by him, together with a record of all notices sent or given by him, and all other proceedings of his office. Such records shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Mayor, any member of the City Council, and the head of any department, or any citizen of the City of Chicago.

SECTION 9. That Section 933 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"933. Duty of Inspector to Test Quality of Gas.) Said Inspector shall from time to time make photometric tests of the quality of illuminating gas furnished by the various gas companies or persons engaged in the business of furnishing and supplying gas to consumers in the city, and he shall communicate to the City Council the result of such tests. If at any time he shall discover that the quality of illuminating gas being furnished or supplied to the city or to any consumer by any person or corporation engaged in the business of furnishing or supplying gas, either as to purity or illuminating power, is below the standard required by the provisions of this ordinance, and any and all other sections of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905, he shall forthwith report such fact to the City Council with a record showing the tests made by him."

SECTION 10. That Section 935 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"935. Monthly and Annual Report.) Said Inspector shall immediately after the first day of each month prepare and submit to the Comptroller a report of the number of meters inspected during the previous month. Said Inspector shall annually on or before the first day of May in each year report in writing to the City Council the transactions of his office during the preceding year, with such other information as he may deem necessary and proper."

SECTION 11. That Section 937 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago of 1905 be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

"937. Purity of Gas.) Any person or corporation engaged in, carrying on, or conducting the business of furnishing or supplying illuminating gas in the city to any consumer or consumers shall be and hereby is required to furnish and supply such gas which shall be so far free from sulphuretted hydrogen that it shall not discolor a test paper imbued with acetate of lead when such test paper is exposed to a column of gas issuing for thirty seconds under a pressure of five-tenths of an inch of water, and so that one hundred cubic feet of such gas shall not contain more than twenty grains of sulphur, and so that one hundred cubic feet of such gas shall not contain more than five grains of ammonia.

All tests to be made for the purpose of establishing the percentage of sulphur in illuminating gas furnished by any person or corporation furnishing gas in the city, shall be made or conducted with the Tutweiller Sulphuretted Hydrogen Apparatus, and the sulphur in other forms shall be determined by means of the Gas Referees Sulphur-determining Apparatus, and methods ordinarily employed in the use of the same."

The gas while being tested shall be burned by means of a No. .07 Bray Slit-Union low pressure burner when used in connection with the photometer and accessories hereinbefore specified.

The unit and standard of light shall be that volume of light which is produced in a horizontal direction by one standard English candle burning at the rate of one hundred and twenty grains of sperm per hour."

EIGHTH WARD.

Ald. Derpa presented the following resolutions, which were ordered published and referred to the Committee on Gas, Oil and Electric Light:

WHEREAS, The Chicago Telephone Company is at the present time seeking favor from the City Council in the form of a renewal of its franchise rights which expire in 1909;

WHEREAS, The company's officials claim and seek to impress the members of this Council and the general public that they are honest, fair, reasonable, equal and without discrimination in their dealing with the general public and with its subscribers;

WHEREAS, The present and past treatment by that company of its patrons and the people should be weighed in considering the desirability, integrity and fairness of that company during the consideration of whether it shall have its franchise rights renewed;

WHEREAS, The telephone franchise extension negotiations have been going on before the Committee of this Council ever since last spring, which afforded the telephone company ample time and opportunity to prove the honesty, truth and good faith of its claims of treating all people on a basis of equality, fairness, reasonableness and without discrimination;

WHEREAS, The Chicago Telephone Company, while making these protestations and claims has been charging the people of the Eighth Ward fully twice as much for their telephone service as it charges the people in other wards of this city;

WHEREAS, For the local neighborhood exchange telephone service, the people of the Eighth Ward pay twice as much as do the people of other sections which are served by similar neighborhood or local exchanges, even though the area covered is much larger than that of the South Chicago exchange; and for the unlimited business city telephone the people of the Eighth Ward are compelled to pay more than $200, and in many cases more than $300 for exactly the same service and accommodation for which the people of the down town district pay $125;

INASMUCH AS The only reason advanced by the Chicago Telephone Company officials for the discrimination in the unlimited business telephone rate, which reaches over $300 in many cases is that the rate they charge is not prohibited under their ordinance of 1889; and,

INASMUCH AS There is no good ground for charging the people of South Chicago twice as much for the local or neighborhood telephone service as the people of other sections are compelled to pay;

INASMUCH AS The company does not deny that the $125 rate for unlimited telephone service wtihin the city limits, which it charges in the down town district at the present time, by order of the Supreme Court, is profitable and reasonable and inasmuch as the neighborhood or local exchange rates charged in other districts, although they are one-half of the rate charged in South Chicago, are evidently profitable for the company;

INASMUCH AS The company has taken no step up to date to give the people of the Eighth Ward telephone rates on a basis of reasonable, equal and fair treatment, and inasmuch as the company's excuses have been such as would not be tolerated in any court of law;

INASMUCH AS The final settlement of the telephone franchise question is at present indefinite and in the light of demands for a referendum vote on all public utility franchise measures, the work of the telephone experts to be done and the careful weighing of all offers and provisions of telephone franchise ordinances, all of which will necessarily delay the settlement of the problem; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the question of giving relief from discrimination, unreasonable and exorbitant charges to the people of the Eighth Ward be taken up by the city authorities, independent of the pending franchise question, and that it be taken up at once;

Resolved, That the Committee on Gas,

Oil and Electric Light of this Body and the City Law Department look into the unfair treatment which the people of the Eighth Ward are subjected to by the telephone company, and secure prompt and speedy relief at least to the same extent that other sections of the city are now favored; that the committee above named call in the officials of the company and demand at once an explanation as to whether the treatment of the people of South Chicago at present is reasonable and fair and such as to deserve support of the people of Chicago;

Resolved, That the Committee direct the City Law Department, if that be necessary, to test whether the charge of more than $300 to people in South Chicago for the same telephone service for which people in the down town district pay $125 per year, and also the charge for local neighborhood exchange as compared with other similar charges in the city, are reasonable, fair and honest;

Resolved, That if the Chicago Telephone Company refuses to treat the people of all sections of the city at this time upon a basis of giving them all fair, reasonable, just and equitable rates, that such refusal be made known when made in response to the Committee's demand upon the company's officials, not only to this Council, but to the people in general, and that it be considered an element in the consideration of whether the Chicago Telephone Company deserves to continue to do telephone business within the city limits or not.

Comptroller.

In connection with the foregoing, Ald. Bennett submitted the following communication:

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Chicago:

GENTLEMEN—In the matter of the letting of the contract for public printing, I desire to say that in my opinion, the publication recommended by the Mayor and Comptroller is not such a paper as is contemplated by law, and that it is not the lowest bidder when circulation is taken into consideration, and, in view of the importance of giving the greatest publicity to the letting of public contracts, I have withheld my concurrence in the letting of said contract, and beg to submit the matter for your consideration.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK I. BENNETT,
Chairman, Committee on Finance.

Ald. Bennett moved to accept the bid of, and to award the contract for the printing of City advertisements for the year 1907 to the Chicago Daily Journal.

After debate, Ald. Bradley moved to lay the motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was lost.

The main question being then put, the motion prevailed, and the award was made to the Chicago Daily Journal, by yeas and nays as follows:

CORPORATION COUNSEL.

The Corporation Counsel presented the following opinion, which was ordered published and referred to the Committee on City Hall and Public Buildings:

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
January 3, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council of Chicago.

GENTLEMEN—In response to the request contained in your resolution of December 17, 1906, as follows:

"Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel be and he is hereby requested to submit to this City Council, as early as January, 1907, a written opinion, setting forth therein the legal obstacles, if such exist, which stand in the way of the City of Chicago's proceeding to erect a new city hall building upon the present site of the city hall of Chicago, without this City's first acquiring absolute title to the said site, providing funds for the erection of such building may be secured by revenue from increased taxation, by appropriation of this City Council, or by bond issue, should the latter be authorized by the Illinois Legislature."

I beg leave to submit, in behalf of the legal department, the following opinion for your consideration and guidance.

I find that the question under consideration was before the Supreme Court, an opinion rendered May 11, 1897, and reported in 167 Ill. 109 to 121, in a suit of ejectment brought by Cook County against the City of Chicago for the possession of the west one-half of Block thirty-nine in the original Town of Chicago, which are the premises now occupied by the present city hall building. The city claimed the right to occupy and use under the Act of October 20, 1871, and the agreement between the County and City of August 19, 1872. The county claimed that under the Act of February 4, 1851, the county authorities were forbidden "to sell, mortgage, incumber or convey Block 39, or any part thereof"; that the Act of October 20, 1871, did not repeal, by implication or otherwise, the Act of February 4, 1851, and, hence, the contract of August 19, 1872, was ultra vires and void. After the ejectment suit was brought, the City began injunction proceedings against the county before Hon. Murray F. Tuley, Judge, who decided in favor of the City. This decision, on appeal, was reversed, the Supreme Court holding: (1) That the contract was ultra vires and void; (2) If the contract was valid, such defense could be made in the ejectment suit. Cook County v. Chicago, 158 Ill. 524-530.

The ejectment suit then came up before Windes, Judge, who decided for the City, and, on appeal, his decision was affirmed. (167 Ill. 109.)

The opinion is by Phillips, Justice, and is quite exhaustive. I will call your attention to such parts and points thereof, only, as essential to a proper comprehension of his reasons and conclusion.

Before and at the time of the passage of the Act of February 4, 1851, the county solely occupied the whole of Block 39.

In 1853, a building was erected and paid for and occupied partly by the City and partly by the County. In 1860 the building was enlarged and each used exclusively separate parts of the same.

In 1868, the Board of Supervisors passed a resolution providing the City should be entitled to the west one-half of the existing courthouse on payment of $50,000, and have the privilege to erect a building west of the courthouse, the Common Council accepted the offer, erected a $400,000 structure and exclusively occupied it. This building was destroyed by the fire of October 9, 1871. October 20, 1871, the legislature passed an act, the proviso to Section 1, being as follows:

> "That not less than one-fifth, nor to exceed one-third, of said sum so appropriated shall be received by said city, and be applied in reconstructing the bridges and public buildings and structures destroyed by fire, upon the original sites thereof, as already provided by the Common Council."

There was an emergency clause as follows: "great conflagration in the City of Chicago the buildings, bridges and other public improvements have been totally destroyed," etc. The action of the Common Council, referred to, was the resolution of October 12, 1871, as follows:

> "Resolved, That the Board of Public Works be directed to confer with the Board of Supervisors, or a committee of said Board of Supervisors, in regard to erecting a public building on the court house square, jointly with the county, for all public officers."

On the 19th day of August, 1872, the city and county entered into a contract, in which all former arrangements were merged, which is the one referred to in the preamble to your resolution.

In referring to the respective legislative acts of 1851 and 1871, the court say:

"The only construction to be given this act is, that it was required of the city that a certain part of this appropriation should be expended for the erection of buildings for its use on this block. This requirement was a recognition of the right to use the same. A recognition of that right was, in effect, a repeal of the act of 1851. If the act of 1851 prohibited the city from using this lot, the act of 1871 required it to-required it to do so. There is such repugnancy between the two acts that the latter is, by implication, a repeal of the former as to the west half of Block 39, and after its passage the county had a right to convey to the city that part of that block."

In speaking of the contract of August 19, 1872, the court say:

"It was agreed that the city 'should have the control and occupancy of the said west half of the block for the uses aforesaid without hindrance, henceforth and forever,' with the further provision, however, that if the city should cease to use the same the county should have the right to resume possession, and in such case the city should forfeit all its rights therein and the contract should be void. For the rights given under this agreement the city released a debt due to it from the county of about $30,000, and conveyed to the county what were known as the 'hospital lot' and the 'criminal court block,' both being very valuable pieces of real estate in the city. Soon after this contract was made the city and county authorities proceeded to erect the building or buildings now on this block, and under the provisions of this contract the west half of the building was constructed by the city at a cost of $1,716,000. The effect of the act of 1871 was to authorize that contract. By it the right to use the west half of this lot by the city forever was given. No right of recovery exists on the part of the county against the city."

This decision stands, to-day, as the expression of the judgment of our Supreme Court, and seems to confer ample power and authority under the act and contract aforesaid upon the city to erect and occupy, for municipal purposes, a building upon the present site of the city hall.

One matter, apparently overlooked by the Supreme Court in its opinion, is that part of Section 2 of the Act of February 4, 1851, which uses the words "nor the Common Council of the City of Chicago." Take this expression in connection with the fact that the City had occupied a portion of the west one-half of said Block 39, with a small building as early as 1837, may not the legislature have concluded that the County had recognized the fact that it had not used, and did not need to use, said west one-half but that the City had and did; and especially in view of the almost continued use by one and disuse by the other of that part since 1851?

Again, may not the legislature (of 1871) have also thought that the legislature of 1851 by forbidding the City of Chicago, in immediate connection with the Board of Supervisors and Cook County, from mortgaging or disposing of the property, have recognized that, in some manner, or by some means, recognizable in law or justice, the City had acquired a right to or interest in a part of said Block 39? If not, why the mention of the "Common Council of the City" in connection with the inhibition against encumbrance or alienation? I mention it as a probable or at least possible reason actuating the legislature in passing the act of October 20, 1871.

If a verbal opinion has been rendered by this department, in relation to said premises, such opinion was upon a state of facts entirely at variance with those embraced in said resolution, and did not relate to a case where the City is to erect a building with its own funds for municipal purposes upon the premises in question; but was based upon the facts that private persons or a private association of persons was to erect a building and lease it to the city, which, of course, could not be done, until and unless such persons or associations should first acquire title from the County.

I have the honor to be,

Yours respectfully,

THOS. J. TULEY,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

The following are the report and ordinances:

CHICAGO, January 15, 1907.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in City Council Assembled:

Your Committee on Local Transportation reports herewith, with the recommendation that they do pass, an ordinance to The Chicago City Railway Company, covering the lines now operated by that Company, and certain extensions thereof, and an ordinance to the Chicago Railways Company, covering the lines now operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, and certain extensions thereof.

These ordinances provide for the immediate rehabilitation of the said street railway systems and for the right of the City of Chicago or its licensee to purchase the same, on the first day of February and on the first day of August of each and any year, upon giving six months' previous notice, in writing, and upon definite terms fixed in the respective ordinances.

The following is a brief summary of the provisions of the ordinances.

The City and the Companies respectively agree that the value of the present tangible and intangible property of the Union Traction system is $29,000,000, and of the City Railway system, $21,000,000.

The Companies agree that they will proceed at once to rehabilitate and re-equip their entire street railway systems and put the same in first-class condition, in full compliance with specifications for such work and under the supervision of a Board of Supervising Engineers created under the ordinances.

The Board of Supervising Engineers is to consist of three persons, one selected by the Companies and one selected by the City, and the third to be Mr. Bion J. Arnold, who has been the expert engineer representing the City of Chicago in traction negotiations during the past five years. Mr. Arnold is also selected as Chief Engineer in charge of the preparation of the plans and specifications for the entire work of rehabilitation and of the supervision of such work.

The City or any other Company authorized by it is given the right to purchase the entire property of the two systems, or either of them, upon the payment of the agreed price of the present property of each Company, respectively, and the cost of rehabilitation and extensions, including fair allowances for construction, profit and brokerage.

If the street railways are to be so acquired for operation by a private corporation, for its own profit, the purchase price is to be increased twenty per cent.

The Companies are limited, during their operation, to an interest return of five per cent. upon the agreed value of their property, plus the cost of rehabilitation and extensions.

The net profits from the operation of the street railways are to be divided between the City and the Companies, in the ratio of fifty-five per cent. to the City and forty-five per cent. to the Companies.

The ordinances require the setting aside of six per cent. of the gross receipts for maintenance and repairs of the systems.

The ordinances further require the setting aside of an additional and separate fund of eight per cent. of the gross receipts to cover renewals and depreciation.

Whatever portion of the two funds above mentioned is not actually devoted to the purposes specified remains in the funds and pass to the City or its licensee, upon purchase.

In case either of the above funds should in any event be insufficient for the proper maintenance, repair and renewal of the entire street railway system and its equipment, the Companies are obligated to supply additional funds for these purposes.

The ordinances provide for a comprehensive system of transfers and through routes, by means of which passengers can ride over all connecting lines, within the city limits, covered by the Chicago Union Traction system, the Chicago City Railway system, the Chicago Consolidated system and the Chicago General Railway system, for a single fare, in any one general direction.

Twenty-one through routes over the lines of those systems are specified in the ordinances, and provision is made for such additions thereto as the traffic may warrant or require at any time hereafter.

Numerous extensions of the existing lines are specifically provided for, and the Companies agree to construct and equip additional extensions amounting to six miles of double track or twelve miles of single track, for the Union Traction system, and four miles of double track or eight miles of single track, for the City Railway system, in each year, after the third year.

The Companies also agree, under certain conditions named in the ordinances, to construct whatever additional extensions may be required by the City Council.

The Companies agree, upon demand of the City and at the City's option, to furnish funds, to the amount of $5,000,000, for the construction of a central subway, to be built and owned by the City, the plans for which are to be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

The Companies also agree to furnish to the City the funds for the construction of extensions to this subway, on the terms stated in the ordinances.

The Chicago Railways Company agrees to lower and reconstruct the tunnels under the Chicago River, at Washington, La Salle and Van Buren streets.

The City is also authorized to require the installation of the underground trolley system, in place of the overhead wires.

The capacity of the surface lines within the loop district will be largely increased by the through routes and re-arrangement of the existing terminals.

Within three years, the Chicago City Railway Company must have in operation on its lines at least eight hundred double-truck cars, of modern type and design, to be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers, and the Chicago Railways Company must have in operation on its system at least twelve hundred such cars.

The City has full power to require whatever additional cars or other equipment may be necessary.

Within at least one year cars in trains can no longer be operated, and all cars must be operated singly.

The ordinances contain ample requirements for grooved rails and for the cleaning and sprinkling of streets and for the paving of the right-of-way.

The ordinances contain a complete reservation by the City of all of its police powers, including the right to make all regulations which may be necessary to secure adequate and sufficient street railway accommodations for the people and to insure their comfort and convenience.

The books and accounts of the Companies are to be kept according to forms subject to the approval of the City Comptroller, and are subject to the inspection of the City's accountants at all times.

The Companies are required to make sworn annual reports to the City, and there is provision for an annual audit of their books by public accountants.

These provisions and the many other requirements of the proposed ordinances amply protect the rights and interests of the City.

The ordinances are the result of negotiations with the representatives of the Companies involved, who have indicated their willingness to accept them, if passed by the City Council.

These negotiations have been continuously carried on since April 27th, 1906, in accordance with the suggestions of Mayor Dunne, embodied in a letter to Alderman Charles Werno, the Chairman of the Local Transportation Committee, a copy of which letter is hereto attached. The ordinances are in accordance with the suggestions of this letter. They have been drafted and discussed by your Committee in open session, at which unrestricted opportunity has been given for citizens of all shades of opinion to be heard. The ordinances embody the most advantageous terms to the City of Chicago for the settlement of the traction question, and are earnestly recommended for passage, to your honorable body.

Respectfully submitted,

COMMITTEE ON LOCAL TRANSPORTATION,

By CHARLES WERNO,

Chairman.

CHICAGO, April 27, 1906.

Alderman Charles Werno, Chairman of Committee on Local Transportation, City Council, Chicago.

DEAR SIR:

In response to your request, I submit the following informal suggestions as to the important work which lies immediately before your Committee.

It is my profound conviction that the most important thing to be accomplished at the outset of this work is the establishment of cordial and efficient co-operation between the two great departments of our municipal government. I recognize fully the functions of the City Council in any disposition of the traction question. In it, under our system of government, is vested the power of legislation. Any additional legislation which may be required in connection with traction matters must be enacted by the City Council. Nevertheless the law has imposed upon me, as the chief executive of the City, the responsible leadership in the field of administration, in which are embraced many of the most important phases of the street railway problem, and I am charged directly with the duty of approving or disapproving the legislation which may be enacted by the City Council. It is, therefore, of the first importance that the City Council and the Mayor should, if possible, co-operate heartily and efficiently in carrying out the will of the people as already expressed, and in devising such additional measures as may seem to be for the public welfare. I believe the time has come when, without regard to differences of opinion upon many matters, this co-operation can and should be brought about. The first step toward this end is to arrive, if possible, at a clear understanding of the existing situation.

The work of your Committee naturally divides itself into two great parts:

First—The accomplishment of Municipal Ownership of the street railway system, and Second—The improvement of our street railway service while Municipal Ownership is being established.

The people of Chicago have repeatedly expressed their opinion in favor of municipal ownership of the street railway system, and at the last election they definitely voted in favor of the ordinance which has been passed by the City Council for the purpose of providing the financial means by which municipal ownership may be accomplished. I assume that all of the members of your Committee will fully accept the result of this election in good faith, and will co-operate, in all proper and reasonable ways, to carry into effect the will of the people.

At its last session, the City Council passed a resolution offered by Alderman Milton J. Foreman directing this Committee to take up and consider the immediate improvement of the street railway service. With the purpose of this resolution I am in hearty accord. In my last message to the City Council I said: "Because of the condition of our traction lines, reduced to the lowest level of bad service under the system of private ownership which has prevailed, every element of delay in rehabilitation should be avoided as far as possible, with due regard for the street railway policy which the people have demanded and the enabling terms of the Mueller law." I assume that whatever measures may be devised to this end will be so framed as to provide for and protect, to the fullest extent, the right of the City to acquire the street railway system just as soon as the necessary means can be provided for this purpose. It is my firm conviction that the prompt and thorough improvement of our entire street railway service can be brought about by measures which will recognize and preserve this right. The only possible thing which may stand in the way of this result is the petition for rehearing which the street railway companies have filed in the ninety-nine-year litigation in the United States Supreme Court. This application, however, must, in the nature of things, be disposed of in a very short time, and need not delay the work of your Committee in preparing at once for the steps which can be taken as soon as the rehearing has been denied. I think your Committee can safely proceed upon the confident assumption that the decision already rendered by the Federal Supreme Court will stand as the definite determination of the rights of the companies under the ninety-nine-year act. Assuming this, the question for us to consider is, What practical measures can be taken, both in the direction of municipalization and improved service?

First, as to Municipal Ownership: The people of Chicago have, on several occasions during the past few years, voted overwhelmingly in favor of municipal ownership of the street railway system. Naturally the advocates of Municipal Ownership have not been entirely agreed as to the precise form in which this should be brought about. The statute under which it must be attained has not yet been passed upon by the courts, and the precise steps which must be taken under that law cannot be determined with absolute assurance in the absence of a judicial construction. It is in some respects a new field of legislation, and the precise form of the ordinance or ordinances which can be passed under the law can be determined only by actual test in the courts.

The City Council and the people having already enacted an ordinance authorizing the issuance of special certificates under the so-called Mueller Law, it is to the interest of the entire public to have this ordinance fairly and fully tested just as speedily as the proper steps to this end can be determined upon and carried into effect. The test should be one which will not merely determine the validity of the ordinance, but will also pass upon the validity and construction of the statute under which the ordinance is passed. It should be such a test as will satisfy future purchasers of these certificates as to their validity, and every question which can fairly be raised, which may affect the character of the certificates, should be included in the litigation, so far as it is practicable to bring this about. If the ordinance is held valid, as I confidently expect, I assume that your Committee will co-operate heartily in devising and recommending to the Council the further steps which may be necessary to carry it into practical operation and effect. If the ordinance should be defective, either in whole or in any essential particular, it is desirable to have this fact determined by the court, and to obtain from the court as clear an indication as possible as to how any such defect can be remedied. I assume that your Committee will co-operate cordially in devising and carrying into effect the necessary measures to remedy any such defect. I assume, in other words, that the members of the City Council will accept in good faith the verdict of the people at the last election, and will do all in their power to carry out the will of the people as then expressed.

Fortunately, the decision of the Supreme Court in the ninety-nine-year litigation has thoroughly cleared the ground for municipal ownership. The Supreme Court has held, in effect, that the rights of the existing companies in the streets of Chicago are of three kinds:

A. The right to maintain and operate certain lines until the City shall acquire the same by purchasing the tangible property at its appraised value.

The City now has the established legal right to purchase these lines at any time.

B. The right to operate certain lines, chiefly in the outlying portions of the city, under definite term grants, which expire at different periods during the next few years. Most of these grants terminate within a very short time. They can all be acquired earlier by condemnation proceedings, if necessary or expedient.

C. The right to operate the remainder of the system at the sufferance of the City, subject to its orders to cease operation at any time and without any obligation whatever on the part of the City to purchase the tangible property. The court has not determined what right, if any, the companies have to remove the physical property constituting the last mentioned lines and which is permanently attached to the streets in which it is located.

The situation created by this decision of the Supreme Court is as favorable to the City as could well be expected. Outside of the few term grants, the most favorable right which the present companies now can claim is the right to operate certain of their lines until the City is able to purchase the physical property. It is absolutely essential that nothing shall be done to enlarge these present rights of the existing companies, or to deprive the City of its option of purchase at any time. This must be conceded by those who favor and those who oppose Municipal Ownership.

I believe in the public ownership and operation of all public utilities; and have no confidence in the theory of public regulation; but even those who disagree with me must concede that public regulation can be efficient only, if at all, when coupled with the right of the public to terminate the privilege at any time upon fair terms and reasonable notice. The so-called Massachusetts system of the Charles Francis Adams report, which was once so strenuously urged as a substitute for public ownership, was based upon this theory. This is now the settled policy of the Federal Government where it is the franchise-granting power, as in the City of Washington, Porto Rico and the Philippines. It has been upon this theory that in our own City Council even avowed opponents of immediate municipalization have agreed upon the necessity and entire propriety of inserting in any grant to a private company the reserved right of the City to take over the property if and when it may become desirable to exercise the option. The postponement of this right for a definite period in the various street railway ordinances prepared during recent years by the advocates of franchise extension has been defended only as a concession to the supposed necessity of compromising the ninety-nine-year claims. These claims will no doubt speedily be beyond the necessity for compromise. The City should therefore be given the right of purchase at any time, as a matter of correct theory, even if it did not possess this right by the decision of the Supreme Court. It does possess the right without being given it by any further act of the companies. This right should be jealously preserved until municipal ownership has been actually obtained. I may hereafter make some suggestions as to municipal operation, for which a substantial majority of the people voted at the last election, but which on the face of the returns did not receive the necessary sixty per cent.

Second, as to the Prompt and Thorough Improvement of the Street Railway Service: The important question in this connection is whether the existing street railway service can be thoroughly and promptly improved without impairing the present rights of the City, as defined by the Supreme Court. I think this can be done. The controlling consideration must be that nothing shall be done which will impair the right of the City to acquire the street railway system as soon as it has established its financial ability to do so.

The first practical step to be taken, then, appears to me to be to request the existing companies at once to indicate to your Committee whether or not they are able and willing to enter into an agreement to sell to the City all their tangible property and unexpired rights at a price to be now fixed, and to undertake the improvement of their service immediately, upon the refusal of their application for a re-hearing in the United States Supreme Court, the City to have the right to take over this property at any time, upon reasonable notice. If they will join, if possible as one company, in the reconstruction of their entire system upon plans to be adopted by the City, with their concurrence, which shall provide for unified service, through routes, universal transfers and operation under revocable license, then they should be adequately assured of the payment of the value of their present property (to be now fixed, before rehabilitation) and additional investment when the City does take over the lines, and they should receive a fair return upon this present and future investment and some share of the remaining net profits while they continue to operate. Subject to these provisions, the profits of operation should go to the City as a sinking fund for the purchase of the property. The details of any such arrangement can all be worked out in conference, if the companies promptly indicate their acceptance of the fundamental principles involved. These conferences can and should proceed without waiting for the disposition of the re-hearing application, so that action may be taken at once when it has been decided. The time has come for action; and if the present companies are either unable or unwilling to act within the lines indicated in the immediate future, the City should and must definitely turn to other sources for relief from conditions which are no longer to be endured.

In this later event, I suggest that arrangements be made at once with a construction company, along the general lines of the "contract plan," or otherwise, providing that such company shall at once, upon the denial of the application for re-hearing, proceed to take possession of the streets and parts of streets now occupied by the present companies, to which the City will then be entitled, and construct and equip in them the best possible street railway system upon agreed terms which shall include a fair construction profit. This arrangement need not take the form of a contract but of a license to operate such a system, under proper limitations, until the City shall pay the agreed price, the profits of operation to be applied first, to a fair interest return upon this price, and second, to the reduction of the principal amount. The City will be able to turn over to such a company the greater portion of the North Division and of the Chicago Passenger system and many other valuable streets. These can be taken possession of in such order as may be most desirable. On North Clark street, for example, much of the work of installing an electrical equipment could proceed without interference with the present cable until the equipment is completed. As the term grants in the various parts of the city expire, they could be turned into the new system. If the right of the City to purchase the remaining lines upon appraisal of the physical property, under the Supreme Court decision and as provided in the original ordinances of 1858 and 1859, can be exercised with funds which may be furnished by this company or otherwise, we need not wait for the judicial construction of the Mueller law and the $75,000,000 ordinance to have the proposed company acquire possession and commence the reconstruction of the entire system throughout the city. The proposed construction company can be given such financial terms as may supply the necessary inducement for the capital required. It may be feasible to provide that much, if not all, of the investment can be permitted to run for a definite period as a lien upon the property, the City having the right to take over and continue to own, subject to this lien. At all events the City can be given the right to acquire municipal ownership just as soon as it can obtain the necessary funds.

Municipal ownership cannot be acquired until we do this. There may be delay, but the final result will inevitably be the adoption of municipalization. I have no doubt whatever that when or before municipal ownership has been actually reached, municipal operation will receive the necessary majority of votes to comply with the statutory requirement. Meanwhile, under the plan suggested, the amount which the City will be required to pay will be continually reduced out of the profits of operation, and municipal purchase will be made that much easier of early realization.

Nor is the City dependent upon this method of securing prompt improvement of service. The present right of the companies is to operate in certain streets until the City elects to purchase. This right of operation, in the aspect most favorable to the companies, is subject to the police power, and the City has the undoubted right to compel any reasonable improvement which it may prescribe in the service. Any investment which the companies may make to improve their equipment will add to the value of their physical property, and this added value will be paid by the City when it seeks to take over the lines. Of course, the existing companies may attempt to resist any requirement which the City may make for the improvement of their service, and may force the matter into the courts; but such action can only delay for a little the inevitable result and provoke retaliatory measures, which will be to the serious disadvantage of the companies. I believe that the companies should be fairly treated in these matters so long as they themselves act with fairness toward the City. I have no desire whatever to confiscate one dollar of their property, even if I could do so. They should be given all that they are legitimately entitled to receive, under the decision of the Supreme Court. It must be obvious to them, however, that any attempt upon their part to obtain more than this, by dilatory tactics or obstruction, can only result to their serious disadvantage.

Broadly speaking, the City is under no legal obligation to purchase any of their tangible property in the North Division of the city or in the Chicago Passenger Railway system, or in many other lines. If the companies insist upon war, they must expect treatment upon a war basis. If this means the relegation of much of their property to the scrap-heap, the responsibility will rest exclusively upon them. It has a certain value to the City of Chicago, to be used as part of a reconstructed system. That value the City should be willing to pay, providing the companies will immediately recognize the real situation in which they are placed by the decision of the Supreme Court, to which they themselves have appealed, and will agree to start at once upon the reconstruction of their entire system, so that the people of Chicago may have immediate improvement of service, while municipal ownership is being established. There would seem to be no serious difficulty in adequately protecting all of the money actually expended for this purpose, while preserving at the same time the right of the City to acquire the property at any time. If the companies are compelled to make this improvement under the police power, it is obvious that this will be subject to the City's right of purchase at any time. If the rehabilitation is to be accomplished by agreement with the companies, the City's right of purchase at any time should be equally protected.

If it should be urged that the investors might be unwilling to expend so large an amount of money as would be required for complete rehabilitation, under an arrangement by which the City would have the right to pay it back at any time on demand, with definitely fixed reasonable notice, it may be well to consider whether this objection can be met by permitting the new investment to be secured by a lien upon the property, running for a definite period, of sufficient length to satisfy the investor. Of course, in this event the investor would not expect and would not be entitled to receive as large a return upon his investment as if the City were given the right to return the investment at any time. The City should in such case have the right to purchase at any time, upon payment of the agreed value of the present property, subject to the lien of the new investment. The companies should have a license to operate, and not a franchise for any definite term. They cannot well object to this arrangement, because the present property is held by them precisely upon this tenure. In other words, the companies hold their present property subject to the right of the City to take it over at any time. They can invest the new money upon the same terms, or the new investment can perhaps be made a lien upon the property, running for a definite period, which, of course, should have such provisions as to sinking fund and earlier payment as are consistent with approved methods of modern finance. The important thing is to make sure that this arrangement shall not impair the right of the City to proceed under the Mueller law.

As between these various methods of obtaining improved service, there are certain obvious advantages, both to the City and to the companies, in favor of proceeding by amicable agreement with the present companies, always preserving the right of municipalization. The City could probably secure in this way a more immediately complete reconstruction of the system and a greater immediate improvement of service. The price which the City would have to pay for the present property and future improvements would be definitely fixed at the present time, so that it would be known exactly how much money it is necessary to raise for municipal purchase. The work of reconstruction would proceed under plans and specifications prepared by the City and under efficient public audit and account. The City would avoid a further period of controversy and strife with the companies. It might obtain a larger percentage of the profits of operation than could be obtained by a system of car licenses or reduction of fares under the police power.

Upon the other hand, the companies would equally gain. They could immediately reconstruct and re-equip their system in a manner which would undoubtedly very greatly increase the gross receipts, through the improved service and added facilities furnished the public. Their securities would be placed upon a stable basis, and they would be assured that the City would pay them for the actual value of their physical property, instead of compelling them to remove much of it from the streets. That this last mentioned consideration has very substantial value will be seen when it is recalled that their entire system in the North Division and many other lines are subject to no such requirement, and that the Chicago Passenger Railway Company is, by many of its original ordinances, required to remove its rails and restore the road-bed, at the end of its twenty-year grant, which has now expired. In pursuing a policy of procrastination or obstruction, the companies might harass the City for a time, but in the end they must face a far greater loss than would be involved in such reasonable concessions as the City would now demand.

In a word, subject only to the disposition of the petition for a rehearing in the United States Supreme Court, the City of Chicago is now in position to secure first-class street railway service, while proceeding with all practicable speed to bring about that Municipal Ownership for which the citizens have voted. It remains only for the two great co-ordinate branches of the City Government to co-operate along practical lines, for the accomplishment of the result for which the people have so long contended.

Sincerely yours,

E. F. DUNNE.

AN ORDINANCE

AUTHORIZING THE CHICAGO CITY RAILWAY COMPANY TO CONSTRUCT, MAINTAIN AND OPERATE A SYSTEM OF STREET RAILWAYS IN STREETS AND PUBLIC WAYS OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, The Chicago City Railway Company, hereinafter called the Company, now maintains and operates a system of street railways in the streets and public ways in the south division of the City of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, The said City desires, for the proper accommodation of the public, to provide for the reconstruction, re-equipment and extension of the said street railway system now maintained and operated by the Company and for the unified operation of said street railway system together with the street railway system now maintained and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, and to be in a position as soon as practicable freely to deal with the subject of transportation in its streets as a whole, and to fix and determine the definite terms and conditions upon which the said City shall have the right to purchase and take over at any time the street railway system of the Company; now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

AUTHORITY.

SECTION 1. That in consideration of the acceptance by the Company of this ordinance, subject to all of the provisions, conditions, requirements and limitations hereof, consent, permission and authority are hereby granted to the Company, its lessees, successors and assigns, to construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate a system of street railways in, upon and along the streets and public ways or portions thereof, in the City of Chicago, set out in the schedule marked "Exhibit A" hereto attached and made a part hereof.

The said consent, permission and authority hereby granted to said Company, its lessees, successors and assigns, to construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate the said street railways in, upon and along 22d street from the east bank of the Chicago River to Wabash avenue, are granted subject to all of the rights, franchises and privileges of the Chicago General Railway Company upon said 22d street between the points mentioned, under and by virtue of a lease of said tracks from the Chicago City Railway Company to the Chicago General Railway Company dated July 5, 1897; but shall wholly cease and determine on the 8th day of February, A. D. 1912, and are subject at all times to all the provisions, conditions and limitations of this ordinance, including the right of the City or its licensee to purchase and acquire said tracks and all of the rights hereby granted, at the times and upon the terms hereinafter provided.

The said consent, permission and authority hereby granted to said Company, its lessees, successors and assigns, to construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate the said street railways in, upon and along Main street, from Archer avenue to 31st street, and Laurel street from 31st street to 39th street, are granted subject to all of the rights, franchises and privileges of the Chicago General Railway Company upon said Main and Laurel streets between the points mentioned, under and by virtue of a lease of said tracks from the Chicago City Railway Company to the Chicago General Railway Company, dated October 1, 1897, but shall wholly cease and determine on the 4th day of February, A. D. 1915, and are subject at all times to all the provisions, conditions and limitations of this ordinance, including the right of the City or its licensee to purchase and acquire said tracks and all of the rights hereby granted, at the times and upon the terms hereinafter provided.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the desire of the said City to provide for the unified operation of said street railways, an ordinance similar to this ordinance in general provisions and character, running to the Chicago Railways Company, as grantee, covering the system of street railways now maintained and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company in the north, west, and a portion of the south divisions of said City, has been presented for passage concurrently with this ordinance, and it is hereby expressly provided that, upon the passage and acceptance of said last mentioned ordinance, then in all cases where this ordinance and the said ordinance relating to the street railways now maintained and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company confer grants upon more than one company in the same part of any street, the rights granted to the respective companies in such part of any street shall be construed to be for a mutual and joint use of tracks, and the rights of each company therein shall be the same as though the said ordinances making such grants had been passed and had taken effect concurrently, without regard to the actual dates of their respective passage and acceptance. Whenever such tracks are to be used jointly, they shall be constructed, maintained and operated at the equal joint expense of the said companies.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Section 2. The Company shall proceed at once to reconstruct portions of its track and roadbed and put its entire street railway system, plant and equipment in first-class condition, in full compliance with the specifications and provisions for such work in this ordinance and in the Exhibit hereto attached, marked "Exhibit B" and made a part of this ordinance, with the same force and effect as though herein fully set forth, and to operate and maintain said system in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and of said "Exhibit B."

Such provisions of this ordinance as are in the nature of specifications shall be given at all times full force and effect, except in cases, if any, in which they conflict with express provisions of "Exhibit B," in which cases the latter shall prevail. The provisions of this ordinance and those of "Exhibit B," however, shall be construed together, and both, so far as practicable, be given full effect throughout the life of this grant.

EXTENSIONS.

Section 3. The said City shall have the right, subject to the limitations contained in this ordinance, at any time to require the Company to make extensions of and additions to the lines of street railway enumerated in said "Exhibit A." Such extensions and additions shall be made under the supervision of the Board of Supervising Engineers, as hereinafter in Section 7 provided, and the cost thereof shall be determined as provided in said section. The character and quality of such work shall comply with the specifications set forth in said "Exhibit B," so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

The Company shall promptly and within a reasonable time after the passage of this ordinance construct and equip the extensions of its street railway system provided for in Exhibit "A," and in Section 36 and shall operate same as a part of its system in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance, and at any time after three (3) years from the acceptance of this ordinance, the Company shall upon the order of the City Council of the City, construct and equip such additional extensions as may be required by the City and shall operate the same as a part of its system in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance, provided, that the Company shall not be obligated hereby to construct and operate any such additional extensions in any street or public way nearer any existing parallel street railway tracks of the Company than one-half mile, and that the Company shall not be obligated hereby to construct more than four miles of double track railway or eight miles of single track railway in any one calendar year during the term of this grant.

The Company shall, however, upon the order of the City Council of the City, construct, equip and operate such extensions of its street railway system in addition to those hereinabove provided for as may be required by the City Council subject to the conditions and limitations contained in Section 25 of this ordinance.

The Company shall not be authorized or obligated to construct any extension of its street railway system upon streets on which street railways are not located when this ordinance goes into effect until the City has granted to the Company whatever authority in addition to this ordinance may be necessary to comply with the frontage consent laws of the State of Illinois.

MOTIVE POWER.

Section 4. The motive power to be used in the operation of said street railways shall be electricity, applied by the overhead trolley system or otherwise, as more particularly set forth in said "Exhibit B"; provided that the said City (subject to the limitations contained in Section 25 hereof), at any time after three years from the date of the acceptance of this ordinance, may require by ordinance, that the Company shall operate under the provisions of this ordinance any of its street railways herein authorized by electric power transmitted through working conductors carried in conduits below the surface of the street and between and underneath the rails, otherwise known as the underground trolley system, and shall thereafter cease to operate the same by overhead trolley.

USE OF POLES, CONDUITS, ETC.

Section 5. The Company may use its trolley poles, feeder poles, trolley wires, feeder wires and the conduits authorized and provided for in said "Exhibit B," for all purposes solely connected with the operation of its street railways, such as power, light, heat and telephonic and other signals. For such purposes the Company may connect such conduits, poles and wires with its transmission and feeder wires, power plants, substations, car houses, repair shops or other property of the Company, and with any transmission, feeder or other wires of any other individual or corporation.

JOINT USE WITH THE CITY.

The said City shall have the right, without the payment of any compensation therefor, during the life of this grant, to use the poles of the Company to carry the signal, telephone, telegraph and electric light wires and lamps of the said City. The transmission wires of the said City for such purposes shall be placed on poles of the Company, on that side of each street or way (where poles are located on both sides thereof) designated by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, without cost or expense to the Company, but the Company shall repair and maintain its poles as one of the operating expenses of the said street railway system under this ordinance; provided, that the said City shall indemnify and save harmless the Company against and from all damages, judgments, costs or expenses which the Company may suffer by reason of any negligence of the said City in installing, maintaining or using its said wires and lamps upon said poles.

SUBWAYS.

SECTION 6. The Company hereby gives to said City and said City reserves the power by ordinance to require the Company to join with the Chicago Railways Company and with the said City in defraying the cost of the construction of a system of subways for the joint use of the said companies as down town terminals of their street railway systems, and for the use of said City and of its licensees, the legal title to said subways to be in said City, subject to the rights of the said companies under this ordinance, it being, however, an express condition of the Company being required to join in defraying the cost of such construction of such system of subways, that said subway system and the extensions thereof shall not be used for street railway purposes during the life of this grant except by the street railway systems of said companies; provided, that the companies shall not be required to contribute to the cost of said subway system any amount in excess of the pro rata cost of that part of said subway system which is to be devoted to the use of said companies or either of them and that the total amount which the said companies shall be required to contribute toward the construction of said system of subways shall not exceed the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000), exclusive of the cost of (1) reconstructing the present tunnels under the Chicago River, (2) or of converting said tunnels into a part of said system of subways. Two-fifths of that part of the cost of the said subways (exclusive of the tunnels under the Chicago River), payable by said companies shall be borne by the Company and three-fifths of the said cost shall be borne by said Chicago Railways Company; and provided, further, the Company shall not be obligated to join in defraying the cost of the construction of such subway system until (1) the said City shall authorize the construction of said subway system by an ordinance which shall prescribe the location, character and extent of said subway system and the plans and specifications therefor, which plans and specifications shall include provisions specifying the portions thereof to be devoted to the use of said companies, respectively, and to the use of the said City and its licensees, and regulating the manner of such uses, and specifying the share of the cost of such subway system to be borne by said companies and the extent of the user to which each said company shall be entitled in that part of said subway system devoted to street railway purposes, and until, (2) the Board of Supervising Engineers shall approve the location, character and extent of and the plans and specifications for such subway system. The limitation of five million dollars as above defined shall apply to the subway system above mentioned, but shall have no application to the extensions and additions herein next mentioned.

When said subway system shall have been fully completed (but not before the expiration of five years from and after the acceptance of this ordinance) the Company (subject to the limitations contained in Section 25 hereof) may be required by ordinance to join with the said Chicago Railways Company and with the said City in defraying the cost of the construction of extensions and additions to such subway system and the Company agrees that it will pay to the said City the pro rata cost of constructing that portion of such extensions which is to be devoted to the use of the Company and its proportionate part of the pro rata cost of constructing that portion of such extensions which is to be devoted to the joint use of the said companies; provided, however, the Company shall not be obligated to join in defraying the cost of the construction of such extensions and additions to said subway system until (1) the said City shall authorize the construction of said extensions and additions by an ordinance which shall prescribe the location, character and extent of said extensions and additions and the plans and specifications therefor, which plans and specifications shall include provisions specifying the portions to be devoted to the use of said companies and to the use of said City and its licensees, and regulating the manner of such uses and specifying the part of the total estimated cost of such extensions and additions to be borne by the said companies, respectively, and until (2) the location, character and extent of said extensions and additions and the plans and specifications therefor shall be approved by the said Board of Supervising Engineers.

The provisions of this ordinance under which the said Company obligates itself to contribute to the cost of constructing subways and extensions of subways and fixing the conditions under which the said Company is so obligated shall not have the effect or be construed to have the effect of depriving the said City of any right which the said City may have or acquire (otherwise than by virtue of this ordinance) to construct subways or extensions thereof, or to compel said Company to contribute to the cost of such subways or extensions, or to compel said Company to use the subways in whole or in part, in connection with its street railways or to fix the terms and conditions of such use. By the acceptance of this ordinance the Company admits that the City has the right and authority to construct subways and extensions of subways in the streets and parts of streets described in "Exhibit A" and in all other streets or parts of streets in which the Company is now or hereafter authorized to construct or operate street railways and the Company by such acceptance consents to the exercise of such right by the City; but the Company by the acceptance of this ordinance shall not be construed as admitting that the City now has any right otherwise than by virtue of this ordinance to compel said Company to contribute to the cost of any subway or extension thereof, or to compel said Company to use subways in whole or in part in connection with its street railways or to fix the terms and conditions of such use, or that it could acquire such right, and the exercise by the City of any such right shall not impair or in anywise affect the rights of the Company under the provisions of this ordinance in that part of any subway, or extensions thereof, to the cost of constructing which the Company shall have contributed.

Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to give the said City the power to require the Company in case of the construction of said subway system, or extensions and additions thereto, and the placing of its railway tracks therein, or in a part thereof, to cease the operation of its railway, during the life of this grant, upon the surface of any of the streets or parts of streets under which the said subway system, or said extensions and additions thereto, may be constructed, so long as or whenever the City shall permit the construction or operation of any street railways upon the surface of such streets or parts of streets, respectively.

It is expressly provided that in case the capacity of that portion devoted to street railway purposes, of any subways or extensions of subways, constructed under the provisions of this section of this ordinance, shall at any time be greater than necessarily and properly required for the use of the said company or companies which have contributed to the cost of said subways or extensions thereof in the operation of their street railways therein, the City may authorize or require any other Company operating elevated railways in said City to use said subways and extensions, or parts thereof, to the extent of such surplus capacity, but only to such extent, provided that such Company shall pay a reasonable rental for such use by it, which rental shall be apportioned between the parties who have contributed to the cost of constructing the portion of such subways or extensions so used by such other company in proportion to the extent of their respective contributions; and the portion of such rental so paid to the Chicago City Railway Company shall be considered and treated as part of its gross receipts, to be disposed of under the provisions of this ordinance as other gross receipts from the operation of the street railways of said Company are to be disposed of. The City shall have the right to use the said subways and extensions for any elevated railway belonging to said City to the same extent and upon the same terms that it may authorize or require their use by any elevated railway company.

CITY TO HAVE SUPERVISION OF REHABILITATION.

Section 7. All of the construction, re-construction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions to plant and property provided for or required by this ordinance or the Exhibits thereto, including underground trolleys, new lines, extensions, and other additions to plant and property (but not subways or extensions thereof), shall be done, performed and acquired by the Company under the direction and supervision of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the cost and expense thereof shall be borne and paid by the Company, but no contract, subcontract or payment therefor shall be made without the written approval of said Board.

The Company shall purchase materials and equipment, and employ engineers, superintendents, clerks, foremen and workmen and shall pay all expenses of every nature, including legal expenses necessary to the proper, complete and prompt performance of the above mentioned work, upon the lowest advantageous terms and subject to the approval of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and to the actual amount paid by the Company in and about carrying out each and all of the requirements of this Section, shall be added ten per cent. of such amount as a fair and proper allowance to the Company for conducting the said work and furnishing said equipment and five per cent. for its services in procuring funds therefor, including brokerage.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, make a report in writing, dated the first day of such month, to the City Comptroller of the amount of money actually expended during the previous month by the Company with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers in and about carrying out the requirements of this Section together with the percentages of such amount in the next preceding paragraph provided for, and all amounts contributed by the Company to the cost of the said subway system or extensions thereof together with five per cent. of the amounts so contributed; and the interest provided in Section 24 hereof as a deduction from gross receipts shall begin to run upon the total amount of each such certificate from and after the date thereof.

The total amount so certified by the said Board of Supervising Engineers (including the said additional percentages thereof as hereinabove provided) shall be final and binding upon both parties hereto and shall be conclusively held and taken as the cost of the said construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions to plant and property, including subways, underground trolleys, new lines, and other additions to plant and property, which shall be paid by the said City upon the taking over of the said street railway system as in this ordinance provided, except that said Board may at any time within sixty (60) days after the date of any such certificate correct any error or omission therein.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall have power to determine what work shall be treated as construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions, new lines, underground trolleys or additions to plant or property to be paid for by the Company out of the capital funds to be provided by it for that purpose, and what shall be treated as maintenance, repairs and renewals, to be paid for out of the gross receipts of the Company from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized. But any such determination of said Board shall be governed by the following provisions:

During the three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation" seventy (70) per cent. of the gross receipts shall be set apart and shall be used so far as required in defraying the operating expenses, including maintenance and repairs, and the residue of said seventy (70) per cent. shall be applied to the cost of renewals and no part of the cost of any renewal paid for out of such seventy (70) per cent. shall be charged to additional capital, and all expenditures for renewals during said three (3) years in excess of such residue of said seventy (70) per cent. shall be charged to capital account.

After such three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the cost of renewals shall be paid as provided in Section 16 hereof, but such expenditures (and only such expenditures) as are made for the purpose of extensions of or additions to property shall be thereafter considered as additions to capital, provided, however, that in the replacement of any principal part of the property, either existing or hereafter acquired, there shall be charged to capital the excess amount that the new property cost over the original cost of the property displaced, excepting that the value of property contained in the appraisal inventory of the property of the Company, referred to in Paragraph 1 of Section 20 hereof, shall be used instead of first cost for all property listed in such appraisal inventory.

REMOVAL OF TRACKS.

Section 8. The Company shall forthwith remove all tracks now owned or operated by it which it is not expressly authorized by this ordinance hereafter to maintain and operate. If it shall hereafter cease to operate over any of its tracks or any portion thereof, it shall remove such unused tracks upon the order of the City Council. Failure to operate cars for the carriage of passengers at least once each way within every hour of each day between the hours of six (6) A. M. and eight (8) P. M. over any part of a street or public place in which tracks of the Company are laid, shall be treated as a cessation of operation of its tracks in such part of street or public place within the meaning of this Section, unless such operation is interfered with by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes or litigation brought without connivance of the Company; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this Section shall not be construed to require or authorize the removal of curves or turn-outs or of connecting tracks specifically authorized by this ordinance or the exhibits hereto to be constructed and maintained for use during rush hours or for emergency use in case of fire or accident, or such tracks as may be necessary for a connection with the Company's property used for street railway purposes.

The City shall have the right by ordinance to require the Company to remove any tracks or portions thereof, the further maintenance of which is at any time no longer warranted by the traffic, or reasonably required in the operation of the said street railway system, provided that the Company shall not be required to remove such tracks but may maintain or reconstruct and operate the same during the life of this grant so long as or whenever the City shall permit the construction or operation of any street railways upon the streets or parts of streets respectively from which such tracks have been so required to be removed and in every case of removal of tracks as aforesaid, the Company shall restore the street or public way to the condition of the other portions thereof, all at its own cost, such cost to be treated as an operating expense.

If the Company shall fail within a reasonable time (not to exceed 30 days) to remove any such tracks on order of the Commissioner of Public Works, the said City may remove them, charging the expense thereof to the Company; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall relieve the Company from its obligations at all times to render adequate service on its street railways.

RIGHT TO SELL UNNECESSARY PROPERTY.

Section 9. The Company shall not hereafter sell any of the property belonging to it at the time of the passage of this ordinance (except that described in Exhibit "D") or thereafter acquired by it as an addition to or extension of, or for use in connection with its said street railways, except as the same may become unnecessary or unadapted to the proper operation and maintenance of said street railways under the terms of this ordinance, and before making any such sale the Company shall secure the written approval of such sale and of the amount and terms thereof by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and such written approval of said Board shall be conclusive of the right of the Company to transfer complete title to the purchaser, who shall not be obliged to look to the application of the proceeds of such sale.

In the event of any such sale made during the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the proceeds shall be deducted from the amount allowed to the Company for such reconstruction, and in the event of a sale after such "Immediate Rehabilitation" is completed, the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the depositary or depositaries selected under the provisions of Section 16 of this ordinance and shall constitute a part of and an addition to the reserve fund provided for in said section for Renewals and Depreciation.

SERVICE REGULATIONS.

Section 10. The Company hereby agrees to comply with all reasonable regulations of the service of the said street railway system which may be prescribed from time to time by the City Council of said City and that the approval of any such regulation by the Board of Supervising Engineers shall be binding upon the Company (but not upon the City) as to the reasonableness thereof.

STYLE OF CARS.

All passenger cars operated by the Company shall be used for the carriage of passengers only. All such cars hereafter built or purchased shall be of the best and most approved finish, style and design to be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers; they shall have center aisles; they shall be without running footboards along the sides, and shall be equipped with sufficient motor capacity. Cross-seats facing forward shall be used, but longitudinal seats, each seating not more than four passengers, may be used at the ends of the cars. All closed cars shall be vestibuled, and shall be of the style and description specified and provided in said "Exhibit B," and at least one hundred fifty (150) cars of such description shall be acquired by and placed in operation upon the tracks of the Company within one (1) year from the passage of this ordinance, exclusive of delays occasioned by strikes or other causes beyond the control of the Company.

PUSH BUTTONS.

All cars operated by the Company shall be supplied with a sufficient number of electric bells, connections and push buttons to enable passengers without inconvenience to notify the conductor of their desire to leave the car.

FENDERS.

BRAKES.

Each double-truck car shall be equipped with two sets of brakes, one of which shall be a hand-brake and the other an efficient power-brake of modern, improved type.

CLEANLINESS AND VENTILATION.

Said cars shall at all times be kept clean and in good repair, and shall be thoroughly ventilated.

HEATING.

The said cars shall be kept heated at the temperature of fifty (50) degrees Fahrenheit, as nearly as practicable, and each car shall contain a standard thermometer appropriately placed to enable passengers to see that this provision is complied with.

LIGHTING.

All cars shall be kept well and sufficiently illuminated by electric light or other illuminants approved by said Board of Supervising Engineers.

SIGNS.

Each car shall bear appropriate and conspicuous signs upon both its sides and ends so placed as to indicate, both day and night, the route and destination of such car. At night such signs shall be illuminated.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Company may permit advertisements in its cars, but no advertisement shall be placed upon the outside of any car, and only the space between the top of the windows and the transom of the car shall be used for advertisements on the inside of cars.

FUNERAL CARS AND MAIL CARS.

The Company is hereby authorized and permitted to operate funeral cars, and separate cars for the use of the United States Post Office Department, for the carriage of mail.

SINGLE CARS ONLY.

Every electric car shall be in charge and under the control of two competent men, a motorman and a conductor, and (after the expiration of one year from the date of the passage of this ordinance, or at such earlier time as the Company shall be able to acquire the necessary rolling stock to enable it to abandon trailers) shall be operated singly.

RATES OF FARE.

SECTION 11. The Company, except as to chartered cars to private parties and as in this ordinance provided, shall be entitled to charge passengers, during the term of this ordinance, the following rates of fare, to wit:

For a continuous trip in one general direction, within the limits of the City, over its street railways covered by this ordinance and all extensions thereof (whether owned, leased or operated by it) the sum of five cents (5c) for each passenger twelve years of age or over, and three cents (3c) for each passenger under twelve (12) years of age; provided that children under seven (7) years of age accompanied by a person paying fare shall be permitted to ride free.

UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS.

Every such passenger may demand and upon such demand shall receive from the conductor of the car upon which he first takes passage, or from some authorized agent of the Company, a transfer. Said transfer shall entitle such passenger to ride upon any other line of said street railway system owned, leased or operated by the Company or any other line of street railway operated by any other corporation from which the Company is by this ordinance obligated to accept transfers, which connects with, crosses, intersects or comes within a distance of two hundred (200) feet of the line of said street railway upon which the passenger first took passage and paid his fare. But this obligation shall not apply to any connecting point in the south division of the City of Chicago north of Twelfth street, except that upon the completion and operation of subways under the provisions of this ordinance, transfers shall be given at all points within said subways where lines of railway connect with each other.

The payment of a single fare shall not entitle a passenger to reverse his general direction of travel. If necessary to enable a passenger to reach his destination the conductor or other authorized agent of the Company shall issue without additional charge, a transfer upon a transfer, the same as required upon payment of a cash fare; the intention being that for a single fare the Company shall carry any passenger for a single continuous ride over any of the said lines of street railway owned, operated or leased by it, within the limits of the said City, so long as such ride is in the same general direction, although some of the lines necessary to be used by such passenger in arriving at his destination intersect or cross one another, or do not conform to such direction.

In every instance the transfer given to a passenger may designate the point or place of transfer, and the same must be used at such point or place, within a reasonable time, not exceeding fifteen (15) minutes after such point or place is reached by the car from which the passenger is transferred, provided that within said fifteen minutes a car shall pass such point or place of transfer in the direction and upon the route indicated by said transfer; but if no car shall pass such point within said time the passenger shall have the right to take the first available car passing such point in the direction indicated upon the passenger's transfer. A passenger upon any car delayed through the fault, negligence or inability of the Company shall be entitled to receive a transfer to a car upon the nearest line of the Company going in the same general direction as the delayed car.

The Company shall also on its cars accept and honor as fares, transfers issued to passengers upon any line of street railway covered or authorized by the said ordinance to the Chicago Railways Company, hereinabove referred to as presented for passage in the City Council of said City, concurrently with this ordinance, which connects with any of said lines of the Company, under the same conditions and with like effect as though both lines of street railway were owned by the Company and the transfers were issued under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance, but this obligation shall not apply to any connecting points north of Twelfth street and east of the south branch of the Chicago River and south of the main Chicago River, except that upon the completion and operation of subways under the provisions of this ordinance, transfers shall be given by and between said companies at all points within said subways where their lines of railway connect with each other.

The Company shall also accept and honor as fares transfers issued by the Chicago General Railway Company at all points where the railway lines of the Company connect with or intersect the lines of said Chicago General Railway Company, constructed and in operation at the time of the passage of this ordinance, with like effect as though both said lines of street railway were owned by the Company and the transfers were issued under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance; upon condition, however, that said Chicago General Railway Company shall accept and honor at such transfer points, as fares, transfers issued by the Company.

The said proposed arrangement contemplates that in every instance the street railway company accepting any such transfer shall give to the passenger presenting it the same accommodations and the same transfers, if requested, to its other line or lines, as such passenger would be entitled to receive if he had paid a cash fare.

The Company, acting by itself or in conjunction with the other companies to which the provisions of this Section apply, may, with the approval of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, adopt reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, for the transfer of passengers as provided for herein, and for the prevention of the fraudulent use of transfer privileges.

NO PASSES: EMPLOYES, POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN FREE.

Section 12. No passes of any kind or description shall be issued or given to any person, and no person, except employes of the Company, policemen and firemen, respectively, in full uniform, shall be permitted to ride upon any street railway without the payment of the full rate of fare prescribed in this ordinance; provided that the Company may issue to its employes free tickets for use while engaged in the performance of their duties, and may permit them to ride free when wearing an official badge of the Company conspicuously in view. The Company shall keep a record of the number of such free tickets and to whom issued.

MAIL CARRIERS.

In the event that the United States Post Office Department shall pay to the Company a sum of money based upon the system of sales of tickets in effect between the Post Office Department and the Company for the use of letter carriers during the year 1906, the said amount of money to be not less than Ten Thousand, One Hundred, Thirty-seven Dollars and Seventy-five Cents ($10,137.75) per annum, with proportionate increase in said amount for any increase in the number of letter carriers employed in the City of Chicago over the number of such carriers so employed in the year 1906, then the Company shall carry on its street railways United States letter carriers, in full uniform, at all times, without the payment of fare.

THROUGH ROUTES.

SECTION 13. The Company will co-operate with any corporation operating the street railway in Halsted street, from O'Neil street north, to operate a through line of cars in said street. Whenever the said City shall so direct and shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway north of the South Branch of the Chicago River in Western avenue a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company shall co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; also, whenever the said City shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway north of the South Branch of the Chicago River in Kedzie avenue a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company will co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; and, also, whenever the said City shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway in Ashland avenue north of the South Branch of the Chicago River a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company shall co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; and said corporations shall thereafter operate and maintain said through lines of cars in the said streets and avenues, respectively; and the Company agrees to obtain forthwith the right to operate its cars over the street railways on Kedzie avenue between Thirty-first street and Twenty-second street and on Ashland avenue between Archer avenue and Twenty-second street, from said Chicago General Railway Company, and to use that right in the establishment of through routes, as in this ordinance provided, so long as any rights of said Chicago General Railway Company in said streets shall continue. But nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as enlarging or extending any right of said Chicago General Railway Company in or over any of the streets of the City; provided, that the Company shall only be required to operate said through lines across or over any river or canal, when the said City or some third party shall provide and maintain a bridge across the same upon which it may operate its cars.

The Company will co-operate with any corporation or corporations operating such of the street railway lines now operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company as may be parts of the through routes in this ordinance or in "Exhibit C" referred to in establishing and maintaining through lines of cars over the street railway lines of the Company and the street railway lines of the Union Traction system entering the south division of the said City, north of Twelfth street, which shall carry passengers from the south division of the said City to the other two divisions of the said City, or in the reverse directions, through the portion of the south division of said City north of Twelfth street, for a single fare.

As many cars shall be operated upon said through lines as the traffic shall require and warrant.

The parties now concerned have agreed upon certain through routes which are particularly described in "Exhibit C," which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, with the same force and effect as if herein fully set out.

The Company may establish other through routes from time to time and may discontinue the same, if and when the traffic warrants such establishment or discontinuance; but no through route specifically established by this ordinance and said Exhibit "C" shall be discontinued without the consent of the City Council of said City, and the City may by ordinance at any time require the Company to re-establish any through route and to establish new and additional through routes whenever the traffic warrants or requires such establishment or re-establishment; provided, however, that if the Company shall consider that the traffic does not in fact warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of any through route so required by the City to be established or re-established, then in such case it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervising Engineers, upon demand either of the City or of the Company to furnish the certificate of said Board certifying as to whether or not, in the opinion of said Board, the traffic does warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of such through route, and such certificate of the Board of Supervising Engineers shall be prima facie evidence as to whether, in fact, the traffic does or does not warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of such through route; and the obligation of the Company in respect to such routes shall be governed by such certificate pending a judicial determination of its obligations in respect to the establishment or re-establishment of any such through route under this ordinance.

The through routes herein mentioned shall be established and put in operation immediately after the necessary reconstruction of the tracks covered by such routes.

To carry out the establishment of the through lines provided for in this section, the Company will enter into a reasonable operating agreement approved by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, with any other corporation or corporations concerned, whenever required by the said City. If the Company and the corporation or corporations operating the lines of street railway constituting said through routes, or any of them, shall be unable or fail to agree upon terms as between themselves for establishing, maintaining and operating all of said through routes within sixty (60) days after the passage of this ordinance, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervising Engineers to fix and determine the basis and terms, as between said Company and said corporation or corporations, upon which said through routes shall be established, maintained and operated and to notify each of the companies operating the lines of street railway constituting said through routes of said basis and terms, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Company to proceed forthwith to establish, maintain and operate said through routes upon the basis and terms so fixed and determined by said Board of Supervising Engineers. Said companies may by agreement (with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers) modify such basis and terms or they failing to agree, the Board of Supervising Engineers may from time to time modify said basis and terms as to said Board shall seem fit and just.

Passengers upon the through cars operated upon any through routes, while traveling over the tracks of each company shall be entitled to the same facilities as to transfers as such companies shall be required to give to their own passengers paying cash fares.

STREET SPRINKLING AND CLEANING.

SECTION 14. The Company shall sprinkle, sweep, keep clean and free from snow that portion of each of the streets occupied by its right-of-way, as provided in "Exhibit B," and if it shall be found practicable to have the streets occupied by its tracks swept and sprinkled their entire width by the Company, or to have street sweepings, garbage or other refuse removed by means of street cars at night, the Company shall perform said service, or so much thereof as shall prove practicable, when so ordered by the Mayor and Commissioner of Public Works, and it shall receive for such service reasonable compensation. In case the Company is called upon to remove street sweepings or other refuse, the said City shall furnish suitable and convenient dumping grounds and permit the construction of the Company's tracks therewith. The Company shall have the right to carry on suitable cars the snow required by this ordinance to be removed by it, and also, materials for its own use or for the use of the said City, and to connect its tracks and wires with property necessary to be used for such purposes.

STREET PAVING.

GROOVED RAILS.

MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS, RENEWALS AND DEPRECIATION.

SECTION 16. After the expiration of the three (3) year period of reconstruction and re-equipment, particularly required by the terms of said "Exhibit B," under the heading of "Immediate Rehabilitation" and until the rights conferred upon the Company by this ordinance are terminated by the purchase of the said street railway system by the said City or its licensee or by reason of the default of the Company or otherwise, the Company at all times shall maintain the said street railway system and its entire equipment, plant and appurtenances (including pavement and any subways or extensions thereof, together with their appurtenances and equipment, which may be built under the provisions of this ordinance) in first class condition, by making from time to time such expenditures thereon for maintenance, repairs and renewals, as may be necessary or appropriate to give to the public first class street railway service in all respects. To this end, the Company shall make the following expenditures:

(1) The Company shall expend for maintenance and repairs during each and every year that the Company continues to operate said street railway system after the expiration of the said three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," at least a sum equal to six (6) per cent. of the gross receipts for the particular year, and if the said amount is not so expended for the said purpose by the Company during any one year, then at the end of such year the unexpended portion thereof shall be deposited in a fund, appropriately designated, with one or more of the banks or trust companies authorized to act as depositaries of such funds, under the terms and subject to the conditions of this ordinance (herein referred to as the depositary) for the purpose of being used whenever necessary for such maintenance and repairs.

The said depositaries or depositary shall make payment out of said fund upon the order of the Company, countersigned by the said Board of Supervising Engineers.

(2) On or before the fifth (5th) day of each and every month of each and every year that the Company continues to operate said street railway system after the expiration of said three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the Company shall deposit with one or more of the said depositaries in a separate fund, appropriately designated, a sum equal to eight (8) per cent. of the gross receipts of said street railways and property, which shall constitute a reserve fund, for taking care of renewals and depreciation of said street railways and property for the preceding month; and out of the said fund the Board of Supervising Engineers shall from time to time authorize the payment by the Company of such amounts as are necessary to pay for renewals of the said street railways and property, the portion of said fund remaining unexpended to continue in said fund as a provision for the depreciation of said street railways and property; and shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided. No payments shall be made by said Company out of said fund except on the written certificate of the Board of Supervising Engineers for renewals, which are hereby defined to be the replacement of any principal part of said street railways or of their equipment or appurtenances; and the Board of Supervising Engineers shall determine by classifications made from time to time what particular items of expenditure shall be considered as renewals and what particular items of expenditure shall be considered as maintenance and repairs under the provisions of this ordinance.

The whole or any portion of such reserve fund for maintenance and repairs may be used for maintenance and repairs in addition to the annual expenditure for maintenance and repairs. The fixing of the said amount herein as the minimum amount to be expended annually for maintenance and repairs, and the fixing of the said amount herein as the minimum amount to be deposited for renewals and depreciation, shall not be held or considered as lessening or limiting in any way the obligation of the Company to expend whatever sum or sums may be necessary to be expended for maintenance and repairs and to expend whatever sum or sums may be necessary for renewals, to keep the said street railway system and equipment in first class condition in every respect and at all times.

The amounts expended or deposited respectively as reserve funds, under the foregoing provisions of this section, shall be considered a part of the Operating Expenses of the street railway system hereby authorized, but in the event that the said street railway system shall be purchased by the said City or its licensee at any time under the provisions of this ordinance, the amount then on deposit in each of said reserve funds, or due to be deposited therein at the time of such purchase, shall be turned over to and become the property of the said City or of its said licensee.

The obligation herein assumed by the Company as to the maintenance, repairs and renewals of subways and extensions thereof, shall be held to be confined to that portion of any such subways or extensions, together with the structures and the appurtenances and equipment thereof, which may be used by or be subject to the use of, the said Company under the provisions of this ordinance, and to its fair proportionate share of the cost of maintenance, repairs and renewals of that part of any such subway or extensions or the appurtenances or equipment thereof, which may be used by or be subject to the use of the Company jointly with the said City or its licensees or with the said Chicago Railways Company, such proportionate amount to be fixed and determined by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

INSURANCE.

SECTION 17. The Company shall at all times keep insured to its full insurable value, in responsible companies, all buildings, cars and other insurable property against loss by fire, and the premiums for such insurance shall be paid out of the receipts of said Company, as one of the operating expenses thereof, and in case of the destruction or damage by fire of any such property, the Company shall restore the same or its substantial equivalent at its own cost and not out of the receipts of its said street railways, or in lieu of such restoration, the Company shall deposit, as a part of the reserve fund required by the preceding Section 16, the value of the property so destroyed or damaged, which value shall be estimated by the Board of Supervising Engineers. The Company shall apply to any such deposit or to the cost of any such restoration the insurance moneys received on account of any such loss or damage. If such moneys are not equal in amount to the cost of such restoration or to the amount of the said deposit hereinabove required, the Company will at its own cost and not out of the receipts of said street railway system supply any deficit, and if the amount of such insurance moneys is greater than the said cost or deposit, the overplus shall be deposited with and become a part of and be an addition to the fund provided for in the preceding Section 16 for renewals and depreciation.

PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS.

SECTION 18. Out of the gross receipts derived from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized the Company shall pay as a part of the operating expenses, all damages arising or growing out of injuries to persons or to the property of others incident to the construction, reconstruction or operation of said street railway system accruing subsequent to January 31st, A. D. 1907, and the Company may set aside as a separate fund such percentage of said gross receipts as the said Board of Supervising Engineers shall estimate to be sufficient to protect the Company against all such claims, to the end that if the said City, or its licensee, shall elect to purchase the street railway property of the Company as provided by this ordinance, there shall be then available to the Company a fund sufficient to meet and discharge all legitimate claims for such damages. The percentage thus reserved may be changed from time to time by said Board of Supervising Engineers if and whenever they shall consider that the percentage theretofore reserved is either inadequate or excessive.

In case the balance of said fund at any time remaining shall be, in the judgment of the Board of Supervising Engineers, more than sufficient to protect the Company against all then unsettled claims, the Company shall pay to the said City fifty-five (55) per cent. of the estimated excess, and the Company at the same time shall be entitled to apply to its own use and benefit forty-five (45) per cent. of such estimated excess.

If the said City or its licensee shall purchase the property of the Company as in this ordinance provided, the Company shall deposit with one or more of the depositaries herein authorized the fund then accumulated under the provisions of this Section, together with all of the "net receipts" of the Company from the operation of its street railways as shall not have been divided between the Company and the City prior to the giving of the notice by the City or its licensee of its intention to purchase, and the Company shall assume and pay and save the said City or such licensee harmless from all such claims for damages, payment for the same to be made out of the fund so deposited, upon the order of the Company countersigned by the said Board of Supervising Engineers; but if the fund so retained and deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay and discharge said claims in full, then the said depositary or depositaries shall pay to the said City (or its licensee, as the case may be) fifty-five (55) per cent. of such excess and to the Company forty-five (45) per cent. of such excess.

The salaries and expenses of the Board of Supervising Engineers after any such purchase and so long as said Board shall continue to act under the provisions of this ordinance shall be paid out of the fund deposited under the provisions of this section.

REGULATION OF SALARIES.

SECTION 19. The Company may pay to the directors, officers, agents and attorneys of the Company as a part of the operating expenses, compensation for their services commensurate with the service actually rendered by them respectively, taking into consideration the compensation paid to directors, officers, agents and attorneys of other corporations or enterprises of similar magnitude and general character for like services, but the said City by written notice thereof may object to the payment thereafter of compensation in excess of an amount or rate specified in such objection to any such director, officer, agent or attorney, and in the event of a disagreement between the Company and the said City as to the proper amount to be paid as such compensation, the matter shall be submitted to the judgment of the said Board of Supervising Engineers whose decision shall be final and binding upon the parties, except that, if either party shall be dissatisfied with such decision of said Board, then such dissatisfied party may make application to any court of competent jurisdiction to pass upon such objection and to determine the amount of the compensation or salary to be paid.

RIGHT OF CITY TO PURCHASE AT ANY TIME.

SECTION 20. The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance, shall and does grant to the said City, and the said City hereby reserves to itself the right, upon the first day of February or upon the first day of August of each and any year after such acceptance upon giving at least six (6) months' previous notice in writing of its intention so to do, to purchase and take over (but only for municipal operation in case of purchase prior to February first, A. D. 1927), the entire street railway system of the Company within the said City, including all property then existing which now constitutes the said street railway system of the Company (except such as is enumerated in "Exhibit D" hereto attached), with all renewals and repairs thereof, and including all the property, franchises, rights and claims described in the appraisal inventory of said Street Railway System as of June 30th, 1906, made by Bion J. Arnold, Mortimer E. Cooley and A. B. du Pont, a copy of which has been filed with the Comptroller of the said City on the ..... day of ..... A. D. 1907, except such as may have been sold or extinguished as authorized by this ordinance, destroyed or impaired (ordinary wear excepted), and all property then existing which has been purchased or acquired by the Company after June 30th, 1906, for use as a part of or in connection with the said system of street railways, the cost of which shall have been certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, as in this section and in Section 7 hereof provided, and all property purchased or acquired by the Company after the passage of this ordinance, and also all extensions of and additions (including underground trolleys, if any) to said street railways made under the provisions of this ordinance, and all rights of every kind under this ordinance in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under the provisions of this ordinance.

PRICE TO BE PAID BY CITY.

In case the said City shall purchase and take over the street railway system of the Company, as in this ordinance provided, then it shall pay for the same the aggregate of the following items:

1. The value of the property described in the said appraisal inventory and the value of all the franchises, rights and claims of every description, to construct, maintain or operate street railways in the said City now belonging to the Company, or claimed by it, which said value of such property and all of said franchises, rights and claims is hereby fixed (for the purpose of such purchase) at the sum of Twenty-one Million Dollars ($21,000,000).

2. The value of any and all property and equipment and additions thereto supplied, purchased or acquired by said Company as a part of its street railway system, between the 30th day of June, A. D., 1906, and February 1st, A. D., 1907, including any equipment and additions thereto which were in process on June 30th, 1906, of being so supplied, purchased or acquired, but excluding any property described in the aforesaid inventory, and repairs to and maintenance thereof and any expenditures in connection therewith properly chargeable to operating expenses. From such value shall be deducted the value of any property included in said inventory which shall have been lost, destroyed or impaired (ordinary wear excepted) after the 30th day of June, A. D., 1906, and prior to the 1st day of February, A. D., 1907. The value to be allowed under this paragraph Number 2 of this section shall be determined by the Board of Supervising Engineers immediately after the assumption by said Board of their duties in supervising the work of reconstruction and re-equipment in this ordinance provided for, and shall be reported by said Board to the City Comptroller of said City; and the amount so reported by said Board shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be conclusively held and taken as the value of the property and equipment in this paragraph specified.

3. The cost of reconstruction and re-equipment of said street railway lines of the Company and of the construction of new lines, extensions, underground trolleys and other additions to property actually paid by said Company at and prior to said purchase by said City and certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, or incurred for work actually done or materials furnished with the approval of said Board under completed or pending contracts, except those for which special provision is made in subdivision 4 of this section, together with the percentages thereon as in Section 7 hereof provided, and all amounts which shall then have been contributed by the Company to the City for the construction of subways or extensions thereof, together with five (5) per cent. of said last named amounts as hereinbefore provided.

4. After the giving of the notice of the election of the said City to purchase said street railway system of the Company, as herein provided, and prior to the date fixed for said purchase, the said Board of Supervising Engineers shall make a written estimate (and furnish a copy thereof to the said Company and the said City) of the probable cost of completing any work of construction or equipment provided for by this ordinance, including the construction of new lines, extensions, underground trolleys, or other additions to property and including any extensions of the street railway system of said Company made under the provisions of Section 36 hereof, which work has, and to the extent to which it has, prior to the date of giving said notice, been contracted for by said Company, with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the said City shall either take over and assume said contracts and procure the release of the Company from all obligation thereunder, or the said City shall, at or prior to the date of the said purchase of the street railway system of said Company, deposit with a depositary or depositaries (authorized to act as such by this ordinance) a sufficient amount of money to pay the cost of completing such contracts according to the said estimate of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the said Company shall proceed, with all due diligence and care, to complete said contracts at its own expense and under the supervision of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the cost of completing the said contracts after the date of such purchase by the City, together with the said additional percentages thereof, shall be paid from time to time by the said depositary or depositaries out of the funds so deposited, upon the written certificates of the said Board of Supervising Engineers. In the event that the said amount so deposited shall not be sufficient to pay the said cost, including said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof, the said City shall pay such additional amount as may be necessary for such purpose, and in the event that the amount so deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay the said cost, the unexpended balance shall be returned and paid over to the City by the said depositary or depositaries holding the same, and in no event shall the Company be obligated to incur a greater expense in carying out said contract than the amount so deposited.

PAYMENT OR DEPOSIT OF PURCHASE PRICE.

Upon the deposit of the sum, if any, required by the above and foregoing paragraph numbered 4 of this section and the payment in cash of the amounts hereinbefore in paragraphs numbered 1, 2 and 3 of this section provided for, to the Company, or the deposit of said amounts to the order of the Company with one or more of the depositaries authorized to act as such by this ordinance the said City shall have full right and lawful authority, after the notice and upon any of the dates hereinbefore fixed, to take over and possess, as its own property, all the property, plant and equipment of every sort and nature (including underground trolleys), then constituting the street railway system of the Company, and all rights of every kind under this ordinance in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under the provisions of this ordinance, free and clear of all liens and claims of every nature, except that the said City shall take subject to the payment of a fractional part of the unpaid taxes for the current year upon the said property, rights and equipment, equal to the fractional part of the year for which such taxes have been levied or assessed remaining unexpired at the date of such purchase, and the balance of the taxes shall be treated and paid as a part of the operating expenses prior to the sale of the property.

The Company further grants to the said City, and the said City hereby reserves to itself, the right (in addition to the right of purchase hereinbefore granted and reserved) to purchase and take over from the Company at any time prior to February first, 1927, the street railway system, rights and property of the Company, free from any limitation and restriction as to the operation thereof, at the same times and in the same manner at and upon which the City has the right under the foregoing provisions of this section to purchase the same. The price to be paid therefor by the City under the right of purchase in this paragraph granted and reserved shall be the price at which the City shall then have the right to purchase said property for municipal operation as hereinbefore specified, and in addition to such price a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. of such price.

The property to the possession of which the said City shall then be entitled shall include all of the property then existing which constitutes the street railway system of the Company and its appurtenances at the date of the passage of this ordinance (excepting property enumerated in said "Exhibit D") and all of the property purchased or acquired thereafter by the Company, and all extensions of, or additions to, said street railways, including underground trolleys constructed under the provisions of this ordinance, and all rights of the said Company in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under this ordinance, and the sum then on deposit as a reserve fund, under the provisions of Section 16 of this ordinance, excepting such property as may have been sold as in this ordinance authorized, or worn out or destroyed, provided that in case of property destroyed and not then replaced in kind or in value as provided in Section 17 of this ordinance, adjustment shall forthwith be made at the time of such purchase and the obligation of the Company in that behalf discharged either in cash or by deduction from the purchase price.

In the event that it shall be determined that the City is, at the time this ordinance is passed or at the time this ordinance takes effect, without lawful power or authority to acquire or own street railways under the provisions of this ordinance or otherwise, and the City shall thereafter acquire such power or authority, thereupon and after such acquirement the City shall have the right to purchase and acquire said street railways, rights and property under the provisions of this ordinance to the same extent and in the same measure as if said City had full right and lawful authority so to purchase or acquire said street railways, rights and property at the date of the passage of this ordinance and at the date when this ordinance takes effect.

CITY PURCHASE DURING RECONSTRUCTION PERIOD.

SECTION 21. In the event that the said City shall elect to exercise its right of purchase, as in this ordinance provided, at any time prior to the completion of the work of construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment within the time and in the manner provided for in said "Exhibit B," under the head of "Immediate Rehabilitation" it shall take over the same subject to the right and obligation of the Company to complete the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" as provided in this ordinance, carrying out the terms and conditions of said "Exhibit B" under the supervision and control of the said Board of Supervising Engineers and receiving therefor the cost thereof and the additional percentages thereon as in Section 7 of this ordinance provided.

In such event in addition to complying with the provisions of Section 20 hereof the said City shall deposit at the time of such purchase with some one or more of the banks or trust companies authorized to act as depositaries under the terms of this ordinance a sufficient amount of money to pay for the completion of the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation," not herein otherwise provided for, which said amount shall be estimated and determined by the said Board of Supervising Engiesner, and shall include said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof.

The said cost of completing the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation," together with said additional percentages thereof shall be paid from time to time by the said depositary or depositaries, out of the funds so deposited with it or them, upon the written certificates of the said Board of Supervising Engineers.

In the event that the said amount so deposited shall not be sufficient to pay the said cost, including said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof, the said City shall pay such additional amount as may be necessary for such purpose.

In the event that the amount so deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay the said cost, the unexpended balance shall be returned and paid over to the said City by the said depositary or depositaries, and in no event shall the Company be obligated to incur a greater expense for the work of such construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment, including underground trolleys and other additions to plant and property, if any, than the amount so deposited.

RIGHT OF LICENSEE TO PURCHASE.

SECTION 22. The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance shall and does grant to the City, and the City hereby reserves to itself, the right to designate any person, firm or corporation having lawful authority to acquire, own and operate street railways in said City (herein called the "licensee") who or which shall have the right to purchase the street railway system, rights and property of the Company, at the same times and in the same manner at and upon which the City hereunder has the right to purchase the same, subject to the condition that the said licensee shall purchase the same property which the City has herein reserved the right to purchase, and that the price to be paid therefor by the said licensee shall be the price at which the City shall have the right to purchase said property for municipal operation, and in addition to such price a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. of such price; but it is expressly provided, however, that the said licensee shall not be required to pay the said additional twenty (20) per cent. or any part thereof, if, before the purchase of said property by such licensee shall be consummated, a valid and binding contract shall be entered into between the City and its licensee, either by the passage of an ordinance and the acceptance thereof or otherwise, which shall limit the beneficial interest of the said licensee (and its stockholders, if such licensee is a corporation) in the property purchased and any improvements thereof or additions thereto to a return of the actual moneys invested therein by said licensee and not exceeding five (5) per cent. thereof, in addition thereto, and interest upon the said moneys and the said additional per cent. at a rate not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum, and which shall provide that all net profits derived from the said property in excess of the beneficial interest of said licensee, limited as aforesaid, shall belong and be paid over to the City.

Nothing in this ordinance, however, shall have the effect or be construed to have the effect of lessening or limiting the right of the City to provide for reducing the rates of fare to be charged by such licensee in the operation of said street railway system or from using the moneys so to be paid over to the said City by said licensee for the purpose of retiring from time to time the stock or other securities issued by said licensee, subject to the limitations of this Section, or from using the said moneys in extending or adding to or improving said street railway system.

The right of the licensee of the City to acquire the said street railway system rights and property by purchase under the provisions of this ordinance shall in no way be impaired by any lack of power or authority on the part of the City itself to acquire the said street railway system, rights and property for municipal use and operation or otherwise.

Upon the purchase of the said street railway system, rights and property under the provisions of this ordinance, either by the City or by any licensee of the City, all rights, of the Company, its licensees or assigns under this ordinance in or to said street railways, rights and property or any part thereof, or the operation thereof, or receipts thereof, shall wholly cease and determine.

RIGHTS OF COMPANY IN CASE CITY DOES NOT PURCHASE FOR TWENTY YEARS.

SECTION 23. In the event that the said street railways are not purchased by the said City or its licensee as hereinabove authorized, prior to February first, A. D., 1927 (and nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as being in any event a grant to the Company extending beyond February first, 1927), the said City shall have the right to designate any person, firm or corporation having lawful authority to acquire, own and operate street railways in said City as its licensee, to purchase the said street railways, property and rights of the Company at or after February first, 1927, upon the same terms that the City could then purchase, and in case such reserved right of purchase be not exercised by the said City or its licensee and the City shall grant a right to another company to operate a street railway in the streets and parts of streets constituting the said street railway system of the Company, such new company shall be required to and shall purchase and take over the said street railways, property and rights of the Company at or after February first, 1927, upon the same terms upon which the said City might then purchase and take them over.

No mortgage, trust deed or other instrument given by the Company shall impose any lien upon or create any rights in the said street railways, property and rights, without the same being made specifically subject to all the limitations, conditions and provisions of this ordinance, including the right of the said City or its licensee to acquire the said property and rights upon the terms and in the manner in this ordinance provided, and in the event of such purchase the lien of any such mortgage, trust deed or other encumbrance, and all other liens upon said street railways, property and rights, or any part thereof, shall be discharged from said street railways, property and rights and shall attach to the proceeds of the sale thereof.

INTEREST RETURN ON CAPITAL INVESTMENT.

SECTION 24. On or before the tenth day of April in each year the Company shall come to an accounting and settlement with the said City as of the thirty-first day of January last preceding, upon the following basis:

From the gross receipts of the said street railway system and property from all sources and of every kind for the year ending on said thirty-first day of January there shall be deducted for such year:

First: (1) All expenses of operation, including maintenance, repairs and renewals; (2) All amounts contributed during said year and then held in reserve under the provisions of Sections 16 and 18 hereof; (3) All amounts paid out for taxes and assessments levied and imposed upon the real and personal property of the Company, including all capital stock or franchise taxes levied or assessed after the 31st day of January, 1907, but not including any taxes which may by any court be ordered to be levied, assessed or collected after the 31st day of January, 1907, on account of the failure of the Company or any person, firm or corporation owning or having an interest in the said street railways or property, to pay any taxes which should have been paid for or on account of such street railways or property prior to the 31st day of January, 1907, and not including any sums paid by the Company to the City for city license fees, if any, exacted from the Company or its employes. (4) All salaries and expenses of the Board of Supervising Engineers by this ordinance authorized, after the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation"; and

Second: A sum equivalent to five (5) per centum per annum for said preceding year upon the amount of the cash purchase price which the said City would then be obligated to pay on account of the items specified in subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of Section 20 hereof, if it were purchasing the property for municipal operation on such thirty-first day of January, interest being adjusted as to items added to such purchase price during said year. In case in any year the gross receipts shall not be sufficient to pay in full the items in the "first" and "second" paragraphs of this section mentioned, then the deficit shall be paid out of the gross receipts of the subsequent year or years.

DIVISION OF REMAINING NET RECEIPTS.

After the deduction from the gross receipts of the items hereinbefore in this section provided, the amount remaining shall be considered as the net receipts for such year arising from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized, and shall be divided between the Company and the said City in the following proportions: forty-five (45) per cent. to be retained by the Company, and fifty-five (55) per cent. to be paid forthwith by the Company to the said City, crediting thereon all amounts paid out during the preceding year by the Company for City license fees, if any, exacted from the Company or its employes.

COMMUTATION OF FARES.

It is understood and agreed that the Company's agreement and obligation to pay to the City the fifty-five (55) per cent. of the "net receipts," as hereinbefore provided is based upon its right to charge and receive the fares prescribed in Section 11 hereof and to retain as its own the forty-five (45) per cent. of the "net receipts" as is hereinabove in this section provided. The said City, however, reserves the right to, and it may at any time commute a sum not exceeding the City's share of the net receipts for the previous year into a reduction of said rates of fare; and thereafter in the event of such reduction of rates of fare the Company may deduct and retain as its share of the net receipts each year an amount equal to what would have been the Company's share of the net receipts of such year had the passengers carried during such year paid the fares prescribed in this ordinance, but the Company, after deducting and retaining its share of said net receipts so determined shall pay over to the said City the remainder, if any, of the net receipts for such year less the deductions therefrom hereinbefore provided to be made from the said City's share of the "net receipts" on account of license fees.

CITY TO ESTABLISH SINKING FUND FOR MUNICIPAL PURCHASE.

It is further provided that, subject to the action of the City Council of said City, the said City shall deposit the amount so paid to the said City to the credit of a separate fund to be kept and used for the purchase and construction of street railways by said City; but any failure to comply with this provision shall in no way affect the rights or obligations of the Company under this ordinance.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT LIMITATION.

SECTION 25. The Company shall not be required on account of any extensions of subways or on account of underground trolleys, or on account of any extensions of its street railways, other than the extensions provided for in Exhibit A, and in Section 36 of this ordinance, and four (4) miles of double or eight (8) miles of single track per annum, as in Section 3 hereof provided, to increase its total capital investment to such an extent that the return thereon over and above the interest charge of five per cent. thereon by this ordinance authorized, would be reduced to an inadequate or unreasonably small amount.

DEPOSITARIES.

SECTION 26. Any state or national bank or trust company in the City of Chicago or in the City of New York which has a capital stock and surplus amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) may be selected and can act as a depositary under the provisions of this ordinance, provided, that no moneys shall be deposited with any such depositary under the provisions of this ordinance to an amount exceeding the total capital stock and one-half of the surplus of such depositary; and provided further that all deposits authorized or required by this ordinance (except deposits of purchase money in the event of purchase of said street railway system by the City, or its licensee) shall be made with depositaries in the City of Chicago.

DEPOSITS.

SECTION 27. The Company shall have the right to select the particular depositary or depositaries with which it shall deposit any of the funds required to be deposited by the Company under the provisions of this ordinance, and the Company shall at all times be held responsible for any loss or impairment of any such deposit, and shall promptly make good and restore at its own cost, and not out of the receipts of said street railways, any such loss or impairment. The City or its licensee, as the case may be, shall have the right to select the particular depositary or depositaries with which shall be deposited the funds required to be deposited by the City or its licensee, in the event of purchase of the said street railways by the City or its licensee under the provisions of this ordinance, and the City or its licensee, as the case may be, shall at all times be held responsible for any loss or impairment of any such deposit made by it, and shall promptly make good and restore any such loss or impairment.

Provided, that in all cases where, under the terms of this ordinance, the City is authorized or required to make any deposits of money, the City shall be free from any responsibility for loss or impairment of any such deposit, if not less than thirty days prior to the making of such deposit it shall give notice in writing to the Company of the names of the depositaries in which it shall propose to make such deposit. And the Company, if not satisfied therewith, shall give notice in writing to the City not less than twenty days after receiving such notice from the City. The notice of the Company may direct the City not to make such deposit, or any specified portion of it, with any depositary or depositaries so named by the City of which the Company may disapprove, and in such case such notice by the Company shall contain the names of qualified depositaries from which the City may choose in lieu of the names so disapproved of by the Company, and the number of the names of depositaries in such notice by the Company, from which the City is to choose, shall be at least five in excess of the number of depositaries which the Company shall disapprove of as stated in such notice. And the City, upon making deposits, in accordance with the terms of this proviso, shall be free from any responsibility for loss or impairment of any such deposits.

INTEREST ON DEPOSITS.

SECTION 28. Appropriate provision for the payment of reasonable interest on any funds deposited under the provisions of this ordinance shall be made with the depositary or depositaries of such funds by the party making such deposit. All interest which may accrue upon or be payable on account of any funds deposited under the provisions of this ordinance and any commission or allowance made directly or indirectly by any depositary on account of the funds deposited with it shall be held and considered as a part of the principal fund so deposited and shall be added to such fund as a part thereof.

The Company shall make daily deposits, with some depositary or depositaries authorized by this ordinance, of all moneys received by the Company from the operation of the said street railways and property, and shall make appropriate provision for the payment of reasonable interest on the moneys so deposited by such depositary or depositaries, which interest shall be added to and be held and considered as a part of the gross receipts of the said street railway system and property.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

SECTION 29. The Company, so long as it continues to operate any of the said street railways under this ordinance, and on or before the tenth day of April in each year shall prepare and file with the City Comptroller of said City annual reports for the preceding year ending on the 31st day of January.

Such reports shall be in writing, verified by the affidavit of the Auditor of the Company, forms prescribed by said Comptroller, the character and amount of business done by the Company for the year immediately preceding such report and the amount of receipts from and the expenses of conducting the said business, and the said City Comptroller, or accountants authorized by him, under the direction of the Mayor or City Council of said City, shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine all the books, vouchers and records of the receipts and expenditures of the Company, for the purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the reports herein required and the rights of the said City under this ordinance. The Board of Supervising Engineers shall have the power to prescribe the form and manner in which the books and accounts of the Company shall be kept subject to the approval of the City Comptroller. There shall be also an annual audit of the accounts of the Company covering all receipts and expenditures for the year ending on the thirty-first day of January next preceding, and a formal written report by public accountants selected by the City and the Company, the expenses of such audit and report to be paid out of the gross receipts of the Company as an operating expense.

In the event of any purchase of the street railways and property of the company under the provisions of this ordinance, on the first day of August of any year, there shall be an accounting and report for the preceding six months similar in character to that hereinbefore provided.

COMPANY TO MAINTAIN OFFICE IN CITY.

SECTION 30. The Company shall not remove its principal office or any of its books (except bond registry and stock transfer books), records, accounts, contracts, or original vouchers of receipts and expenditures beyond the limits of the said City, and shall maintain an office within said City so long as the Company continues to operate any part of the street railways mentioned and provided for in this ordinance under the provisions hereof.

FORFEITURE FOR NON-COMPLIANCE.

SECTION 31. The Company, by the acceptance of this ordinance, expressly agrees with the said City and obligates itself fully to comply with all of the terms and conditions of this ordinance throughout the period of time covered hereby, and so long as the Company continues to operate any street railways in said City under or by virtue of the authority hereof.

The Company further agrees that in the event that it shall make default in the observance or performance of any of the agreements or conditions herein required to be kept and performed by it, and if any such default shall continue for a period of three (3) months (exclusive of all times during which the Company may be delayed or interfered with, without its connivance, by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes or the orders or judgments of any court entered in any suit brought without its connivance), after written notice thereof to it from the said City, then and in each and every such case, the said City by its City Council shall be entitled to declare this grant and all of the rights and privileges of the Company to maintain and operate street railways in any of the streets or public ways of the said City to be forfeited and at an end; provided, however, that should the Company, for its corporate purposes, pledge or mortgage its street railway property or any of the rights secured to it by this ordinance, or any security representing the said property or rights, for the security of the payment of its notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness maturing on or before February first, 1927, the amount thereof not being in excess of the value of all the property and rights of the Company, as defined in Section 20 hereof, such right of forfeiture of this grant by reason of any violation by the Company of the provisions of this ordinance shall not be asserted or exist against such pledgee or pledgees, mortgagee or mortgagees, or any of them, and shall not impair or affect the right of such pledgee or pledgees, mortgagee or mortgagees, to recover by foreclosure or other legal process against all the property of the Company, including the rights and privileges hereby granted, the face value of said notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, or any security representing the said property or rights to an amount, however, not in excess of the sum for which the City would then have the right under the terms of this ordinance to purchase the said street railway property; and it is hereby stipulated that any notice of default by the Company, upon which a forfeiture shall be claimed, shall also be given by the said City to the trustee or mortgagee of record in any trust deed or mortgage securing such indebtedness. The purchaser at any foreclosure or other sale shall acquire no other or greater rights or privileges than are hereby conferred, and such purchaser shall hold said property, so purchased at such foreclosure or other sale, subject to the right of purchase at any time thereafter, as herein provided, by the said City, and also subject to the right of purchase by any licensee of the said City, upon the same terms as the said City might purchase and acquire said property for municipal operation, but without payment in either case of the additional twenty (20) per cent. provided for in Sections 20 and 22 of this ordinance; and also subject to the continuing terms, conditions and limitations of this ordinance, including the forfeiture provisions to the same extent as if the said purchaser had been the original grantee hereunder, except that such purchaser shall have no right to execute or deliver any mortgage, trust deed or other encumbrance on said street railways, rights and property or any part thereof without the consent of said City.

The City shall have the right to bid and become the purchaser at any such foreclosure or other sale.

The said Company further expressly agrees that, by the acceptance by it of this ordinance, it is obligated to complete the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" provided for in said "Exhibit B" within the time and in the manner set forth in said Exhibit (due allowance being made for any and all delays or interruptions arising without its connivance by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes, or the orders or judgments of any court entered in any suit brought without its connivance), and if the Company shall fail or neglect to proceed with the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" with all reasonable diligence and promptness after the acceptance of this ordinance by the Company, or to complete the said work within the time prescribed in said "Exhibit B," and said Board of Supervising Engineers shall certify to the City Council of the said City that the Company has failed or neglected to so proceed with said work, or has failed or neglected to complete the work in the time specified in "Exhibit B," the Company shall be and is obligated to pay to the said City for each day that such default or neglect shall continue, the sum of ten thousand dollars as liquidated damages; and if the Company shall, at any time after the acceptance of this ordinance by it, fail to comply with the provisions hereof with regard to the maintenance of first class street railway service over and upon its said lines of street railways, the said City shall have the right to sue for and recover in any court of competent jurisdiction the sum of not less than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars for each and every such failure and each and every day that such failure shall continue shall be taken and held to be a separate offense; but the payment of such penalties shall not in any manner release the liability of the Company to incur a forfeiture of all its rights and privileges under this ordinance, as hereinabove in this section provided.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 32. The Company, in consideration of the grant made by this ordinance, upon the terms and conditions herein expressed, agrees to waive, surrender and release, and by the acceptance of this ordinance, the Company does waive, surrender and release all and every one of the rights and claims of the Company of every kind and nature, in the streets of the said City, other than the rights granted by this ordinance.

CITY'S RIGHT TO INTERVENE.

SECTION 33. The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance shall and does grant to the said City, and the said City hereby reserves to itself the right to intervene in any suit or proceeding brought by any person, firm or corporation seeking to enjoin, restrain or in any manner interfere with the Company in the doing of any work called for by this ordinance, or involving the observance or performance of any of the agreements or conditions herein provided to be kept or performed by the Company, or in any suit to foreclose or enforce any lien, mortgage or trust deed against it and to move for a dissolution of such injunction or restraining order in such suit, and take any other appropriate steps to protect the rights of the said City in case it shall deem such action necessary and appropriate to protect the interests of the said City.

BOARD OF SUPERVISING ENGINEERS.

SECTION 34. Immediately upon the acceptance of this ordinance by the Company, there shall be organized a Board of Supervising Engineers in the manner following:

Within thirty (30) days after the acceptance of this ordinance as hereinafter provided, the Company shall appoint an engineer to represent it on said Board, and shall notify the Mayor of said City, in writing, of the name and address of such engineer; and within thirty (30) days after such notice the said City shall appoint an engineer as its representative on said Board (which appointment shall be made by the Mayor of the said City and shall be subject to the approval of the City Council), and shall notify the Company in writing of the name and address of its said engineer.

Bion J. Arnold is hereby selected and appointed the third member of said Board. The said City or the Company may respectively, at any time and from time to time, remove its representative on said Board, and may also respectively from time to time, appoint an engineer to represent it upon said Board, whenever and as often as it shall fail to have a representative upon said Board from any cause whatsoever. No such removal or appointment shall take effect until written notice thereof has been given to the other party by the party making such removal or appointment.

The said City and the Company may, at any time and from time to time, remove the third engineer from said Board, and may also select and appoint a third engineer to be a member of said Board, whenever and as often as a vacancy in said Board shall occur from the death, resignation, removal, refusal or inability to act of the third engineer upon said Board.

In the event that any vacancy in the position of third engineer upon said Board shall not be filled by the selection of a third engineer by said City and the Company within thirty (30) days after such vacancy shall arise, then the persons then acting as judges of the (main) Appellate Court for the First District of Illinois, or a majority of them, may fill such vacancy on said Board by appointing a competent engineer thereto upon the application of said City or the Company, after ten days' written notice having been given to the other party of such application.

In case either the said City or the Company shall at any time desire the removal of the third engineer and the appointment of another engineer in his place, the party desiring such removal and new appointment may, upon giving ten (10) days' written notice thereof to the other party, apply to the said judges for such removal, and the said judges or a majority of them shall within ten (10) days from and after such application set the same for informal and summary public hearing, at which the party desiring the removal shall publicly present its reasons for asking such removal.

Upon such application of either the said City or the Company, the said judges or a majority of them shall have the power, but shall not be required to remove the said third engineer. The third engineer shall not be removed by the said judges or a majority of them at any time, except upon the application of either the said City or the Company.

Upon the refusal or failure of the said Judges then constituting the (main) Appellate Court for the First District of Illinois, or a majority of them, to make the appointment herein authorized within thirty (30) days after being requested so to do, either the said City or the Company may, upon giving ten (10) days' written notice to the other party of its intention so to do, apply to any judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, for the appointment of a third engineer to fill any vacancy existing in said position, and the judge so applied to shall have the power to appoint such third engineer, who, when appointed, shall be a member of said Board, and shall be subject to removal in the manner hereinabove provided.

Either the Company or the City shall have the right to apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of any member of said Board of Supervising Engineers for fraud, corruption, or failure to perform in good faith his duties under this ordinance.

A majority of said Board of Supervising Engineers shall at all times be authorized to exercise the powers conferred by this ordinance on said Board.

All words in this ordinance contained purporting to give authority to said Board of Superivising Engineers shall be construed as giving such authority to a majority of said Board.

SALARIES AND EXPENSES OF BOARD.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall maintain an office in the said City and shall employ the necessary assistance and purchase the necessary supplies and materials to enable it properly to perform its duties under this ordinance.

The said third engineer shall be ex-officio Chairman of the Board, and shall be paid for his services as a member of said Board compensation at the rate of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) per annum.

During the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," said Bion J. Arnold, so long as he continues to act as a member of said Board, shall, in addition to his duties as a member of said Board of Supervising Engineers, act as Chief Engineer of the work contemplated in this ordinance, and shall receive as additional compensation for such service, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) per annum. In such capacity he shall have charge of the preparation of the plans and specifications, and the general direction of the entire work, and of its inspection during construction. Said plans and specifications and system of inspection shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Each of the other two members of said Board shall, in addition to attending the monthly meetings of the Board, attend such other meetings as may be called by the Chairman, and be paid for his services as a member of said Board, compensation at the rate of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per day, and his traveling and living expenses while away from his home, and actually engaged upon this work, it being understood that his total compensation for services shall not be less than thirty-six hundred dollars ($3,600.00) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) per year. The Chairman of said Board shall call (in addition to such meetings as he may deem desirable or necessary) a meeting of said Board at any time upon request of the President of either of said companies, or the Mayor of said City.

The salaries and expenses of said Board of Supervising Engineers during the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation" provided for in this ordinance shall be added to and form a part of the cost of such "Immediate Rehabilitation," but thereafter shall be paid out of gross receipts, as an operating expense.

In case the said ordinance to the said Chicago Railways Company is passed and accepted by said Chicago Railways Company, the third engineer and the engineer representing the City on the Board of Supervising Engineers created by said ordinance shall be the same persons who act as the third engineer and the engineer representing the City, respectively, in the Board of Supervising Engineers created by this ordinance; and the said Chicago Railways Company and the Chicago City Railway Company shall agree upon one engineer as their joint representative upon said Board; but in case they do not so agree, each of said Companies may select its own representative, who shall in such case act as a member of said Board only in the consideration and determination of matters relating to the street railways and property of the particular Company he represents.

In the determination of any matter relating to subways and through routes and all other matters in which said companies are jointly interested the representative of each of said companies on said Board of Supervising Engineers shall be entitled to one-half of a vote.

In case said ordinance to said Chicago Railways Company is passed and accepted by said Company, the salaries and compensation of said engineers provided for in this ordinance shall include all compensation or salaries payable to said engineers under said other ordinance without duplication, and shall be equitable apportioned by the said third engineer between the said two Companies, taking into consideration the work done by said Board under the said ordinances, respectively, and the determination of said third engineer as to such apportionment shall be final and binding upon the parties whose interests are therein concerned.

CITY TO RESERVE POLICE POWER.

SECTION 35. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as depriving the said City of the right of exercising any police power which it would have possessed or enjoyed had this ordinance not been granted.

The enumeration herein of special requirements and specific regulations shall not be taken or held to imply the relinquishment by the said City of its power to make other requirements or regulations, and the said City hereby expressly reserves the right to make all regulations which may be necessary to secure in the most ample manner the safety, welfare and accommodation of the public, including among other things the right to pass and enforce ordinances to protect the public from danger or inconvenience in the management and operation of street railways throughout the said City and the right to make and enforce all such regulations as shall be reasonably necessary to secure adequate and sufficient street railway accommodations for the people, and insure their comfort and convenience.

The said Council may vest any or all matters of administration under this ordinance, including such thereof as are herein vested in the Mayor, Comptroller or other City officials named in this ordinance or in said "Exhibit B" attached hereto (but excepting those herein vested in said Board of Supervising Engineers), in a Department or Bureau of Local Transportation, or in its City Engineer, or in any official or employes of said City.

COMPREHENSIVE RECONSTRUCTION AND UNIFIED OPERATION ASSURED.

SECTION 36. For the purpose of carrying into effect the purpose and desire of the said City to provide for the unified operation and the comprehensive reconstruction of all the street railways within said City, an ordinance similar to this ordinance in general provisions and character, covering the system of street railways now maintained and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, granting to the Chicago Railways Company the right to operate said system, has been presented for passage by the City Council of said City, concurrently with this ordinance, and it is hereby expressly provided that in the event that the Company accepts this ordinance and files the bond as required in this ordinance within the time herein prescribed, and the said Chicago Railways Company fails to accept the said ordinance to the said Chicago Railways Company after its passage and within the time and according to the terms provided therein, or in any ordinance amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the Company hereby obligates itself to extend and operate its street railway system over and upon the streets and parts of streets in the said City covered by the said ordinance to the said Chicago Railways Company, so far as and to the extent that the rights of the companies now operating the street railways upon such streets and parts of streets cease and expire by limitation or otherwise, the said street railway system of the Company to be extended over each such street or part of street as rapidly as and to whatever extent the said City is able to and does confer upon the Company lawful authority to construct and operate street railways upon such streets and parts of streets, respectively, and deliver to the Company peaceable possession thereof for such purposes. And the Company hereby agrees to construct and operate in each such street and part of street so turned over to it as aforesaid, the street railways and equipment required by the ordinance to said Chicago Railways Company to be constructed by it therein, including the reconstruction of the tunnels under the Chicago River at Washington and La Salle streets, respectively, and the making of the contribution for the construction of subways and extensions thereof provided for in said last mentioned ordinance.

And the said Company agrees that it will furnish the necessary moneys to pay or to enable said City to pay for the physical property constituting the street railways and equipment in any such street or part of street which the City or its licensee may be authorized or required to purchase under and in accordance with the terms of the ordinances of said City which have been heretofore passed and are now in force with respect to any such street or part of street, respectively, property so purchased to be turned over to the Company as a part of the extension of the Company's system provided for in this Section, and the moneys so paid or advanced shall be held and considered as a part of the expense of making such extension. For the purpose of making any such extension the Company agrees that it will, when authorized and required by the City, purchase and pay for the physical property constituting the then existing street railway and equipment located upon any street or part of street turned over to the Company under the foregoing provisions of this Section, provided the price to be paid for such property shall not exceed the value of the same for street railway purposes as estimated by the Board of Supervising Engineers, and that, when acquired, said property shall be used by the Company as a part of the extension of its system upon such street or part of street under the provisions of this ordinance, and that the amount paid for such property shall be held and considered as a part of the cost of making such extension under the provisions of this ordinance.

All such extensions of the Company's system and the operation thereof shall be subject to the provisions of this ordinance, in the same manner and to the same extent as if herein expressly provided for as a part of the street railway system of the Company covered by this ordinance.

The construction and equipment of all such extensions shall be made under the supervision of and the cost thereof determined by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and such extensions shall be in all respects subject to the provisions of this ordinance as to purchase by the said City or its licensee, the determination of the character and cost of construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment, the annual return to the Company upon its investment, the division of profits with the said City and the operation of such extensions by the Company, so far as such provisions can be made applicable thereto.

The City agrees that, in case it shall require the Company to extend its street railway system over or upon any street or part of street covered by the said ordinance to the said Chicago Railways Company, under the provisions of this section, the Company shall have the right to extend its street railway system over and upon all of the streets and parts of streets covered by the ordinance to the said Chicago Railways Company, upon the terms specified in this section, when and as soon as the now existing rights of other companies in said streets or parts of streets, respectively, shall expire or be terminated.

The obligations of the Company under this section to construct, reconstruct, equip, re-equip and operate street railways, tunnels and subways, and to furnish funds to the City for the purposes specified in this section, may be discharged either by the Company itself, or at its election, from time to time, either in whole or in part, through the agency of the Chicago City Railroad Company (hereinafter called the Railroad Company), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Illinois, provided that the Company shall first enter into such contracts and arrangements with the Railroad Company as shall secure and make certain the operation of the lines of street railways constructed by the Railroad Company as an integral part of the street railway system of the Company, and also shall secure to the City and its licensee and to the public the same rights in and upon all of the said lines of the street railways, tunnels and subways of the Company, falling within the provisions of this section, which would have existed if the entire obligations of the Company under this section had been discharged by it directly without the intervention of the Railroad Company, including the right of the City or its licensee to purchase all such lines of street railways (including all interest in tunnels and subways), in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as though all and every part thereof had been constructed, or the money therefor had been advanced, by the Company, without any interest therein having at any time been in the Railroad Company.

The Railroad Company, in consideration of the passage of this ordinance, hereby assumes and agrees to discharge all of the obligations assumed or imposed, or attempted to be assumed or imposed, upon the Company as to street railways, tunnels and subways within the North and West Divisions of the City of Chicago, in all respects the same as though it had been named in place of the Company in the foregoing clauses of this section; and agrees that all the work done by it and the moneys advanced by it shall be subject to all the provisions of this section, and of all the other sections of this ordinance, to the same extent and in the same manner as though said obligations had been discharged by the Company, and all moneys advanced by the Railroad Company had been advanced by the Company.

The Railroad Company further agrees that the City and its licensee and the public shall have the same rights in and upon any and all of the lines of street railways, tunnels and subways constructed in whole or in part by it, or with moneys advanced by it, which they would have had if the same had been constructed and the contributions to the cost thereof had been made wholly by the Company under the terms and provisions of this section, without the intervention of the Railroad Company, including the right of the City or its licensee to purchase such street railways and other property or interests therein, in the same manner, for the same price and upon the same terms and conditions as though all and every part thereof had been constructed or the money therefor had been advanced by the Company, without any interest therein having at any time been in the Railroad Company; and the Railroad Company hereby consents and agrees that the entire purchase price therefor may be included in one sum paid to or deposited to the credit of the Company under the terms and provisions of this ordinance, the Railroad Company agreeing to rely wholly upon its agreement with the Company for its interest in, or share of, such purchase price. The Railroad Company and the Company further undertake and agree that all street railways, tunnels and subways, and other railway properties acquired, constructed or operated under the provisions of this section, including those constructed by, or the cost of which shall be defrayed in whole or in part by the Railroad Company, shall form, and be operated as, an integral part of the street railway system of the Company, under a lease or leases, or operating agreement or operating agreements, between the Railroad Company and the Company.

The Railroad Company by its acceptance of this ordinance expressly agrees with the said City that all the terms, provisions and conditions of this ordinance shall apply to and control the construction and operation of any street railway properties in which it shall have any interest, or to the cost of which it shall contribute, in like manner and to the same extent as though such street railway properties were wholly constructed and operated, and the contributions to the cost thereof were made by the Company. And the Railroad Company and the Company further covenant and agree with the City, that as between the City and the Railroad Company and the Company, all books of account, settlements, charges to capital account, payments of interest on capital account, expenditures and deposits on account of maintenance, repairs and renewals, and the division of net receipts, shall be made with regard to the entire properties constructed under or operated by both of said companies under this ordinance, as though the ownership, operation and control of the same were wholly and solely in the Company, to the end that the rights of the City under this ordinance shall in no wise be different in any respect from what they would have been if the entire street railway properties (including subways and tunnels) affected by this ordinance had been constructed, operated, and the contributions to the cost thereof made wholly and solely by the Company.

The Company further agrees that a forfeiture of all of its rights and privileges under this ordinance may be declared and enforced for any default of the Railroad Company in the observance or performance of any agreement or condition herein contained to be kept and performed by it, in like manner and with like effect as though such default was the default of the Company; and the Railroad Company covenants and agrees that any forfeiture of the rights and privileges of the Company shall operate and be effective as a forfeiture of all of the rights and privileges of the Railroad Company under this ordinance, to the same extent and with the same effect as the rights and privileges of the Company shall have been forfeited by reason of such default.

The Company further agrees that if any of the agreements or undertakings on the part of the Company in this ordinance contained shall be ultra vires such fact shall in nowise affect or impair the right of the City to declare a forfeiture of all the rights and privileges by this ordinance granted to the Company, on account of the non-performnce of any such ultra vires agreement or undertaking, in the same manner and with like effect as though all of such agreements and undertakings were within the Company's chartered powers, the grants herein made to the Company being expressly conditioned on the performance of each and every of the agreements and undertakings of the Company herein contained, the forfeiture of the Company's rights, however, to be made in the manner and with the effect provided in Section 31 of this ordinance.

ORDINANCE BINDING UPON SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS.

SECTION 37. This ordinance shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the lessees, successors and assigns of the Company, and they and each of them shall be bound by all and every its provisions by the Company to be kept and performed, precisely as if in every case they had respectively been named herein with the Company.

LEASE OR ASSIGNMENT.

SECTION 38. No lease, or operating agreement, and no assignment (except by way of mortgage or trust deed, under the foregoing provisions and limitations of this ordinance), shall be made by the Company without the consent of the City Council of said City.

WARRANTY OF TITLE.

SECTION 39. Whenever the City, or its licensee, shall desire to purchase and take over the street railway system of the Company within the said City, as in this ordinance provided, and shall comply with the provisions of this ordinance with respect to making such purchase and payment therefor, the Company shall, by good and sufficient written instruments to that end, transfer to the City, or its licensee, as the case may be, all its said street railway system and property, free from all claims and liens whatsoever, and the Company shall warrant the title to all of the property so transferred to the City or its licensee, to be free from all claims and liens whatsoever, and also that there are no outstanding rights in the streets or parts of streets occupied by its street railways, in any person or corporation, derived through or under said Company, except the rights of the Chicago General Railway Company on 22nd, Main and Laurel streets under the leases referred to in Section 1 of this ordinance, and if at the date of said purchase there shall exist any defect in or incumbrance upon the Company's title to any of the real estate now owned by the Company, an amount of the purchase price equal to the appraised value of the real estate, the title to which shall be incumbered or defective, as shown by the appraisal inventory made by Bion J. Arnold, Mortimer E. Cooley and A. B. du Pont, hereinbefore mentioned, shall remain in one or more of the depositaries with which the City or its licensee shall deposit the purchase money for said street railway properties until such defects and incumbrances shall be cured or removed, as security to the purchaser against loss by reason of such defects or incumbrances.

BOND.

SECTION 40. The Company shall forever indemnify and save harmless the said City against and from all damages, judgments, decrees, costs and expenses which the said City may suffer or which may be recoverable from or obtained against the said City, for or by reason of the granting of the privileges hereby conferred upon the Company, or for or by reason of or growing out of or resulting from the exercise by the Company of the privileges hereby granted, or any of them, or from any act or acts of the Company, its servants or agents, under or by virtue of the provisions of this ordinance.

And the Company shall, within the time limited for the acceptance of this ordinance, file with the City Clerk of said City its bond to the said City, in the penal sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, conditioned that it will forever indemnify and save harmless the said City as aforesaid; provided, however, that the giving of said bond or the recovery of a judgment or judgments thereon by the said City shall not be construed as measuring, lessening or limiting the liability of the Company to the said City under any provisions of this ordinance.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS DATE FROM FEBRUARY 1, 1907.

SECTION 41. If the Company shall accept this ordinance within the time limited therein for the acceptance thereof, then the rights and obligations of the City and the Company under this ordinance shall be the same as if this ordinance had been passed on February first, 1907, and had been accepted by the Company on February first, 1907, and accounting shall be had as between the City and the Company as of that date.

ACCEPTANCE.

SECTION 42. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its acceptance by the Company, and by the Railroad Company under their respective corporate seals; provided that if the Company shall not file with the City Clerk the penal bond above herein mentioned, or if either the Company or the Railroad Company shall not file its formal acceptance of this ordinance and of all its terms and conditions, within sixty days from the passage hereof, then all rights and privileges hereby granted shall be wholly null and void and of no effect; the acceptance of this ordinance by both of said companies being hereby made a condition of this ordinance taking effect.

EXHIBIT B.—CHICAGO CITY RAILWAY COMPANY.

Immediately upon the acceptance of this ordinance by the Company it shall proceed with all due diligence to repair and reconstruct its street railway system and equipment and to secure the necessary supply of electric power to comply with the provisions of this ordinance and under the following specifications:

Immediate Rehabilitation.

That the character of service required by the accompanying ordinance may be established at the earliest moment practicable, the Company shall, upon the acceptance of said ordinance, proceed immediately, (1) to remove from the streets all of its present cable tracks, slots, and conduits, and substitute therefor electric tracks of the character and type as hereinafter described; (2) to rebuild at least 60 miles (single track) of the present electric track of the Company with track of the character and type hereinafter described; (3) to construct and equip the necessary system of distribution and substations, as may be determined upon by said Company with the approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers, to transmit and transform whatever electric power may be required to enable the Company at all times to operate its street railways efficiently and continuously; (4) to rebuild and re-equip its car houses so as to enable it to properly clean and maintain its cars; and (5) to increase as rapidly as possible the number of double truck cars, of the character and type as hereinafter described, until there shall be in operation on its street railway system at least eight hundred (800) such cars. The Company shall diligently prosecute the work above specified and required, and complete the same as rapidly as practicable, in accordance with the provisions of said ordinance, and in compliance with the general specifications herein contained, but in any event the said work shall be completed within three (3) years from the date of the actual acceptance of said ordinance.

GENERAL SPECIFICATIONS.

In addition to the work hereinabove specifically required the Company shall, as promptly as possible, do the necessary work and purchase the necessary materials and equipment to put its entire street railway system and equipment in the best practicable condition to enable it to furnish to the citizens of Chicago the quality and kind of service contemplated and required by this ordinance, and shall at all times maintain the same at the highest practicable efficiency.

Permits.

The Company, before it makes any excavation in or in any way interferes with the surface of, any street or public way for the purpose of doing any work shall obtain from the Commissioner of Public Works of the City a permit so to do, which permit shall contain a condition requiring the Company to restore said street or way and maintain it for one year thereafter; and in every case the Company, after it has restored such street or way, shall maintain it for one year after such restoration.

Permits for Buildings.

All permits issued for the removal of buildings on or across any track of the Company shall provide that the Company be notified at least two days in advance of such removal; that such removal shall only take place, unless with the consent of the Company, between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock A. M.; and that the party to whom the permit is issued shall pay to the Company the actual cost of removing and replacing its overhead equipment, and for the interruption of its traffic from five A. M. to twelve o'clock midnight, if such interruption shall occur.

Tracks.

The tracks to be maintained by the Company shall not be elevated above the surface of the street or public way in which they are placed. They shall be laid and maintained by the Company so as to conform to the grade of such street or public way as the same is, or from time to time hereafter shall be, established by the City Council.

All new tracks shall be laid with the best materials and in the most approved modern manner.

Spacing Tracks.

In laying or relaying rails in any of the streets included in the accompanying ordinance upon which more than one track is located the distance between centers of tracks may remain as at present, but in order to accommodate large, modern cars, and provide for their safe passage, this distance may be at least nine (9) feet eight and one-half (8½) inches between center lines of tracks. The tracks at curves wherever practicable shall be laid to such center as to enable cars to pass with suitable and safe clearance. The exact location of tracks in the streets shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Rails.

All new track construction hereafter laid in streets or public ways shall be laid with modern improved rails of the grooved type, weighing not less than one hundred and twenty-nine (129) pounds per yard, which shall in all respects conform to the specifications for grooved rails as contained in Section 1944 of the Revised

Municipal Code of Chicago, as amended by ordinance of the City Council passed October 8th, 1906.

Joints.

All rail joints shall be either cast-welded, electrically welded, or of a type which will give an equally smooth and even joint, except that the joint used must be one which will provide a carrying capacity for the electric current equivalent to the carrying capacity of the rail.

Track Substructure.

The rails shall be laid upon concrete beams, wooden ties, steel ties or cast-iron chairs or in some other form of first-class modern approved street railway track construction.

The foundation shall be either of concrete, crushed stone or other ballast material, which in the judgment of the Board of Supervising Engineers shall best suit the conditions of soil and drainage. Said foundation to be brought to the proper height to serve as a suitable foundation for the pavement.

Bonding.

In case the rails are joined by any other form of joint than a cast-welded or electrically-welded joint, there shall be some form of bond used which will connect the ends of the rails in such manner that the conductivity of the joints shall be equivalent to the carrying capacity of the rail. The rails of each single track and the inside rails of the double track of all tracks shall be connected by cross-bonds of No. 2/0 (B. & S. Gauge) copper wire spaced not more than one thousand (1000) feet apart, and properly secured to the rails in such manner that the full conducting effect of the wire may be utilized. The rails shall be so bonded or joined and such return circuits and other necessary devices installed as to prevent damage from electrolysis as effectually as possible.

Special Work.

At all points of intersection of the tracks of the Company with its own tracks or with the tracks of other companies, there shall be provided suitable steel special work of ample strength and weight to correspond with the structure to which it connects. The frogs, switches and mates shall be provided with wearing plates of hardened steel. All special work and curves shall be laid in the same general manner required for straight-line track.

Poles and Wires.

All new overhead construction shall consist of one (1) trolley wire suspended over each track by span wires attached to poles set at the curb-line or suspended from brackets attached to poles.

The design of poles hereafter erected shall be subject to approval of the Board of Engineers, and shall be of iron or steel, weighing approximately nine hundred (900) pounds each, set in concrete and kept thoroughly painted. They shall be spaced on an average of from one hundred (100) to one hundred fifteen (115) feet apart for straight track, except at street intersections, and so as not to obstruct cross streets, alleys, or private driveways. The location of poles shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

All material used in the overhead construction shall be of the most modern type and shall be capable of sustaining all the weights and strains that come upon it under normal conditions of operation and from wind, sleet and ordinary accidents.

The trolley wire shall be not less than No. 2/0 (B. & S. Gauge) hard-drawn copper, unless the Board of Supervising Engineers shall approve other sizes for specific cases. Phosphor bronze, silicon bronze or other material equal in strength may also be used. Trolley wires shall be suspended not less than eighteen and one-half (18½) feet above the rails, except when such wires are suspended under viaducts, bridges and other structures. There shall be at least two (2) insulations between the trolley wire and the supporting pole. Span wires shall be galvanized iron or steel or silicon bronze.

Feeders and Transmission Wires.

All feeder and transmission wires within that portion of the City lying east of the west line of Halsted street, north of the south line of Thirty-ninth street, and south of the Chicago River, and also south of Thirty-ninth street east of the right of way of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Railroad, shall be laid underground. To this end, authority is hereby conferred upon the Company to enter upon, excavate for, and construct a system of conduits in the streets, alleys, and other public ways of the City of sufficient capacity to carry its said wires. All feeder wires in any other territory shall be similarly placed underground whenever the City shall require all other overhead public service wires (except trolley wires) in such territory to be placed underground. All transmission wires used by the Company within the city limits, carrying a pressure of 1,000 volts or more shall be placed underground.

Feeder and transmission wires, not required to be placed underground, shall be suspended by insulators upon said poles supporting said trolley wires or upon poles placed at the side of streets, alleys or other public ways in locations to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. These wires and poles shall be so situated that the Company may conveniently make all the connections authorized by said ordinance and the exhibits thereto. The said trolley wires, feeder wires and all other wires authorized by said ordinance to be installed by the Company, where located in streets, alleys, or other public or private ways, in, along or across which are located railroads elevated above the surface of the streets, may be strung upon or from the structures of such railroads, with the consent of the Company owning or operating the same. Said wires shall be attached to said stuctures and maintained under the supervision of the City Electrician.

Conduits.

Underground conduits to carry any of the wires authorized by said ordinance, to be installed by the Company, shall not exceed four (4) feet in width and three (3) feet in depth, and shall be of tile, cement, iron or other material impervious to moisture and not subject to decay. All transmission and feeder wires and cables laid under ground shall be covered with lead or other impervious material. Before any cable containing such wires shall be put in use it shall be tested by an alternating current of twice the working voltage of the cable. All forms of cable used by the Company containing more than one conductor shall be tested in like manner.

City Conduits.

If at any time the City shall desire to place conduits and manholes in streets or public ways wherein the Company is then about to place conduits and manholes, a single trench may be used for both conduits, but the manholes of the Company shall be kept separate and distinct from those of the City. The expense in such case shall be divided between the Company and the City according to the space used by each therein.

Conductors.

All wires and conductors for the transmission of electricity in and along any street, alley or public way (whether under or above ground) shall be installed in a substantial and workmanlike manner, so as to interfere as little as possible with the other uses of said public places; and all electric work of every kind and character shall comply strictly with the ordinances of the City applicable thereto.

Maintenance of Streets.

The Company, as respects filling, grading, paving, keeping in repair, sweeping, sprinkling, keeping clean, or otherwise improving the streets or parts of streets occupied by its railway, shall fill, grade, pave, keep in repair, sweep, sprinkle, and keep clean and free from snow eight (8) feet in width of all streets and public ways, or portions thereof, occupied by it with a single track railway, and sixteen (16) feet in width of all streets and public ways, or portions thereof, occupied by it with a double track railway.

In removing snow the Company shall not deposit it upon the portions of the street or public way outside of the tracks, except temporarily; and in every case of such temporary deposit it shall be removed within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Commissioner of Public Works.

Pavement.

The Company, upon the order of the Commissioner of Public Works, and approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers, shall pave, repave, or repair the portions of the streets and public ways which by this grant it is required to keep paved and in repair, whenever and as often as the same shall reasonably require paving, repaving or repairing, and shall at all times keep the surface of all of its paving at least up to the top of the rail.

The pavement which the Company shall be required to lay down and keep in repair in the portion of any street or way which it is required herein to pave and keep in repair shall be of the following kinds, to-wit:

First. In all streets or ways in which the Company has in place, at the date of the passage of this ordinance, a good serviceable pavement, it shall repair and maintain the same while serviceable under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, as aforesaid.

Second. Whenever any existing pavement of the Company, in any paved street or way, can no longer be made serviceable by repair; and whenever the portions of any street or public way outside of the strip herein required to be paved by the Company are newly paved or repaved, with asphalt, granite, brick, creosoted block, or other similar material, as aforesaid, and the pavement of the Company therein does not comply with the following specifications; and whenever the Company relays its rails in any such paved street or public way in which its pavement does not comply with the following specifications, then, and in any of such events, the Company shall pave or repave the portion of any such street or public way, which it is herein required to keep paved, with granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification, and free from an excess of mica or feldspar. Said block shall measure from three and one-half (3½) to five and one-half (5½) inches in width, from seven (7) to eleven (11) inches in length (except that shorter stones may be used to break joints), and not less than five (5) inches in depth. They shall be so dressed as to have substantially rectangular plane surfaces, so that when in place the joints at the ends and sides shall average one-fourth (¼) inch in width. Soft or weather-worn stones, obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic shall not be used. All blocks shall be laid in uniform courses across the roadway; and the space between the blocks, when in place, shall in no case be less than one-eighth (⅛) of an inch nor more than three-eighths (⅜) of an inch in width. Each course shall consist of blocks of the same width. They shall be so laid that all longitudinal joints shall be broken by a lap of approximately three inches. The spaces shall be immediately filled to within two (2) inches of the top of the blocks with dry gravel free from loam or dirt, and the blocks rammed to a true surface and firm bed with a seventy-five (75) pound rammer of approved shape. No cracked or chipped blocks shall remain in the pavement. After ramming, the spaces between the blocks shall be completely filled with a paving pitch made by the distillation of "straight run" coal tar and of such quality and consistency as shall be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. The pitch shall be used at a temperature of not less than two hundred and eighty (280) degrees Fahrenheit and be spread in such quantity as to apply two (2) gallons to each square yard of pavement. The spreading shall be done in sections if the Commissioner of Public Works so directs. Provided, that, in any ordinance providing for the paving of such streets the Company may be required to pave in like manner and with like material as therein specified for other contiguous portions of said streets, except that when asphalt is used a layer of granite blocks shall be put in next to and on both sides of each rail.

Third. Whenever any existing pavement of the Company, in any unpaved street, or public way, can no longer be made serviceable by repairs; and whenever the Company lays down any track or tracks in any unpaved street or public way, then, and in either of such events, the Company shall pave or repave the portions of any such street or public way, which it is required to keep paved or repaved, as aforesaid, with good serviceable granite blocks.

Fourth. In each case where by said Exhibit A attached to this ordinance the Company is authorized and required to change a single track to a double track, in any street or part of a street, if the roadway therein be not at least thirty-eight (38) feet in width, the Company shall, at its own cost (such cost to be charged to capital account) widen said roadway to said width and shall rebuild the catchbasins and their connections and curb and pave said street, as may be required by the City Council; provided, that the Company shall not hereby be required to pave, in addition to the part of the street occupied by its double-track street railway, as provided for in this ordinance, more than eight (8) feet in width of such roadway nor to acquire private property in order to secure the necessary width for such roadway.

Power Houses, Buildings.

The Company shall build such power houses and auxiliary buildings, together with the necessary machinery and appurtenances as may be determined upon by said Company with the approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers to supply whatever electric power may be required (in addition to such power as the Company may acquire by lease or contract with such approval from sources other than its own plants) to enable the Company to operate at all times its street railway system efficiently and continuously.

In the construction of power plants, substations and other buildings, the Company shall comply with all general ordinances of the City in regard to buildings and to the installation of machinery, boilers, and smoke-consuming appliances. The buildings of said power plants shall be substantially fire-proof and supplied with smoke-stacks sufficient to carry off all gases emitted, and the foundations for the machinery therein shall be constructed in a solid and substantial manner.

The machinery and apparatus employed shall be selected and installed with a view of affording uninterrupted operation of the cars upon said railways, and to obtain this end the machinery shall be so arranged that a stoppage of one machine shall not prevent the operation of the remaining machines, and reserve machinery shall always be ready to be thrown into service. All boilers, piping, valves, fittings, steam engines, turbines, generators, switchboard apparatus, and other appliances used, shall be of the latest and most approved design and constructed and installed in accordance with the best engineering practice.

In all dynamos and connections where a high voltage current is produced or used approved methods for the protection of human life shall be employed.

The high tension switches shall be entirely enclosed in fireproof material, and shall be operated by levers, compressed air, auxiliary currents, or by such other means as will, as far as practicable, prevent personal contact with high tension current.

All feeders leading out of power plants and sub-stations shall be provided with some form of safety switches or automatic circuit-breakers designed to instantaneously open the circuit in case of a short circuit occurring on the feeder or on the trolley which it feeds.

All the foregoing specifications regarding modern and approved apparatus, protection from fire, and provisions for the protection of human life, shall apply with equal force to the sub-stations in case a system of transmision involving the use of sub-stations is adopted.

In case it is found desirable to secure power from any other source than the Company's own power plants no contract for supplying such power shall be entered into by the Company without the consent of the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Car Shops and Machinery.

It is contemplated that the present car shops and machinery contained therein will remain as at present installed with such additions thereto as may be necessary and located as follows:

Complete plant fronting on Vincennes Road at the corner of Seventy-eighth street, extending from Vincennes Road to Wentworth avenue.

Cars.

All new cars hereafter put in service shall be of the type known as double truck cars, seating from 40 to 50 passengers; and in construction, design and equipment shall conform strictly to all the provisions of Section 10 of the ordinance.

The Company may retain in operation on said streets until the Board of Supervising Engineers otherwise directs, two hundred fifty-one (251) of the present single-truck cars now in service, it being understood that these cars shall be selected from the best cars now in service and shall conform in every respect to all general ordinances of the City regulating such cars.

All of the above cars shall be equipped with sufficient motor capacity to properly operate the cars at the schedule speed required by the service over the particular lines that they may be operated upon.

Electric or hot water heaters, or heaters of other types approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers, of sufficient capacity to heat the above cars as stipulated in the accompanying ordinance, shall be used.

Every passenger car used by said Company which is not now equipped with a power brake shall, on or before nine (9) months after the passage of this ordinance, be equipped with a power brake of a type approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Every passenger car used by said Company which is not now vestibuled shall, on or before nine (9) months after the passage of this ordinance, be vestibuled in such manner as may be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Rolling Stock.

The Company shall provide all necessary snow-plows, sweepers, repair cars, work cars, etc., to properly take care of its system and maintain it in first class working condition.

AN ORDINANCE

AUTHORIZING THE CHICAGO RAILWAYS COMPANY TO CONSTRUCT, MAINTAIN AND OPERATE A SYSTEM OF STREET RAILWAYS IN STREETS AND PUBLIC WAYS OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, The Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company now maintain and operate a system of street railways in the streets and public ways in the north, west and south divisions of the city of Chicago; and,

WHEREAS, The Chicago Railways Company, hereinafter called the "Company," has been organized for the purpose of acquiring, operating, re-constructing, re-equipping and extending said system under the terms of this ordinance; and,

WHEREAS, The said City desires, for the proper accommodation of the public, to provide for the reconstruction, re-equipment and extension of the said street railway system and for the unified operation of said system together with the street railway system now maintained and operated by the Chicago City Railway Company, and to be in a position as soon as practicable freely to deal with the subject of transportation in its streets as a whole, and to fix and determine the definite terms and conditions upon which the said City shall have the right to purchase and take over at any time the street railway system of the Company. Now, therefore,

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Chicago:

AUTHORITY.

SECTION 1. That in consideration of the acceptance by the Company of this ordinance, subject to all of the provisions, conditions, requirements and limitations hereof, consent, permission and authority are hereby granted to the Company, its lessees, successors and assigns, to construct, reconstruct, maintain and operate a system of street railways in, upon and along the streets and public ways or portions thereof, in the City of Chicago, set out in the schedule marked "Exhibit A" hereto attached and made a part hereof.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the desire of the said City to provide for the unified operation of said street railways, an ordinance similar to this ordinance in general provisions and character, running to the Chicago City Railway Company, as grantee, covering the system of street railways now maintained and operated by said Chicago City Railway Company in the south division of said City, has been presented for passage concurrently with this ordinance, and it is hereby expressly provided that, upon the passage and acceptance of said last mentioned ordinance, then in all cases where this ordinance and the said ordinance relating to the street railways now maintained and operated by the Chicago City Railway Company confer grants upon more than one company in the same part of any street, the rights granted to the respective companies in such part of any street shall be construed to be for a mutual and joint use of tracks, and the rights of each company therein shall be the same as though the said ordinances making such grants had been passed and had taken effect concurrently, without regard to the actual dates of their respective passage and acceptance. Whenever such tracks are to be used jointly, they shall be constructed, maintained and operated at the equal joint expense of the said companies.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS.

The permission and authority hereby granted to the Company are, however, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Such permission and authority shall wholly cease and determine, unless within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the passage of this ordinance the Company shall acquire all the property, franchises, rights and claims described or referred to in Section 20 of this ordinance, including all the property constituting the system of street railways now operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, provided a clear title to all said property, franchises, rights and claims be tendered the Company, free from liens and encumbrances, at a price not exceeding the price for which the City may buy the same under the terms of said Section 20.

(b) If such title be not so tendered the Company within said period, the permission and authority hereby granted shall nevertheless cease and determine, unless within a period of one hundred and fifty (150) days after the passage of this ordinance the Company shall have promulgated a plan of re-organization and re-adjustment which shall be consistent with the terms of the deposit agreement referred to in subdivision (e) of this section, and which shall have been approved by Hon. Peter S. Grosscup or, in case of his death, or refusal or inability to act, by Hon. William H. Seaman, as being fair and equitable to each of the parties in interest hereinafter referred to, all the conditions and circumstances of the situation being considered; and under which plan an opportunity shall be afforded to each individual holder of a direct or indirect interest in or lien upon said property, franchises, rights or claims, or any part thereof, or of any right, claim or demand, as creditor or otherwise, entitled to enforcement against said property, franchises, rights or claims or payable out of the same or any part thereof, to participate in the transfer of said property, franchises, rights and claims to and the acquisition thereof by the Company and to receive such stocks, securities or other benefits as said plan of re-organization and readjustment may provide on the terms and conditions in said plan set forth, and which opportunity shall remain open during a period to be specified in said plan and approved as aforesaid, but not extending beyond January 20, A. D. 1908. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to confer directly or indirectly any interest in or right with respect to the authority and permission granted to the Company by this ordinance, or otherwise, upon any holder of any existing interest in or lien upon the property, franchises, rights and claims above mentioned.

(c) Upon the expiration of said period last mentioned, the Company shall proceed promptly to perfect its title to the entire property, franchises, rights and claims aforesaid, using for that purpose if necessary any and all stocks, securities and evidences of indebtedness acquired pursuant to said plan of re-organization and re-adjustment; and, to the extent that it may be necessary to acquire or extinguish any interests in or liens upon said property, franchises, rights and claims, or any debts, claims or demands against the same which are not represented by the stocks, securities and evidences of indebtedness so acquired by the Company, the City of Chicago may in its discretion exercise any and every power with which it may then be vested, whether by virtue of any statute, ordinance, contract or judicial decree, to acquire or extinguish such outstanding interests, or to obtain title to and possession of any part of the aforesaid property, franchises, rights and claims to which the Company shall not have obtained title, or to terminate the possession of such property or any part thereof, or the use or occupation (except as by this ordinance authorized) of any street or public way, or portion thereof, mentioned in said schedule marked "Exhibit A." The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance, shall be obligated at the option of the City to buy from the City all such property, franchises, rights and claims so acquired at the price which the City may have to pay for the same, and to make payment therefor at or before the time when the City is to pay the purchase-price of said property, and to indemnify and on demand reimburse the said City for all expenses incurred in the exercise of said powers in acquiring or extinguishing such outstanding interests, or in obtaining title to or possession of such property, or in terminating such possession, use or occupation or in attempting any such action at the suggestion or request of the Company.

The Company shall not be so obliged to buy unless the price to be paid by the City for the title obtained or the property acquired or extinguished in pursuance of this subdivision (c) of this section shall be determined by judicial proceeding or by appraisement by a disinterested tribunal, the City hereby consenting that the Company shall have a right to be heard upon the question of value. In order to reduce the price which the City may have to pay for any property so acquired or extinguished, the Company, by the acceptance of this ordinance, shall be obligated to waive in favor of the City any right of participation in such purchase-price by reason of any stocks, securities or evidences of indebtedness which it shall have acquired, or of which it may have the control through a trustee or otherwise, and to allow the City to use the same in such appropriate manner as the nature of the proceeding will permit in reduction of the purchase-price.

(d) Within a period of three years from and after the passage of this ordinance, the Company shall perfect its title to said entire system of street railways and shall free the same from any lien or encumbrance other than such as are herein expressly authorized to be created. The Company shall not, however, be deemed to be in default with respect to the obligation last above stated so long as there shall have been no notice given by the City of its intention to purchase said street railway system, or to cause the same to be purchased by its licensee, unless notice in writing shall have been given to the Company by the City of some particular defect of title or of some particular lien or encumbrance and the Company shall have failed within sixty (60) days thereafter to remove the same. And so long as no such notice of intention shall have been given by the City, no default shall be deemed to exist on the part of the Company with respect to said obligation last above stated, in any of the following classes of excepted cases, it being distinctly understood and agreed that the burden of proof rests upon the Company to show that any alleged defect of title, or lien or encumbrance falls within any of said excepted classes, next hereinafter consecutively numbered, to-wit:

(1) Unsubstantial or trivial defects of title.

(2) Defects of title of real property used for the production of power or for office purposes or for the storage of supplies, materials or equipment, or for other like purposes, but only if and so long as the Company shall procure and keep in force a policy of insurance, insuring its title to such property, issued by a Company in good standing authorized to engage in the business of insuring titles in the State of Illinois, indemnifying the Company and the City or its licensee in the event of purchase, as in this ordinance provided, against any and all loss, damage or expense by reason of such defect of title, lien or encumbance for an amount not less than the full value of the particular piece of real property subject to such defect, lien or encumbrance, as set forth in the appraisal inventory referred to in Section 20 of this ordinance, with all additions and improvements thereto as certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

(3) Liens or encumbrances securing unmatured obligations for the payment of money, but only if and so long as the Company shall keep on deposit, with one or more of the depositaries appointed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, money sufficient to pay the principal of such obligations (and interest on such obligations as the said interest becomes due, to maturity) and also to pay all charges or expenses incident to the release of such lien or encumbrance, upon a specific trust to apply such money to make such payments, or, in case of purchase of said property by the City or its licensee, as in this ordinance provided, and in the event that the City or its licensee shall elect to take title to such property subject to any such lien or encumbrance, then to pay over to the City or its licensee, as the case may be, the entire amount remaining of said deposit.

(4) Defects of title by reason of any estate, interest, right, title, claim, demand, lien or encumbrance acquired by the City after the passage of this ordinance and either held by it or subject to its control, but only if and so long as the Company tenders and stands ready to pay to the City, for a conveyance, release or discharge thereof, an amount equal to the cost and expense to the City of acquiring such estate, interest, right, title, claim, demand, lien or encumbrance, with interest.

(5) Any alleged defect of title arising out of any claim or demand originating after the passage of this ordinance against the Company or its property the validity, amount or extent of which shall be contested by the Company in good faith and upon reasonable grounds by appropriate legal procedure with reasonable diligence, provided the Company shall give to the City indemnity therefor satisfactory to the Mayor of the City in his absolute discretion.

(e) It is further expressly provided that no right, permission or authority under this ordinance shall vest in the Company and the Company shall not have the right to accept this ordinance unless at the time of such acceptance there shall have been deposited with .....Trustee, under an agreement substantially in the form hereto annexed and marked "Exhibit D," which agreement shall then have been duly executed, certificates of stock duly indorsed in blank for transfer, representing not less than the following amounts of the capital stock of the respective corporations hereinafter mentioned, viz.: four thousand, one hundred and sixty-seven (4,167) shares of the capital stock of the Chicago West Division Railway Company, and one thousand, six hundred and sixty-seven (1,667) shares of the capital stock of the North Chicago City Railway Company (being, respectively, more than two-thirds of the entire capital stock of said companies, other than that held by Trustees under outstanding mortgages or deeds of trust); also twenty-nine thousand, six hundred and one (29,601) shares of the capital stock of the North Chicago Street Railroad Company, and forty-nine thousand, nine hundred and forty-six (49,946) shares of the capital stock of the West Chicago Street Railroad Company (being respectively more than a majority of the entire capital stock of said two companies last named, other than that held by the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, as Trustee under a deed of trust); and, also, eighty thousand and one (80,001) shares of the preferred stock and one hundred and thirty-three thousand, three hundred and thirty-four (133,334) shares of the common stock of the Chicago Union Traction Company (being more than two-thirds of each class of said capital stock); provided that the City shall have and hereby reserves the right to modify the aforesaid provisions and conditions so as to reduce the proportion of stock of any or all of said companies to be so deposited to such amount as to the City may seem proper; and provided further that the certificate of said Trustee as to the number of shares of stock so deposited shall be prima facie evidence in respect to the performance of the foregoing conditions and provisions.

In the event that the Company shall accept this ordinance and thereafter by reason of its failure to comply with any of the covenants or conditions hereof, the permission and authority granted by this ordinance shall cease and determine, then and in that event all the shares of stock of the Companies in this subdivision of this section mentioned, then owned by the Company or deposited with the Trustee under said agreement as above provided, and all the beneficial interest appertaining to said stock and assigned to the Company or to said Trustee shall pass to, vest in and become the property of or be subject to the control and disposition of the City or of such person or persons or corporation as the City shall by ordinance designate, subject to the terms of said deposit agreement.

(f) No right, permission or authority under this ordinance shall vest in the Company and the Company shall not have the right to accept this ordinance unless, at the time of such acceptance the Company shall be in lawful possession of all the lines of street railway operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, on February 1, 1907, with all the plant and equipment in use on or in connection with said lines at the time of said acceptance, with power and authority to comply with the provisions of this ordinance with respect to the operation, maintenance, extension, re-construction, re-equipment and improvement of said railways, and to make from the receipts thereof all the deposits and payments required by the provisions of this ordinance to be made from such receipts, and with power to transfer to the City, or its licensee, all such possession, rights, and powers in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance in that behalf hereinafter set forth.

(g) The Company shall at all times during the life of this grant maintain the possession of the property and the power and authority which by sub-division (f) of this section the Company is required to have at the time of the acceptance of this ordinance, subject to the provisions contained in this ordinance as to the suspension or termination of such possession.

RECONSTRUCTION.

Section 2. The Company shall proceed at once to re-construct portions of the track and roadbed constituting said system of street railways now maintained and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company and put said entire street railway system, plant and equipment in first-class condition, in full compliance with the specifications and provisions for such work in this ordinance and in the Exhibit hereto attached, marked "Exhibit B" and made a part of this ordinance, with the same force and effect as though herein fully set forth, and to operate and maintain said system in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance and of said "Exhibit B."

Such provisions of this ordinance as are in the nature of specifications shall be given at all times full force and effect, except in cases, if any, in which they conflict with express provisions of "Exhibit B," in which cases the latter shall prevail. The provisions of this ordinance and those of "Exhibit B," however, shall be construed together, and both, so far as practicable, be given full effect throughout the life of this grant.

The expressions "property of the Company" or "street railway system of the Company" or equivalent expressions as hereinafter used, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning, shall be deemed to denote all the property from time to time possessed or used by the Company in and about the street railway business conducted under the provisons of this ordinance, including all franchises, rights and privileges of every nature enjoyed or exercised or capable of being enjoyed or exercised in connection therewith, irrespective of the nature or extent of the Company's interest therein, and a similar construction shall be given to expressions relating to particular classes or species of the Company's property.

EXTENSIONS.

SECTION 3. The said City shall have the right, subject to the limitations contained in this ordinance, at any time to require the Company to make extensions of and additions to the lines of street railway enumerated in said "Exhibit A." Such extensions and additions shall be made under the supervision of the Board of Supervising Engineers, as hereinafter in Section 7 provided, and the cost thereof shall be determined as provided in said section. The character and quality of such work shall comply with the specifications set forth in said "Exhibit B," so far as the same may be applicable thereto.

The Company shall promptly and within a reasonable time after the passage of this ordinance construct and equip the extensions of its street railway system provided for in "Exhibit A," and shall operate the same as a part of its system in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance, and at any time after three (3) years from the acceptance of this ordinance, the Company shall upon the order of the City Council of the City, construct and equip such additional extensions as may be required by the City and shall operate the same as a part of its system in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance, provided, that the Company shall not be obligated hereby to construct and operate any such additional extensions in any street or public way nearer any then existing parallel street railway tracks of the Company than one-half mile, and that the Company shall not be obligated hereby to construct more than six miles of double track railway or twelve miles of single track railway in any one calendar year during the term of this grant.

The Company shall, however, upon the order of the City Council of the City, construct, equip and operate such extensions of its street railway system in addition to those hereinabove provided for as may be required by the City Council subject to the conditions and limitations contained in Section 26 of this ordinance.

The Company shall not be authorized or obligated to construct any extension of its street railway system upon streets on which street railways are not located when this ordinance goes into effect until the City has granted to the Company whatever authority in addition to this ordinance may be necessary to comply with the frontage consent laws of the State of Illinois.

MOTIVE POWER.

SECTION 4. The motive power to be used in the operation of said street railways shall be electricity, applied by the overhead trolley system or otherwise, as more particularly set forth in said "Exhibit B;" provided that the said City (subject to the limitations contained in Section 26 hereof), at any time after three years from the date of the acceptance of this ordinance, may require by ordinance, that the Company shall operate under the provisions of this ordinance any of its street railways herein authorized by electric power transmitted through working conductors carried in conduits below the surface of the street and between and underneath the rails, otherwise known as the underground trolley system, and shall thereafter cease to operate the same by overhead trolley.

USE OF POLES, CONDUITS, ETC.

SECTION 5. The Company may use its trolley poles, feeder poles, trolley wires, feeder wires and the conduits authorized and provided for in said "Exhibit B," for all purposes solely connected with the operation of its street railways, such as power, light, heat and telephonic and other signals. For such purposes the Company may connect such conduits, poles and wires with its transmission and feeder wires, power plants, substations, car houses, repair shops or other property of the Company, and with any transmission, feeder or other wires of any other individual or corporation.

JOINT USE WITH THE CITY.

The said City shall have the right, without the payment of any compensation therefor, during the life of this grant, to use the poles of the Company to carry the signal, telephone, telegraph and electric light wires and lamps of the said City. The transmission wires of the said City for such purposes shall be placed on poles of the Company, on that side of each street or way (where poles are located on both sides thereof) designated by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, without cost or expense to the Company, but the Company shall repair and maintain its poles as one of the operating expenses of the said street railway system under this ordinance; provided, that the said City shall indemnify and save harmless the Company against and from all damages, judgments, costs or expenses which the Company may suffer by reason of any negligence of the said City in installing, maintaining or using its said wires and lamps upon said poles.

SUBWAYS.

SECTION 6. The Company hereby gives to said City and said City reserves the power by ordinance to require the Company to join with the Chicago City Railway Company and with the said City in defraying the cost of the construction of a system of subways for the joint use of the said companies as down town terminals of their street railway systems, and for the use of said City and of its licensees, the legal title to said subways to be in said City, subject to the rights of the said companies under this ordinance, it being, however, an express condition of the Company being required to join in defraying the cost of such construction of such system of subways, that said subway system and the extensions thereof shall not be used for street railway purposes during the life of this grant except by the street railway systems of said companies; provided, that the companies shall not be required to contribute to the cost of said subway system any amount in excess of the pro rata cost of that part of said subway system which is to be devoted to the use of said companies or either of them and that the total amount which the said companies shall be required to contribute toward the construction of said system of subways shall not exceed the sum of five million ($5,000,000) dollars, exclusive of the cost of (1) reconstructing the present tunnels under the Chicago River, or (2) of converting said tunnels into a part of said system of subways.

Three-fifths of that part of the cost of the said subways (exclusive of the tunnels under the Chicago River), payable by said companies shall be borne by the Company and two-fifths of the said cost shall be borne by said Chicago City Railway Company; and provided, further, the Company shall not be obligated to join in defraying the cost of the construction of such subway system until (1) the said City shall authorize the construction of said subway system by an ordinance which shall prescribe the location, character and extent of said subway system and the plans and specifications therefor, which plans and specifications shall include provision specifying the portions thereof to be devoted to the use of said companies, respectively, and to the use of the said City and its licensees, and regulating the manner of such uses, and specifying the share of the cost of such subway system to be borne by said companies and the extent of the user to which each said company shall be entitled in that part of said subway system devoted to street railway purposes, and until, (2) the Board of Supervising Engineers shall approve the location, character and extent of and the plans and specifications for such subway system. The limitation of five million dollars as above defined shall apply to the subway system above mentioned, but shall have no application to the extensions and additions herein next mentioned.

When said subway system shall have been fully completed (but not before the expiration of five years from and after the acceptance of this ordinance) the Company (subject to the limitations contained in Section 26 hereof) may be required by ordinance to join with the said Chicago City Railway Company and with the said City in defraying the cost of the construction of extensions and additions to such subway system and the Company agrees that it will pay to the said City the pro rata cost of constructing that portion of such extensions which is to be devoted to the use of the Company and its proportionate part of the pro rata cost of constructing that portion of such extensions which is to be devoted to the joint use of the said companies; provided, however, the Company shall not be obligated to join in defraying the cost of the construction of such extensions and additions to said subway system until (1) the said City shall authorize the construction of said extensions and additions by an ordinance which shall prescribe the location, character and extent of said extensions and additions and the plans and specifications therefor, which plans and specifications shall include provisions specifying the portions to be devoted to the use of said companies and to the use of said City and its licensees, and regulating the manner of such uses and specifying the part of the total estimated cost of such extensions and additions to be borne by the said companies, respectively, and until (2) the location, character and extent of said extensions and additions and the plans and specifications therefor shall be approved by the said Board of Supervising Engineers.

The provisions of this ordinance under which the said Company obligates itself to contribute to the cost of constructing subways and extensions of subways and fixing the conditions under which the said Company is so obligated shall not have the effect or be construed to have the effect of depriving the said City of any right which the said City may have or acquire (otherwise than by virtue of this ordinance) to construct subways or extensions thereof, or to compel said Company to contribute to the cost of such subways or extensions, or to compel said Company to use the subways in whole or in part, in connection with its street railways or to fix the terms and conditions of such use. By the acceptance of this ordinance the Company admits that the City has the right and authority to construct subways and extensions of subways in the streets and parts of streets described in "Exhibit A" and in all other streets or parts of streets in which the Company is now or hereafter authorized to construct or operate street railways and the Company by such acceptance consents to the exercise of such right by the City; but the Company by the acceptance of this ordinance shall not be construed as admitting that the City now has any right otherwise than by virtue of this ordinance to compel said Company to contribute to the cost of any subway or extension thereof, or to compel said Company to use subways in whole or in part in connection with its street railways or to fix the terms and conditions of such use, or that it could acquire such right, and the exercise by the City of any such right shall not impair or in anywise affect the rights of the Company under the provisions of this ordinance in that part of any subway, or extensions thereof, to the cost of constructing which the Company shall have contributed.

Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed to give the said City the power to require the Company in case of the construction of said subway system, or extensions and additions thereto, and the placing of its railway tracks therein, or in a part thereof, to cease the operation of its railway, during the life of this grant, upon the surface of any of the streets or parts of streets under which the said subway system, or said extensions and additions thereto, may be constructed, so long as or whenever the City shall permit the construction or operation of any street railways upon the surface of such streets or parts of streets, respectively.

It is expressly provided that in case the capacity of that portion devoted to street railway purposes, of any subways or extensions of subways, constructed under the provisions of this Section of this ordinance, shall at any time be greater than necessarily and properly required for the use of the said Company or companies which have contributed to the cost of said subways or extensions thereof in the operation of their street railways therein, the City may authorize or require any other company operating elevated railways in said City to use said subways and extensions, or parts thereof, to the extent of such surplus capacity, but only to such extent, provided that such company shall pay a reasonable rental for such use by it, which rental shall be apportioned between the parties who have contributed to the cost of constructing the portion of such subways or extensions so used by such other company in proportion to the extent of their respective contributions; and the portion of such rental so paid to the Company shall be considered and treated as part of its gross receipts, to be disposed of under the provisions of this ordinance as other gross receipts from the operation of the street railways of said Company are to be disposed of. The City shall have the right to use the said subways and extensions for any elevated railway belonging to said City to the same extent and upon the same terms that it may authorize or require their use by any elevated railway company.

CITY TO HAVE SUPERVISION OF REHABILITATION.

SECTION 7. All of the construction, re-construction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions to plant and property provided for or required by this ordinance or the exhibits thereto, including underground trolleys, tunnel re-construction, new lines, extensions, and other additions to plant and property (but not subways or extensions thereof), shall be done, performed and acquired by the Company under the direction and supervision of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the cost and expense thereof shall be borne and paid by the Company, but no contract, subcontract or payment therefor except as expressly provided in Section 34 hereof shall be made without the written approval of said Board.

The Company shall purchase materials and equipment, and employ engineers, superintendents, clerks, foremen and workmen and shall pay all expenses of every nature, including legal expenses, necessary to the proper, complete and prompt performance of the above mentioned work, upon the lowest advantageous terms and subject to the approval of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and to the actual amount paid by the Company in and about carrying out each and all of the requirements of this section, shall be added ten per cent. of such amount as a fair and proper allowance to the Company for conducting the said work and furnishing said equipment and five per cent. for its services in procuring funds therefor, including brokerage; except that no such percentages shall be allowed on the cost of reconstructing the Van Buren street tunnel as provided in the first paragraph of Section 34 of this ordinance, or of lowering and removing obstructions to navigation in the Chicago River under the ordinance of the City of Chicago relating thereto, passed June 18th, A. D. 1906.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, make a report in writing, dated the first day of such month, to the City Comptroller of the amount of money actually expended during the previous month by the Company with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers in and about carrying out the requirements of this section together with the percentages of such amount in the next preceding paragraph provided for, and all amounts contributed by the Company to the cost of the said subway system or extensions thereof together with five per cent. of the amounts so contributed; and the interest provided in Section 25 hereof as a deduction from gross receipts shall begin to run upon the total amount of each such certificate from and after the date thereof.

The amount or amounts so certified by the said Board of Supervising Engineers (including the said additional percentages thereof as hereinabove provided) shall be final and binding upon both parties hereto and shall be conclusively held and taken as the cost of the said construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions to plant and property, including subways, underground trolleys, tunnel re-construction, new lines, and other additions to plant and property, which shall be paid by the said City upon the taking over of the said street railway system as in this ordinance provided, except that said Board may at any time within sixty (60) days after the date of any such certificate correct any error or omission therein.

The cost of such construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions and additions, including said percentages, not exceeding the amount so certified, together with all amounts contributed by the Company to the City for the construction of subways or extensions thereof, with five per cent. of said last named amounts added thereto, may be represented by bonds or obligations to be held, negotiated or sold by the Company, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of February and August in each year, maturing not earlier than twenty years after the passage of this ordinance, in denominations not less than five hundred dollars each, redeemable at par and accrued interest, after published notice, on any day appointed for the payment of interest. Such bonds or obligations may be secured by a mortgage or deed of trust, which shall comply with all the provisions of this ordinance and the form of which shall be submitted to and be subject to the approval of a Trust Company qualified to act as depositary under the terms of this ordinance, to be selected by the Mayor of the City of Chicago, as containing (the circumstances considered) no provision unusual or unreasonable in character. The Company shall not at any time create any lien or encumbrance upon the property or rights conveyed by said mortgage or deed of trust or any part thereof superior to that securing said bonds and obligations. Provided, however, that the Company shall not be authorized to make or issue said bonds or obligations to an aggregate amount exceeding the amount certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, nor shall the City be bound to recognize any of said bonds or obligations as having been authorized by this ordinance unless and until there shall be endorsed thereon by the City Comptroller or other officer or agent of the City designated by ordinance, a certificate to the effect that such bond or obligation is one of the bonds or obligations by this section authorized. To the extent that the amount certified by said Board of Supervising Engineers (including said percentages) shall not be represented by bonds and obligations as aforesaid, a lien shall exist in favor of the Company, its successors and assigns, of equal rank and like character to that securing the said bonds and obligations hereinabove authorized.

The said Board of Supervising Engineers shall have the power to determine what work shall be treated as construction, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, extensions, new lines, underground trolleys, tunnel re-construction, or additions to plant or property to be paid for by the Company out of the capital funds to be provided by it for that purpose, and what shall be treated as maintenance, repairs and renewals, to be paid for out of the gross receipts of the Company from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized. But any such determination of said Board shall be governed by the following provisions:

During the three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation" seventy (70) per cent. of the gross receipts shall be set apart and shall be used so far as required in defraying the operating expenses, including maintenance and repairs, and the residue of said seventy (70) per cent. shall be applied to the cost of renewals and no part of the cost of any renewal paid for out of such seventy (70) per cent. shall be charged to additional capital, and all expenditures for renewals during said three (3) years in excess of such residue of said seventy (70) per cent. shall be charged to capital account.

After such three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the cost of renewals shall be paid as provided in Section 16 hereof, but such expenditures (and only such expenditures) as are made for the purpose of extensions of or additions to property shall be thereafter considered as additions to capital, provided, however, that in the replacement of any principal part of the property, either existing or hereafter acquired, there shall be charged to capital the excess amount that the new property cost over the original cost of the property displaced, excepting that the value of property contained in the appraisal inventory of the property of the Company, referred to in paragraph 1 of Section 20 hereof, shall be used instead of first cost for all property listed in such appraisal inventory.

REMOVAL OF TRACKS.

SECTION 8. The Company shall forthwith remove all tracks now owned, operated or maintained by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company which it is not expressly authorized by this ordinance hereafter to maintain and operate. If it shall hereafter cease to operate over any of its tracks or any portion thereof, it shall remove such unused tracks upon the order of the City Council. Failure to operate cars for the carriage of passengers at least once each way within every hour of each day between the hours of six (6) A. M. and eight (8) P. M. over any part of a street or public place in which tracks of the Company are laid, shall be treated as a cessation of operation of its tracks in such part of street or public place within the meaning of this section, unless such operation is interfered with by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes or litigation brought without connivance of the Company; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not be construed to require or authorize the removal of curves or turn-outs or of connecting tracks specifically authorized by this ordinance or the exhibits hereto to be constructed and maintained for use during rush hours or for emergency use in case of fire or accident, or such tracks as may be necessary for a connection with the Company's property used for street railway purposes.

The City shall have the right by ordinance to require the Company to remove any tracks or portions thereof, the further maintenance of which is at any time no longer warranted by the traffic, or reasonably required in the operation of the said street railway system, provided that the Company shall not be required to remove such tracks but may maintain or reconstruct and operate the same during the life of this grant so long as or whenever the City shall permit the construction or operation of any street railways upon the streets or parts of streets respectively from which such tracks have been so required to be removed and in every case of removal of tracks as aforesaid, the Company shall restore the street or public way to the condition of the other portions thereof, all at its own cost, such cost to be treated as an operating expense.

If the Company shall fail within a reasonable time (not to exceed 30 days) to remove any such tracks on order of the Commissioner of Public Works, the said City may remove them, charging the expense thereof to the Company; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall relieve the Company from its obligations at all times to render adequate service on its street railways.

RIGHT TO SELL UNNECESSARY PROPERTY.

SECTION 9. The Company shall not hereafter sell, or permit to be sold to others, any of the property now in the possession of, and operated by, the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company or hereafter acquired by said Receivers or by the Company as an addition to or extension of, or for use in connection with the said street railways, except as the same may become unnecessary or unadapted to the proper operation and maintenance of said street railways under the terms of this ordinance, and before making any such sale the Company shall secure the written approval of such sale and of the amount and terms thereof by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and such written approval of said Board shall be conclusive of the right of the Company to sell and transfer complete title to the purchaser, who shall not be obliged to look to the application of the proceeds of such sale.

In the event of any such sale made during the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the proceeds shall be deducted from the amount allowed to the Company for such reconstruction, and in the event of a sale after such "Immediate Rehabilitation" is completed, the proceeds thereof shall be deposited with the depositary or depositaries selected under the provisions of Section 16 of this ordinance and shall constitute a part of and an addition to the reserve fund provided for in said section for Renewals and Depreciation.

The value of any such property sold after February 1, 1907, and before the acceptance of this ordinance, (not less, however, than the value thereof specified in the appraisal inventory referred to in Section 20 of this ordinance) although the Company may not have made such sale or have received the proceeds thereof, shall be accounted for by the Company as provided in the case of sales made by the Company during the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," and as if such sales had been made by the Company.

SERVICE REGULATIONS.

SECTION 10. The Company hereby agrees to comply with all reasonable regulations of the service of the said street railway system which may be prescribed from time to time by the City Council of said City and that the approval of any such regulation by the Board of Supervising Engineers shall be binding upon the Company (but not upon the City) as to the reasonableness thereof.

STYLE OF CARS.

All passenger cars operated by the Company shall be used for the carriage of passengers only. All such cars hereafter built or purchased shall be of the best and most approved finish, style and design to be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers; they shall have center aisles; they shall be without running footboards along the sides, and shall be equipped with sufficient motor capacity. Cross-seats facing forward shall be used, but longitudinal seats each seating not more than four passengers, may be used at the ends of the cars. All closed cars shall be vestibuled, and shall be of the style and description specified and provided in said "Exhibit B," and at least 225 cars of such description shall be acquired by and placed in operation upon the tracks of the Company within one (1) year from the passage of this ordinance, exclusive of delays occasioned by strikes or other causes beyond the control of the Company.

PUSH BUTTONS.

All cars operated by the Company shall be supplied with a sufficient number of electric bells, connections and push buttons to enable passengers without inconvenience to notify the conductor of their desire to leave the car.

FENDERS.

BRAKES.

Each double-truck car shall be equipped with two sets of brakes, one of which shall be a hand-brake and the other an efficient power-brake of modern, improved type.

CLEANLINESS AND VENTILATION.

Said cars shall at all times be kept clean and in good repair, and shall be thoroughly ventilated.

HEATING.

The said cars shall be kept heated at the temperature of fifty (50) degrees Fahrenheit, as nearly as practicable, and each car shall contain a standard thermometer appropriately placed to enable passengers to see that this provision is complied with.

LIGHTING.

All cars shall be kept well and sufficiently illuminated by electric light or other illuminants approved by said Board of Supervising Engineers.

SIGNS.

Each car shall bear appropriate and conspicuous signs upon both its sides and ends so placed as to indicate, both day and night, the route and destination of such car. At night such signs shall be illuminated.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Company may permit advertisements in its cars, but no advertisement shall be placed upon the outside of any car, and only the space between the top of the windows and the transom of the car shall be used for advertisements on the inside of cars.

FUNERAL CARS AND MAIL CARS.

SINGLE CARS ONLY.

Every electric car shall be in charge and under the control of two competent men, a motorman and a conductor, and (after the expiration of one year from the date of the passage of this ordinance, or at such earlier time as the Company shall be able to acquire the necessary rolling stock to enable it to abandon trailers) shall be operated singly.

RATES OF FARE.

SECTION 11. The Company, except as to chartered cars to private parties and as in this ordinance provided, shall be entitled to charge passengers, during the term of this ordinance, the following rates of fare, to wit:

For a continuous trip in one general direction, within the limits of the City, over its street railways covered by this ordinance and all extensions thereof (whether owned, leased or operated by it) the sum of five cents (5c) for each passenger twelve years of age or over, and three cents (3c) for each passenger under twelve (12) years of age; provided that children under seven (7) years of age accompanied by a person paying fare shall be permitted to ride free.

UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS.

Every such passenger may demand and upon such demand shall receive from the conductor of the car upon which he first takes passage, or from some authorized agent of the Company, a transfer. Said transfer shall entitle such passenger to ride upon any other line of said street railway system owned, leased or operated by the Company, or any other line of street railway operated by any other Company from which the Company is by this ordinance obligated to accept transfers, which connects with, crosses, intersects or comes within a distance of two hundred (200) feet of the line of said street railway upon which the passenger first took passage and paid his fare. But this obligation shall not apply to any connecting point in the South Division of the City of Chicago north of Twelfth street, except that upon the completion and operation of subways under the provisions of this ordinance, transfers shall be given at all points within said subways where lines of railway of any company or companies, which are required by this ordinance to issue or receive transfers, connect with each other.

The payment of a single fare shall not entitle a passenger to reverse his general direction of travel. If necessary to enable a passenger to reach his destination the conductor or other authorized agent of the Company shall issue without additional charge, a transfer upon a transfer, the same as required upon payment of a cash fare; the intention being that for a single fare the Company shall carry any passenger for a single continuous ride over any of the said lines of street railway owned, operated or leased by it, within the limits of the said City, so long as such ride is in the same general direction, although some of the lines necessary to be used by such passenger in arriving at his destination intersect or cross one another.

In every instance the transfer given to a passenger may designate the point or place of transfer, and the same must be used at such point or place, within a reasonable time, not exceeding fifteen (15) minutes after such point or place is reached by the car from which the passenger is transferred, provided that within said fifteen minutes a car shall pass such point or place of transfer in the direction and upon the route indicated by said transfer; but if no car shall pass such point within said time the passenger shall have the right to take the first available car passing such point in the direction indicated upon the passenger's transfer. A passenger upon any car delayed through the fault, negligence or inability of the Company shall be entitled to receive a transfer to a car upon the nearest line of the Company going in the same general direction as the delayed car.

The Company shall also on its cars accept and honor as fares, transfers issued by any other corporation to passengers upon any line of street railway covered or authorized by the said ordinance to the Chicago City Railway Company, hereinabove referred to as presented for passage in the City Council of said City, concurrently with this ordinance, which connects with any of said lines of the Company, under the same conditions and with like effect as though both lines of street railway were owned by the Company and the transfers were issued under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance.

The Company shall also accept and honor as fares transfers issued by the Chicago General Railway Company at all points where the railway lines of the Company connect with or intersect the lines of said Chicago General Railway Company, constructed and in operation at the time of the passage of this ordinance, with like effect as though both said lines of street railway were owned by the Company and the transfers were issued under the foregoing provisions of this ordinance; upon condition, however, that said Chicago General Railway Company shall accept and honor at such transfer points, as fares, transfers issued by the Company.

The said proposed arrangement contemplates that in every instance the street railway company accepting any such transfers shall give to the passenger presenting it the same accommodations and the same transfers, if requested, to its other line or lines, as such passenger would be entitled to receive if he had paid a cash fare.

The Company, acting by itself or in conjunction with the other companies to which the provisions of this Section apply, may, with the approval of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, adopt reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance, for the transfer of passengers as provided for herein, and for the prevention of the fraudulent use of transfer privileges.

NO PASSES: EMPLOYES, POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN FREE.

SECTION 12. No passes of any kind or description shall be issued or given to any person, and no person, except employes of the Company, policemen and firemen, respectively, in full uniform, shall be permitted to ride upon any street railway without the payment of the full rate of fare prescribed in this ordinance; provided that the Company may issue to its employes free tickets for use while engaged in the performnace of their duties, and may permit them to ride free when wearing an official badge of the Company conspicuously in view. The Company shall keep a record of the number of such free tickets and to whom issued.

MAIL CARRIERS.

In the event that the United States Post Office Department shall pay to the Company a sum of money based upon the system of sales of tickets in effect between the Post Office Department and the Company for the use of letter carriers during the year 1906, the said amount of money to be not less than Ten Thousand, One Hundred, Five Dollars and Sixty-five Cents ($10,105.65) per annum, with proportionate increase in said amount for any increase in the number of letter carriers employed in the City of Chicago over the number of such carriers so employed in the year 1906, then the Comapny shall carry on its street railways United States letter carriers in full uniform, at all times, without the payment of fare.

THROUGH ROUTES.

SECTION 13. The Company will co-operate with any corporation operating the street railway in Halsted street, from O'Neil street south, to operate a through line of cars in said street. Whenever the said City shall so direct and shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway in Western avenue, south of the South Branch of the Chicago River, a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company shall co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; also, whenever the said City shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway in Kedzie avenue, south of said South Branch, a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company will co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; and, also, whenever the said City shall grant to the Company and to any corporation operating a street railway in Ashland avenue, south of said South Branch, a license or franchise to connect their lines in said avenue, the Company shall co-operate with such other corporation to operate a through line of cars in said avenue; and said corporations shall thereafter operate and maintain said through lines of cars in the said streets and avenues, respectively; provided, that the Company shall only be required to operate said through lines across or over any river or canal, when the said City or some third party shall provide and maintain a bridge across the same upon which it may operate its cars.

The Company will co-operate with any corporation or corporations operating such of the street railway lines now operated by the Chicago City Railway Company as may be parts of the through routes in this ordinance or in "Exhibit C" referred to, in establishing and maintaining through lines of cars over the street railway lines of the Company and the street railway lines of the Chicago City Railway system entering the South Division of the said City, north of Twelfth street, which shall carry passengers from the North and West Divisions of the said City to the South Division of the said City, or in the reverse directions, through the portion of the South Division of said City north of Twelfth street, for a single fare.

As many cars shall be operated upon said through lines as the traffic shall require and warrant.

The parties now concerned have agreed upon certain through routes which are particularly described in "Exhibit C," which is attached hereto and made a part hereof, with the same force and effect as if herein fully set out.

The Company may establish other through routes from time to time and may discontinue the same, if and when the traffic warrants such establishment or discontinuance; but no through route specifically established by this ordinance and said Exhibit "C" shall be discontinued without the consent of the City Council of said City, and the City may by ordinance at any time require the Company to re-establish any through route and to establish new and additional through routes whenever the traffic warants or requires such establishment or re-establishment; provided, however, that if the Company shall consider that the traffic does not in fact warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of any through route so required by the City to be established or re-established, then in such case it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervising Engineers, upon demand either of the City or of the Company to furnish the certificate of said Board certifying as to whether or not, in the opinion of said Board, the traffic does warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of such through route, and such certificate of the Board of Supervising Engineers shall be prima facie evidence as to whether, in fact, the traffic does or does not warrant or require the establishment or re-establishment of such through route; and the obligation of the Company in respect to such routes shall be governed by such certificate pending a judicial determination of its obligations in respect to the establishment or re-establishment of any such through route under this ordinance.

The through routes herein mentioned shall be established and put in operation immediately after the necessary reconstruction of the tracks covered by such routes.

To carry out the establishment of the through lines provided for in this Section, the Company will enter into a reasonable operating agreement approved by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, with any other corporation or corporations concerned, whenever required by the said City. If the Company and the corporation or corporations operating the lines of street railway constituting said through routes, or any of them, shall be unable or fail to agree upon terms as between themselves for establishing, maintaining and operating all of said through routes within sixty (60) days after the passage of this ordinance, then and in such case it shall be the duty of the Board of Supervising Engineers to fix and determine the basis and terms, as between said Company and said corporation or corporations, upon which said through routes shall be established, maintained and operated and to notify each of the companies operating the lines of street railway constituting said through routes of said basis and terms, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Company to proceed forthwith to establish, maintain and operate said through routes upon the basis and terms so fixed and determined by said Board of Supervising Engineers. Said companies may by agreement (with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers) modify such basis and terms or they failing to agree, the Board of Supervising Engineers may from time to time modify said basis and terms as to said Board shall seem fit and just.

STREET SPRINKLING AND CLEANING.

SECTION 14. The Company shall sprinkle, sweep, keep clean and free from snow that portion of each of the streets occupied by its right-of-way, as provided in "Exhibit B," and if it shall be found practicable to have the streets occupied by its tracks swept and sprinkled their entire width by the Company, or to have street sweepings, garbage or other refuse removed by means of street cars at night, the Company shall perform said service, or so much thereof as shall prove practicable, when so ordered by the Mayor and Commissioner of Public Works, and it shall receive for such service reasonable compensation. In case the Company is called upon to remove street sweepings or other refuse, the said City shall furnish suitable and convenient dumping grounds and permit the connection of the Company's tracks therewith. The Company shall have the right to carry on suitable cars the snow required by this ordinance to be removed by it, and also, materials for its own use or for the use of the said City, and to connect its tracks and wires with property necessary to be used for such purposes.

STREET PAVING.

GROOVED RAILS.

MAINTENANCE, REPAIRS, RENEWALS AND DEPRECIATION.

SECTION 16. After the expiration of the three (3) year period of reconstruction and re-equipment, particularly required by the terms of said "Exhibit B," under the heading of "Immediate Rehabilitation" and until the rights conferred upon the Company by this ordinance are terminated by the purchase of the said street railway system by the said City or its licensee or by reason of the default of the Company or otherwise, the Company at all times while in possession of said system of street railways shall maintain the said system and its entire equipment, plant and appurtenances (including pavement, tunnels and any subways or extensions thereof, together wtih their appurtenances and equipment, which may be built under the provisions of this ordinance) in first class condition, by making from time to time such expenditures thereon for maintenance, repairs and renewals, as may be necessary or appropriate to give to the public first class street railway service in all respects. To this end, the Company shall make the following expenditures:

(1) The Company shall expend for Maintenance and Repairs during each and every year that the Company continues to operate said street railway system after the expiration of the said three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," at least a sum equal to six (6) per cent. of the gross receipts for the particular year, and if the said amount is not so expended for the said purpose by the Company during any one year, then at the end of such year the unexpended portion thereof shall be deposited in a fund, appropriately designated, with one or more of the banks or trust companies authorized to act as depositaries of such funds, under the terms and subject to the conditions of this ordinance (herein referred to as the depositary) for the purpose of being used whenever necessary for such Maintenance and Repairs.

The said depositaries or depositary shall make payment out of said fund upon the order of the Company, countersigned by the said Board of Supervising penditures:

(2) On or before the fifth (5th) day of each and every month of each and every year that the Company continues to operate said street railway system after the expiration of said three (3) year period of "Immediate Rehabilitation," the Company shall deposit with one or more of the said depositaries in a separate fund, appropriately designated, a sum equal to eight (8) per cent. of the gross receipts of said street railways and property for the preceding month, which shall constitute a reserve fund, for taking care of Renewals and Depreciation of said street railways and property; and out of the said fund the Board of Supervising Engineers shall from time to time authorize the payment by the Company of such amounts as are necessary to pay for renewals of the said street railways and property, the portion of said fund remaining unexpended to continue in said fund as a provision for the depreciation of said street railways and property and shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided. No payments shall be made by said Company out of said fund, except on the written certificate of the Board of Supervising Engineers, for renewals, which are hereby defined to be the replacement of any principal part of said street railways or of their equipment or appurtenances; and the Board of Supervising Engineers shall determine by classifications made from time to time what particular items of expenditure shall be considered as Renewals and what particular items of expenditure shall be considered as Maintenance and Repairs under the provisions of this ordinance.

The whole or any portion of such reserve fund for Maintenance and Repairs may be used for maintenance and repairs in addition to the annual expenditure for Maintenance and Repairs. The fixing of the said amount herein as the minimum amount to be expended annually for Maintenance and Repairs, and the fixing of the said amount herein as the minimum amount to be deposited for Renewals and Depreciation, shall not be held or considered as lessening or limiting in any way the obligation of the Company to expend whatever sum or sums may be necessary to be expended for Maintenance and Repairs and to expend whatever sum or sums may be necessary for Renewals, to keep the said street railway system and equipment in first class condition in every respect and at all times.

The amounts expended or deposited respectively as reserve funds, under the foregoing provisions of this Section, shall be considered a part of the Operating Expenses of the street railway system hereby authorized, but in the event that the said street railway system shall be purchased by the said City, or its licensee, at any time under the provisions of this ordinance, the amount then on deposit in each of said reserve funds, or due to be deposited therein at the time of such purchase, shall be turned over to and become the property of the said City or of its said licensee.

The obligation herein assumed by the Company as to the maintenance, repairs and renewals of subways and extensions thereof, shall be held to be confined to that portion of any such subways or extensions, together with the structures and the appurtenances and equipment thereof, which may be used by or be subject to the use of, the said Company under the provisions of this ordinance, and to its fair proportionate share of the cost of maintenance, repairs and renewals of that part of any such subway or extensions or the appurtenances or equipment thereof, which may be used by or be subject to the use of the Company jointly with the said City or with the said Chicago City Railway Company, such proportionate amount to be fixed and determined by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

INSURANCE.

SECTION 17. The Company shall at all times keep insured to its full insurable value, in responsible companies, all buildings, cars and other insurable property, against loss by fire, and the premiums for such insurance shall be paid out of the receipts of said Company, as one of the operating expenses thereof, and in case of the destruction or damage by fire of any such property, the Company shall restore the same or its substantial equivalent at its own cost and not out of the receipts of its said street railways, or in lieu of such restoration, the Company shall deposit, as a part of the reserve fund required by the preceding Section 16, the value of the property so destroyed or damaged, which value shall be estimated by the Board of Supervising Engineers. The Company shall apply to any such deposit or to the cost of any such restoration the insurance moneys received on account of any such loss or damage. If such moneys are not equal in amount to the cost of such restoration or to the amount of the said deposit hereinabove required, the Company will at its own cost and not out of the receipts of said street railway system supply any deficit, and if the amount of such insurance moneys is greater than the said cost or deposit, the overplus shall be deposited with and become a part of and be an addition to the fund provided for in the preceding Section 16 for Renewals and Depreciation.

PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS.

SECTION 18. Out of the gross receipts derived from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized the Company shall pay as a part of the operating expenses, all damages arising or growing out of injuries to persons or to the property of others incident to the construction, reconstruction or operation of said street railway system accruing subsequent to January 31st, A. D. 1907, and the Company may set aside as a separate fund such percentage of said gross receipts as the said Board of Supervising Engineers shall estimate to be sufficient to protect the Company against all such claims, to the end that if the said City, or its licensee, shall elect to purchase the street railway property of the Company as provided by this ordinance, there shall be then available to the Company a fund sufficient to meet and discharge all legitimate claims for such damages. The percentage thus reserved may be changed from time to time by said Board of Supervising Engineers if and whenever they shall consider that the percentage theretofore reserved is either inadequate or excessive.

In case the balance of said fund at any time remaining shall be, in the judgment of the Board of Supervising Engineers, more than sufficient to protect the Company against all then unsettled claims, the Company shall pay to the said City fifty-five (55) per cent of the estimated excess, and the Company at the same time shall be entitled to apply to its own use and benefit forty-five (45) per cent of such estimated excess.

If the said City or its licensee shall purchase the property of the Company as in this ordinance provided or in case the Company shall become bound to deliver possession of said system of street railways to the City or any licensee of the City in pursuance of any of the provisions of this ordinance, the Company shall deposit with one or more of the depositaries herein authorized the fund then accumulated under the provisions of this Section, together with such of the "net receipts" of the Company from the operation of its street railways as shall not have been divided between the Company and the City prior to the giving of the notice by the City or its licensee of its intention to purchase or to take possession of said system of street railways, and the Company shall assume and pay and save the said City or such licensee harmless from all such claims for damages, payment for the same to be made out of the fund so deposited upon the order of the Company countersigned by the said Board of Supervising Engineers; but if the fund so retained and deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay and discharge said claims in full, then the said depositary or depositaries shall pay to the said City (or its licensee, as the case may be) fifty-five (55) per cent of such excess and to the Company forty-five (45) per cent of such excess. If after taking posession of said system of street railways, the City or its licensee shall become bound by any of provisions of this ordinance to restore such possession to the Company, the depositary or depositaries holding such fund shall deliver the same to the custody of the Company to be thereafter held and dealt with as though the Company's possession had not been interrupted.

The salaries and expenses of the Board of Supervising Engineers after any such purchase and so long as said Board shall continue to act under the provisions of this ordinance shall be paid out of the fund deposited under the provisions of this section.

REGULATION OF SALARIES.

SECTION 19. The Company may pay to the directors, officers, agents and attorneys of the Company as a part of the operating expenses, compensation for their services commensurate with the service actually rendered by them respectively, taking into consideration the compensation paid to directors, officers, agents and attorneys of other corporations or enterprises of similar magnitude and general character for like services, but the said City by written notice thereof may object to the payment thereafter of compensation in excess of an amount or rate specified in such objection to any such director, officer, agent or attorney, and in the event of a disagreement between the Company and the said City as to the proper amount to be paid as such compensation, the matter shall be submitted to the judgment of the said Board of Supervising Engineers whose decision shall be final and binding upon the parties, except that, if either party shall be dissatisfied with such decision of said Board, then such dissatisfied party may make application to any court of competent jurisdiction to pass upon such objection and to determine the amount of the compensation or salary to be paid.

RIGHT OF CITY TO PURCHASE AT ANY TIME.

SECTION 20. The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance, shall and does grant to the said City, and the said City hereby reserves to itself the right, upon the first day of February or upon the first day of August of each and any year after such acceptance upon giving at least six (6) months' previous notice in writing of its intention so to do, to purchase and take over (but only for municipal operation in case of purchase prior to February 1, A. D. 1927), the entire street railway system of the Company within the said City, including all property then existing which now constitutes the said street railway system in the possession of and operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, with all renewals and repairs thereof, and including all the property, franchises, rights and claims described in the appraisal inventory of said street railway system as of June 30, 1906, made by Bion J. Arnold, Mortimer E. Cooley and A. B. duPont, a copy of which has been filed with the Comptroller of the said City, on the ..... day of ..... A. D. 1907, except such as may have been sold as authorized by this ordinance, or destroyed or impaired (ordinary wear excepted), and all property then existing which has been purchased or acquired by the Company or by said Receivers, after June 30, 1906, for use as a part of or in connection with the said system of street railways, the cost of which shall have been certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, as in this Section and in Section 7 hereof provided, and all property purchased or acquired by the Company after the passage of this ordinance, and also all extensions of and additions to said street railways made under the provisions of this ordinance (including tunnels and underground trolleys, if any), and all rights of every kind under this ordinance in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under the provisions of this ordinance.

PRICE TO BE PAID BY CITY.

In case the said City shall purchase and take over the street railway system of the Company, as in this ordinance provided, then it shall pay for the same the aggregate of the following items:

1. The value of the property described in said appraisal inventory and the value of all the franchises, rights and claims of every description, to construct, maintain or operate street railways and tunnels in the said City now belonging to or claimed by the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Tunnel Company, the Chicago Passenger Railway Company, the North Chicago City Railway Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company, the Chicago Union Traction Company, or any of them, or by the Receivers of any of them, or by any person or corporation claiming under or through any of them (excepting the rights and claims of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, hereinafter referred to), which said value of such property and all of said franchises, rights and claims is hereby fixed (for the purpose of such purchase) at the sum of Twenty-nine Million Dollars ($29,000,000).

2. The value of any and all property and equipment and additions thereto supplied, purchased or acquired by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company as a part of said street railway system, including tunnel reconstruction between the 30th day of June, A. D. 1906, and February 1st, A. D. 1907, including any equipment and additions threto which were in process on June 30th, 1906, of being so supplied, purchased or acquired, but excluding any property described in the aforesaid inventory, and repairs to and maintenance thereof and any expenditures in connection therewith properly chargeable to operating expenses. From such value shall be deducted the value of any property included in said inventory which shall have been destroyed or impaired (ordinary wear excepted) after the 30th day of June, A. D. 1906, and prior to the 1st day of February, A. D. 1907. The value to be allowed under this paragraph Number 2 of this Section shall be determined by the Board of Supervising Engineers immediately after the assumption by said Board of their duties in supervising the work of reconstruction and re-equipment in this ordinance provided for, and shall be reported by said Board to the City Comptroller of said City; and the amount so reported by said Board shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and shall be conclusively held and taken as the value of the property and equipment in this paragraph specified.

the title of the Company shall not be complete and free from any lien or encumbrance (other than such as are herein expressly authorized to be created), that portion of the purchase price specified in subdivisions 1 and 2 of this Section, or so much thereof as the City in its absolute discretion shall deem necessary to be reserved as security, shall be deposited with one or more of the depositaries appointed in accordance with this ordinance, in trust to secure the performance by the Company of its obligations expressed in Section 1 hereof to perfect the title to said street railway system and to provide moneys sufficient to enable the City to perfect such title and to remove liens and encumbrances therefrom, and to indemnify the City against the expenses of such proceedings. The moneys so deposited shall be paid out from time to time by the depositary or depositaries upon the order of the City or the Company for any of the purposes aforesaid, or to reimburse the City or the Company for expenditures made for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them. The certificate of the Mayor of said City or a certified copy of a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company may be accepted by any such depositary as conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated to warrant any such payment, and shall constitute full authority and protection to such depositary. Provided, that the City shall have the right to designate by ordinance an officer or agent of the City without whose approval no such payment shall be made.

3. The cost of reconstruction and re-equipment of said street railway lines of the Company and of the construction of new lines, extensions, underground trolleys, tunnel re-construction, and other additions to property actually paid by said Company at and prior to said purchase by said City and certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, or incurred for work actually done or materials furnished with the approval of said Board under completed or pending contracts except those for which special provision is made in subdivision 4 of this Section, together with the percentages thereon as in Section 7 hereof provided, and all amounts which shall then have been contributed by the Company to the City for the construction of subways or extensions thereof, together with five (5) per cent of said last named amounts as hereinbefore provided. Provided that the City may at its option, to be declared by ordinance, either pay or deposit in cash to the order of the Company the portion of the purchase price specified in this subdivision (3) as in this Section provided, or in lieu thereof take over the property purchased by it subject to whatever lien may then exist under and in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of this ordinance for the security of the bonds or obligations thereby authorized and for the security of the Company in respect of such part of said portion of the purchase price so certified as may not be represented by such bonds or obligations. The City shall have the right, if it elects to take subject to such lien to acquire any or all of the bonds and obligations thereby secured from the holders thereof on any day appointed for the payment of interest, by publishing notice of its intention to do so in like manner as shall be provided in the mortgage or deed of trust mentioned in Section 7 of this ordinance, in case of the exercise by the Company of the right of redemption and by depositing with the trustee or depositary designated in said bonds or in the mortgage or deed of trust securing the same, as in case of redemption, prior to the day specified in such notice, a sum equal to the principal amount of all the said bonds and obligations designated in such notice with interest to said day and, such publication having been completed and such deposit made, said bonds and obligations so designated shall not after the day specified in such notice nor shall any of them be entitled to the benefit or security of any lien upon the system of street railways hereby authorized except and until the said bonds or obligations shall respectively be surendered to the trustee or depositary specified in said notice, upon payment of an amount equal to the principal thereof and the accrued interest thereon to the date specified in such notice, and such bonds or obligations shall thereafter be held by such trustee or depositary for the account of the City and delivered to or upon the order of the City. If less than the whole number of said bonds and obligations outstanding are to be acquired at any time by the City, the particular bonds or obligations to be so acquired shall be selected by lot in the manner to be provided in said mortgage or deed of trust, with respect to the selection of bonds or obligations for redemption. Such bonds or obligations when so acquired, shall have equal force and validity and be equally secured by lien upon said system of street railways as when in the hands of the original holders.

4. After the giving of the notice of the election of the said City to purchase said street railway system of the Company, as herein provided, and prior to the date fixed for said purchase, the said Board of Supervising Engineers shall make a written estimate (and furnish a copy therof to the said Company and the said City) of the probable cost of completing any work of construction or equipment provided for by this ordinance, including the construction of new lines, extensions, underground trolleys, tunnel re-construction, or other additions to property and including any extensions of the street railway system of said Company made under the provisions of Section 38 hereof, which work has, and to the extent to which it has, prior to the date of giving said notice, been contracted for by said Company, with the approval of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and (except in the case of the improvement of property as to which the title of the Company is defective, in which case the City may, however, at its option, act hereunder as though such title were not defective without thereby waiving any defect) the said City shall either take over and assume said contracts and procure the release of the Company from all obligation thereunder, or the said City shall, at or prior to the date of the said purchase of the street railway system of said Company, deposit with a depositary or depositaries (authorized to act as such by this ordinance) a sufficient amount of money to pay the cost of completing such contracts according to the said estimate of the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the said Company shall proceed, with all due diligence and care, to complete said contracts at its own expense and under the supervision of said Board of Supervising Engineers, and the cost of completing the said contracts after the date of such purchase by the City, together with the said additional percentages thereof, shall be paid from time to time by the said depositary or depositaries out of the funds so deposited, upon the written certificates of the said Board of Supervising Engineers. In the event that the said amount so deposited shall not be sufficient to pay the said cost, including said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof, the said City shall pay such additional amount as may be necessary for such purpose, and in the event that the amount so deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay the said cost, the unexpended balance shall be returned and paid over to the City by the said depositary or depositaries holding the same, and in no event shall the Company be obligated to incur a greater expense in carrying out said contract than the amount so deposited, and in no event shall there be paid to the Company or upon its order out of the amount so deposited any sum in excess of the actual cost to it of completing such contract or contracts, exclusive of said additional percentages, until full performance of its obligations to perfect the title to said street railway system purchased by the City if incomplete and to provide the City with any moneys necessary to enable the City to perfect such title, if incomplete, and to remove liens and encumbrances therefrom, if any, (other than such as are expressly authorized by Section 7 of this ordinance to be created) and to indemnify the City against the expense of such proceedings as may be necessary for any or all the purposes above specified.

PAYMENT OR DEPOSIT OF PURCHASE PRICE.

Upon the deposit of the sum, if any, required by the above and foregoing paragraph numbered 4 of this Section and the payment to the Company, or the deposit in accordance with the foregoing provisions, in cash of the amounts hereinbefore in paragraphs numbered 1, 2 and 3 of this Section provided for (subject however, to the right of the City to take title subject to certain liens and obligations as in this ordinance provided), or the deposit of said amounts to the extent that the same are immediately payable to the Company, to the order of the Company with one or more of the depositaries authorized to act as such by this ordinance the said City shall have full right and lawful authority, after the notice and upon any of the dates hereinbefore fixed, to take over and possess, as its own property, all the property, plant and equipment of every sort and nature (including tunnels and underground trolleys), then constituting the street railway system of the Company, and all rights of every kind under this ordinance in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under the provisions of this ordinance free and clear of all liens and claims of every nature, other than those recognized and used by the City in reduction of the purchase price; except that the said City shall take subject to the payment of a fractional part of the unpaid taxes for the current year upon the said property, rights and equipment, equal to the fractional part of the year for which such taxes have been levied or assessed remaining unexpired at the date of such purchase, and the balance of the taxes shall be treated and paid as a part of the operating expenses prior to the sale of the property.

The property to the possession of which the said City shall then be entitled shall include all of the property then existing which now constitutes the said street railway system with its appurtenances in the possession of or maintained or operated by the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company, including all the property, franchises, rights and claims described in said appraisal inventory and all of the property purchased or acquired by the Company or by said Receivers after June 30, 1906, for use as a part of or in connection with the said system of street railways, the cost of which shall have been certified by the Board of Supervising Engineers, as in this section and in Section 7 hereof provided, and all extensions of, or additions to, said street railways, including tunnels and underground trolleys constructed under the provisions of this ordinance, and all rights of the said Company in or to any subways or extensions thereof constructed under this ordinance, and the sums then on deposit as a reserve fund, under the provisions of Section 16 of this ordinance (excepting such property as may have been sold as in this ordinance authorized, or worn out or destroyed: Provided, that in case of property destroyed and not then replaced in kind or in value as provided in Section 17 of this ordinance, adjustment shall forthwith be made at the time of such purchase and the obligation of the Company in that behalf discharged, either in cash or by deduction from the purchase price).

The Company further grants to the said City, and the said City hereby reserve to itself the right (in addition to the right of purchase hereinbefore granted and reserved) to purchase and take over from the Company at any time prior to February 1st, A. D. 1927, the street railway system, rights and property of the Company, free from any limitation and restriction as to the operation thereof, at the same times and in the same manner at and upon which the City has the right under the foregoing provisions of this section to purchase the same. The price to be paid therefor by the City under the right of purchase in this clause granted and reserved shall be the price at which the City shall then have the right to purchase said property for municipal operation as hereinbefore specified, and in addition to such price a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. of such price.

In the event that it shall be determined that the City is, at the time this ordinance is passed or at the time this ordinance takes effect without lawful power or authority to acquire or own street railways under the provisions of this ordinance or otherwise, and the City shall thereafter acquire such power or authority, thereupon and after such acquirement the City shall have the right to purchase and acquire said street railways, rights and property under the provisions of this ordinance to the same extent and in the same measure as if said City had full right and lawful authority so to purchase or acquire said street railways, rights and property at the date of the passage of this ordinance and at the date when this ordinance takes effect.

CITY PURCHASE DURING RECONSTRUCTION PERIOD.

SECTION 21. In the event that the said City shall elect to exercise its right of purchase, as in this ordinance provided, at any time prior to the completion of the work of construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment within the time and in the manner provided for in said "Exhibit B," under the head of "Immediate Rehabilitation" it shall take over the same subject to the right and obligation of the Company to complete the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" as provided in this ordinance, carrying out the terms and conditions of said "Exhibit B" under the supervision and control of the said Board of Supervising Engineers and receiving therefor the cost thereof and the additional percentages thereon as in Section 7 of this ordinance provided.

In such event, in addition to complying with the provisions of Section 20 of this ordinance, the said City shall deposit at the time of such purchase with some one or more of the banks or trust companies authorized to act as depositaries under the terms of this ordinance a sufficient amount of money to pay for the completion of the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation," not herein otherwise provided, for which said amount shall be estimated and determined by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and shall include said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof.

The said cost of completing the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation," together with said additional percentages thereof shall be paid from time to time by the said depositary or depositaries, out of the funds so deposited with it or them, upon the written certificates of the said Board of Supervising Engineers.

In the event that the said amount so deposited shall not be sufficient to pay the said cost, including said additional percentages provided for in Section 7 hereof, the said City shall pay such additional amount as may be necessary for such purpose.

In the event that the amount so deposited shall be more than sufficient to pay the said cost, the unexpended balance shall be returned and paid over to the said City by the said depositary or depositaries, and in no event shall the Company be obligated to incur a greater expense for the work of such construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment, including underground trolleys, tunnel reconstruction and other additions to plant and property, if any, than the amount so deposited, and in no event shall there be paid to the Company, or upon its order, out of the amount so deposited, any sum in excess of the actual cost to it of completing such work, exclusive of said additional percentages, until full performance of its obligations to perfect the title to said street railway system, if the same be incomplete, and to provide the City wth moneys sufficient to enable the City to perfect such title, if incomplete, and to remove liens and encumbrances therefrom, if any, and to indemnify the City against the expense of such proceedings as may be necessary for any or all the purposes above specified.

RIGHT OF LICENSEE TO PURCHASE.

SECTION 22. The Company by the acceptance of this ordinance shall and does grant to the City, and the City hereby reserves to itself, the right to designate any person, firm or corporation having lawful authority to acquire, own and operate street railways in said City (herein called the "licensee") who or which shall have the right to purchase the street railway system, rights and property of the Company, at the same times and in the same manner at and upon which the City hereunder has the right to purchase the same, subject to the condition that the said licensee shall purchase the same property which the City has herein reserved the right to purchase, and that the price to be paid therefor by the said licensee shall be the price at which the City shall have the right to purchase said property, for municipal operation, and in addition to such price a sum equal to twenty (20) per cent. of such price; but it is expressly provided, however, that the said licensee shall not be required to pay the said additional twenty (20) per cent. or any part thereof, if, before the purchase of said property by such licensee shall be consummated, a valid and binding contract shall be entered into between the City and its licensee, either by the passage of an ordinance and the acceptance thereof or otherwise, which shall limit the beneficial interest of the said licensee and its stockholders, if such licensee is a corporation, in the property purchased and any improvements thereof or additions thereto to a return of the actual moneys invested therein by said licensee and not exceeding five (5) per cent. thereof, in addition thereto, and interest upon the said moneys and the said additional per cent. at a rate not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum, and which shall provide that all net profits derived from the said property in excess of the beneficial interest of said licensee, limited as aforesaid, shall belong and be paid over to the City.

Nothing in this ordinance, however, shall have the effect or be construed to have the effect of lessening or limiting the right of the City to provide for reducing the rates of fare to be charged by such licensee in the operation of said street railway system or from using the moneys so to be paid over to the said City by said licensee for the purpose of retiring from time to time the stock or other securities issued by said licensee, subject to the limitations of this Section, or from using the said moneys in extending or adding to or improving said street railway system.

The licensee of the City shall have the same option which it is provided in Section 20 of this ordinance that the City shall have to take the said property subject to whatever lien may then have been created under and in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of this ordinance, with a like right to acquire the bonds or obligations secured by such lien from the holders thereof on the same terms and in the same manner set forth in said Section 20.

If, at the time appointed for the consummation of such purchase by the City's licensee, the title of the Company shall not be complete and free from lien or encumbrance (other than such as are herein expressly authorized to be created), all the provisions of the foregoing Section 20, with respect to the deposit of a portion of the purchase price as security, shall be applicable; and the City shall have the same powers and rights in respect to perfecting the title of its licensee and removing liens and encumbrances therefrom, as are herein granted or reserved for the perfecting of the City's title in case it purchases for its own account; and the Company shall be subject to the same obligations, both in respect to furnishing moneys and in respect to the application of stocks, securities and evidences of indebtedness acquired, controlled or held by it, for the purpose of perfecting the title of the City's licensee and freeing the same from liens and encumbrances, as are provided in the foregoing Section 20, if the City were the purchaser.

The additional percentage, if any required to be paid by this Section as an addition to the purchase price shall, in the event above specified, be deposited as additional security to that in subdivision 2 of said Section 20 provided, and shall become a part of the fund required by said Section to be held in trust for the purposes and subject to the powers therein specified.

The right of the licensee of the City to acquire the said street railway system, rights and property by purchase under the provisions of this ordinance shall in no way be impaired by any lack of power or authority on the part of the City itself to acquire the said street railway system, rights and property for municipal use and operation or otherwise.

Upon the purchase of the said street railway system, rights and property under the provisions of this ordinance, either by the City or by any licensee of the City, all rights of the Company, its licensees or assigns under this ordinance in or to said street railways, rights and property or any part thereof, or the operation thereof, or the proceeds or receipts thereof, shall wholly cease and determine.

Section 23. In the event that the said street railways are not purchased by the said City or its licensee as hereinabove authorized, prior to February 1, A. D. 1927, (and nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as being in any event a grant to the Company extending beyond February 1, A. D. 1927), the said City shall have the right to designate any person, firm or corporation having lawful authority to acquire, own and operate street railways in said City as its licensee, to purchase the said street railways, property and rights of the Company at or after February 1, A. D. 1927, upon the same terms that the City could then purchase, and in case such reserved right of purchase be not exercised by the said City or its licensee and the City shall grant a right to another company to operate a street railway in the streets and parts of streets constituting the said street railway system of the Company, such new company shall be required to and shall purchase and take over the said street railways, property and rights of the Company at or after February 1, A. D. 1927, upon the same terms upon which the said City might then purchase and take them over.

The Company agrees that it will at all times pay or cause to be paid to t City and save the City harmless against the loss or damage if any which m arise to the City by reason of any diminution of the net receipts payable the City under the provisions of Section 25 of this ordinance occasioned by t said agreements or any of them remaining in effect or by reason of the operati of the street railways under the terms of such agreements or any other operati agreements to which the City has not consented. The amount of such loss, dam or diminution shall be determined annually by the Board of Supervising En neers, and such loss, damage, or diminution shall be paid over to the City the Company at the time of and in connection with the annual accounting a division of the net receipts provided for under Section 25 of this ordinance. is agreed, however, that in determining the amount of loss, damage or diminut the said Board shall take into consideration the value of such use of any lines railway of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company as has been enjoyed by Company for the period of such accounting.

The Company covenants as part of the consideration for the grant of rights and privileges conferred by this ordinance that it will at all times dur the life of this grant secure to passengers the same right of transfer between lines of the Company and the connecting lines of the Chicago Consolidated Tract Company for continuous travel in one general direction for a single fare wit the limits of the City of Chicago as if the said lines of the Company and said lines of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company were owned and operated by the Company under the provisions of this ordinance. But this obligation shall cease as to any particular line of said Chicago Consolidated Traction Company upon the expiration of the right of said Company to operate said line under ordinances heretofore passed unless such right be continued in force by proper ordinance.

The Company shall have the right from time to time to make reasonable rules and regulations (approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers) with respect to the transfer of passengers between the lines of street railway operated by it under this ordinance and the connecting lines of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, which rules and regulations shall, however, be at all times subject to modification by the City Council of the City of Chicago.

In case the Company shall make default in respect to any of the provisions of this section and any such default shall be established by the judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, then and thereupon all rights of the Company hereunder shall cease and determine and the Company will on demand, forthwith surrender to the City or to any licensee of the City, possession of the railways and other property described in Section 20 of this ordinance then in its possession, together with all right, title and interest of the Company in said railways and property and any and all funds then on deposit with any of the depositaries under the provisions of Section 16 of this ordinance and the City or its said licensee (or any assignee of said licensee) shall take over and thereafter operate the same subject to the obligation and upon the condition that it shall pay to the Company or upon its order, out of the receipts from the operation of said railways, 5 per cent. per annum in equal semi-annual installments upon an amount equal to the sum which the City would have had to pay as the purchase price of said property for municipal operation if it had then taken possession thereof as the purchaser under the provisions of Section 20 of this ordinance and with the right to retain to its own use all of the remaining net receipts derived from the operation of the said railways. The fund required to be deposited under the provisions of said Section 18 shall be disposed of by the depositary or depositaries under the provisions of said section as if the City or its licensee had purchased the said street railways and property at the time the said City or its licensee took possession of said street railways and property under the provisions of this section.

If at any time after the City or its licensee shall have taken possession as aforesaid and before the first day of February, A. D. 1927, the City shall elect to purchase the said street railway system as provided in Section 20 of this ordinance, or to cause the same to be purchased by its licensee, then the City or such licensee shall consummate said purchase in like manner as if it had not taken possession pursuant to the provisions of this section. In case the City shall not so elect, by giving notice on or before August 1st, A. D. 1926, as in Section 20 of this ordinance provided, then and in such event the City or its licensee shall at least sixty (60) days before the first day of February, A. D. 1927, restore to the Company possession of said system of railways and property so taken from the Company, provided the Company shall then have performed its obligations under subdivision (d) of Section 1 of this ordinance, in its then condition, including all property substituted for property worn out or destroyed, which railways and property shall thereafter be held and enjoyed by the Company under the terms of this ordinance in like manner as if the same had not been surrendered to the possession of the City or its licensee pursuant to the provisions hereof.

The Company further agrees that, in case of purchase by the City, or its licensee, as in this ordinance provided, it will, at the option of the City, or of such licensee, cause its system of street railways hereby authorized to be conveyed to said City, or its licensee, free and clear of any rights or privileges on the part of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, its successors and assigns, or any other person or corporation, to use or enjoy any part of said street railway property so conveyed under any operating agreement, or otherwise; or, if the City, or its licensee, shall so elect, it will cause said above mentioned street railway property to be conveyed to said City, or its licensee, subject to any operating agreement then in force which the City or its licensee may elect to have continued in force.

Until the City, or its licensee, shall elect to have said property transferred, free and clear of any rights and privileges on the part of the Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, its successors or assigns, and shall give notice of such election in writing to the Company, the existence of such rights and privileges, to the extent specified in any operating agreement, the cancellation or termination of which has not been required by the City as aforesaid, shall not be deemed a lien or encumbrance upon the property of the Company, or a defect in its title, within the meaning of any section of this ordinance.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to permit the Company to pay or in any manner obligate itself to pay or cause to be paid out of the receipts of the street railway system hereby authorized any of the indebtedness, either principal or interest, of said Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, its successors or assigns; or any of the operating expenses of said Chicago Consolidated Traction Company, its successors or assigns.

INTEREST RETURN ON CAPITAL INVESTMENT.

Section 25. On and before the 15th day of April in each year the Company shall come to an accounting and settlement with the said City as of the thirty-first day of January last preceding, upon the following basis:

From the gross receipts of the said street railway system and property from all sources and of every kind for the year ending on said thirty-first day of January there shall be deducted for such year:

First: (1) All expenses of operation, including maintenance, repairs and renewals; (2) All amounts contributed during said year and then held in reserve under the provisions of Sections 16 and 18 hereof; (3) All amounts paid out for taxes and assessments levied or imposed upon the real and personal property of the Company, including all capital stock or franchise taxes levied or assessed after the year 1906, but not including any taxes which may by any court be ordered to be levied, assessed or collected after the year 1906 on account of the failure of the Company or any person, firm or corporation owning or having an interest in the said street railways or property, to pay any taxes which should have been paid for or on account of such street railways or property prior to the year 1907, and not including any sums paid by the Company to the City for City license fees, if any, exacted from the Company or its employes; (4) all salaries and expenses of the Board of Supervising Engineers by this ordinance authorized, after the period of "Immediate Rehabilitation"; and

Second: a sum equivalent to five (5) per centum per annum for said preceding year upon the amount of the cash purchase price which the said City would then be obligated to pay on account of the items specified in subdivisions 1, 2 and 3 of Section 20 hereof, if it were purchasing the property for municipal operation on such thirty-first day of January, interest being adjusted as to items added to such purchase price during said year. In case in any year the gross receipts shall not be sufficient to pay in full the items in the "first" and "second" paragraphs of this Section mentioned, then the deficit shall be paid out of the gross receipts of the subsequent year or years.

In case at any time the property of the Company, or any part thereof, shall be subject to any lien or encumbrance, securing an indebtedness, upon which an interest charge is accruing, and which is not subordinate to the right of the City to purchase said street railway system, or cause the same to be purchased by its licensee as in this ordinance provided then and in that case at each yearly accounting a sum equal to the amount of such interest charge accrued for such year, not represented by bonds or evidences of indebtedness held by the Company, or by coupons appertaining thereto and held by the Company, shall be set aside out of said sum of five per centum upon the amount aforesaid, and deposited with one or more of the depositaries appointed in accordance with this ordinance, to be held in trust for the protection of the City against such interest charge and to be paid out for such protection upon the order of the Company in its discretion. Any surplus of said fund above the amount of such interest charge at any time outstanding, shall be paid to the Company. Provided, that if the City shall take possession of said system of street railways by reason of the default of the Company in respect to the obligation expressed in subdivision (d) of Section 1 of this ordinance, then and thereafter such fund shall be subject to the sole control of the City, to be disbursed and applied in like manner as the net receipts which in that event are provided to be held in trust for the purpose of perfecting the title. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to create or recognize any right or interest in said fund in favor of the holder of any such lien or encumbrance or of any obligation thereby secured.

DIVISION OF REMAINING NET RECEIPTS.

After the deduction from the gross receipts of the items hereinbefore in this Section provided, the amount remaining shall be considered as the net receipts for such year arising from the operation of the street railway system hereby authorized, and shall be divided between the Company and the said City in the following proportions: forty-five (45) per cent. to be retained by the Company and fifty-five (55) per cent. to be paid forthwith by the Company to the said City, crediting thereon all amounts paid out during the preceding year by the Company for license fees, if any, exacted from the Company or its employes.

COMMUTATION OF FARES.

It is understood and agreed that the Company's agreement and obligation to pay the the City the fifty-five (55) per cent. of the "net receipts," as hereinbefore provided is based upon its right to charge and receive the fares prescribed in Section 11 hereof and to retain as its own the forty-five (45) per cent. of the "net receipts" as is hereinabove in this Section provided. The said City, however, reserves the right to, and it may at any time commute a sum not exceeding the City's share of the net receipts for the previous year into a reduction of said rates of fare; and thereafter in the event of such reduction of rates of fare the Company may deduct and retain as its share of the net receipts each year an amount equal to what would have been the Company's share of the net receipts of such year had the passengers carried during such year paid the fares prescribed in this ordinance, but the Company, after deducting and retaining its share of said net receipts so determined, shall pay over to the said City the remainder, if any, of the net receipts for such year less the deductions therefrom hereinbefore provided to be made from the said City's share of the "net receipts" on account of license fees.

CITY TO ESTABLISH SINKING FUND FOR MUNICIPAL PURCHASE.

It is further provided that, subject to the action of the City Council of said City, the said City shall deposit the amount so paid to the said City to the credit of a separate fund to be kept and used for the purchase and construction of street railways by said City; but any failure to comply with this provision shall in no way effect the rights or obligations of the Company under this ordinance.

COMPANY'S RIGHT TO NET RECEIPTS TO BE SUSPENDED IN CERTAIN CONTINGENCIES.

If, at any time, the Company shall be in default with respect to the obligation expressed in subdivision (d) of Section 1 of this ordinance in regard to perfecting title to its property and removing liens and encumbrances therefrom, the Company shall, upon demand, surrender to the City possession of its entire street railway system and the City may enter into possession thereof and of each and every part thereof, maintaining, operating, improving or extending the same, and keeping up the funds described in Sections 16 and 18 of this ordinance, in all respects as the Company might do, and as the Company would be obliged to do, if in possession under the provisions of this ordinance, until the obligation of the Company under said sub-division (d) of Section 1 of this ordinance shall be completely performed, or until the City shall purchase said property, or cause the same to be purchased by its licensee, as in this ordinance provided. Until the happening of one of the events last mentioned, if the City in its absolute discretion shall so elect by notice in writing delivered to the Company, the continuance of the Company in possession shall be subject to the obligation of applying its net receipts as hereinafter in this Section provided until the City elects to take possession as in this paragraph provided.

If, in the event of such default, the City elects to take possession of said property, the Company shall be bound to provide funds sufficient to fulfill all its obligations in respect of extensions, improvements, reconstruction, equipment, re-equipment, and additions to said system of street railways and the contribution of moneys toward the cost of subways and extensions thereof, as though its possession of said system of street railways had not been interrupted.

Whether in case of such default the City elects to take possession or to leave the Company in possession, in either event the receipts of said system of street railways shall be applied as hereinbefore in this Section provided, except that the proportion of net receipts which by this Section the Company is authorized to retain for its own use and benefit shall be paid over to a depositary as in this Section provided, to be, by such depositary, applied in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance next hereinafter set forth to remove any defect of title or any lien or encumbrance, other than such as are herein expressly authorized to be created, which may exist with respect to said system of street railways.

To the extent that the City shall proceed to exercise the powers, or any of them, mentioned in subdivision (c) of Section 1 of this ordinance, said moneys shall be paid out by the depositary upon the certificate of the Mayor of the City and upon the order of such disbursing officer or agent as the City may designate, to provide funds with which to pay the purchase-price of property acquired by the City pursuant to said subdivision, or to indemnify the City for expenses incurred in the exercise, or attempted exercise, of its powers, as in said subdivision provided. In the event that the City shall elect to leave the Company in possession of said property as aforesaid, the City shall have the additional right to require the depositary, upon like certificate and order, to pay out said moneys for any or all the purposes aforesaid in the absolute discretion of the City, irrespective of the limitations contained in said subdivision (c) of Section 1 of this ordinance. Such certificate of the Mayor shall be conclusive evidence to the depositary of the facts therein stated.

The depositary may also pay out said moneys upon the order of the Company for the acquisition or extinguishment of any outstanding title, estate, interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or demand, constituting a defect of title of the Company's property, but no such payment shall be made on the order of the Company without twenty (20) days' previous notice in writing to the City Comptroller of said City, which notice shall specify the particular title, estate, interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or demand to be acquired or extinguished, and the name of the holder or holders thereof, to whom payment is proposed to be made and the amount of such payment. A certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors of the Company, requesting such payment and stating the facts claimed to justify the same, shall be conclusive evidence to the depositary of the facts so stated, in the absence of notice of objection by the City, as next hereinafter provided. If, within said period of twenty (20) days, the City, by notice in writing delivered to the depositary, shall object to such proposed payment and shall agree to waive any default, or supposed default, by reason of the existence of such alleged title, estate, interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or demand, and to take title or cause its licensee to take title to said system of street railways subject thereto in the event of purchase by the City or its licensee, pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance, then and in that event the depositary shall not make the payment referred to in such notice given to the City by the Company, but shall set apart out of the proportion of the net receipts aforesaid in its hands and shall hold an amount equal to such proposed payment upon the specific trust to pay the same, with all accumulations to the City in either of the following events, namely:

(1) If the City shall, at its own expense, cause the said title, estate, interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or demand to be extinguished or conveyed or transferred to the Company.

(2) If the City shall purchase said street railway system, or cause the same to be purchased by its licensee, as in this ordinance provided, and shall take title to said street railway system subject to such outstanding title, estate, interest, lien, encumbrance, claim or demand without deduction from the purchase-price on account thereof.

At the beginning and at the end of any such period during which the Company's right to receive or retain for its own use and benefit a portion of said net receipts shall have been suspended, as hereinbefore provided, there shall be an accounting in respect of the receipts of said street railway system, to which the depositary shall be a party, substantially as provided in Section 25 of this ordinance with respect to the annual account; and any balance of net receipts in the hands of the depositary not expended as aforesaid, accruing prior to the expiration of such period shall be paid to the City, if the City was in possession during such period, or to the Company, if the Company was in possession during such period, and the Company shall be entitled to receive at the time and subject to the conditions hereinbefore in this Section and in Section 18 set forth the share of said net receipts hereinbefore mentioned, accruing after the expiration of such period.

If the City shall enter into possession of said system of street railways, as in this Section provided, it may retain such possession for not more than six months after said title to said system of street railways is perfected as aforesaid and after receiving six months' notice thereof in writing from the Company; and if, while in possession under the authority of this Section, the City shall give notice of its intention to purchase said street railway system of the Company, or to cause the same to be purchased by its licensee, the City shall be under no obligation thereafter to surrender such possession by reason of such title having been perfected, unless the City or its licensee shall fail to consummate the purchase at the time specified in such notice.

CAPITAL INVESTMENT LIMITATION.

Section 26. The Company shall not be required on account of any extensions of subways or on account of underground trolleys, or on account of any extensions of its street railways (other than the extensions provided for in Exhibit A, and in Section 38 of this ordinance, and six (6) miles of double or twelve (12) miles of single track per annum, as in Section 3 hereof provided), to increase its total capital investment to such an extent that the return thereon over and above the interest charge of five per cent. thereon by this ordinance authorized, would be reduced to an inadequate or unreasonably small amount.

DEPOSITARIES.

Section 27. Any state or national bank or trust company in the City of Chicago or in the City of New York which has a capital stock and surplus amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) may be selected and can act as a depositary under the provisions of this ordinance; provided, that no moneys shall be deposited with any such depositary under the provisions of this ordinance to an amount exceeding the total capital stock and one-half of the surplus of such depositary; and provided, further, that all deposits authorized or required by this ordinance (except deposits of purchase-money in the event of purchase of said street railway system by the City or its licensee) shall be made with depositaries in the City of Chicago.

DEPOSITS.

Section 28. The Company shall have the right to select the particular depositary or depositaries with which it shall deposit any of the funds required to be deposited by the Company under the provisions of this ordinance, and the Company shall at all times be held responsible for any loss or impairment of any such deposit, and shall promptly make good and restore at its own cost, and not out of the receipts of said street railways, any such loss or impairment. The City or its licensee, as the case may be, shall have the right to select the particular depositary or depositaries with which shall be deposited the funds required to be deposited by the City or its licensee, in the event of purchase of the said street railways by the City or its licensee under the provisions of this ordinance, and the City or its licensee, as the case may be, shall at all times be held responsible for any loss or impairment of any such deposit made by it, and shall promptly make good and restore any such loss or impairment.

Provided, that in all cases where, under the terms of this ordinance, the City is authorized or required to make any deposits of money, the City shall be free from any responsibility for loss or impairment of any such deposit, if not less than thirty days prior to the making of such deposit it shall give notice in writing to the Company of the names of the depositaries in which it shall propose to make such deposit. And the Company, if not satisfied therewith, shall give notice in writing to the City not less than twenty days after receiving such notice from the City. The notice of the Company may direct the City not to make such deposit, or any specified portion of it, with any depositary or depositaries so named by the City of which the Company may disapprove, and in such case such notice by the Company shall contain the names of qualified depositaries from which the City may choose in lieu of the names so disapproved of by the Company, and the number of the names of depositaries in such notice by the Company, from which the City is to choose, shall be at least five in excess of the number of depositaries which the Company shall disapprove of as stated in such notice. And the City, upon making deposits, in accordance with the terms of this proviso, shall be free from any responsibility for loss or impairment of any such deposits.

INTEREST ON DEPOSITS

SECTION 29. Appropriate provision for the payment of reasonable interest on any funds deposited under the provisions of this ordinance shall be made with the depositary or depositaries of such funds by the party making such deposit. All interest which may accrue upon or be payable on account of any funds deposited under the provisions of this ordinance and any commission or allowance made directly or indirectly by any depositary on account of the funds deposited with it shall be held and considered as a part of the principal fund so deposited and shall be added to such fund as a part thereof.

The Company shall make daily deposits, with some depositary or depositaries authorized by this ordinance, of all moneys received by the Company from the operation of the said street railways and property, and shall make appropriate provision for the payment of reasonable interest on the moneys so deposited by such depositary or depositaries, which interest shall be added to and be held and considered as a part of the gross receipts of the said street railway system and property.

ANNUAL REPORTS.

Section 30. The Company, so long as it continues to operate any of the said street railways under this ordinance, and on or before the tenth day of April in each year shall prepare and file with the City Comptroller of said City annual reports for the preceding year ending on the 31st day of January.

Such reports shall be in writing, verified by the affidavit of the Auditor of the Company, setting forth in reasonable detail, according to forms prescribed by said Comptroller, the character and amount of business done by the Company for the year immediately preceding such report and the amount of receipts from and the expenses of conducting the said business, and the said City Comptroller, or accountants authorized by him, under the direction of the Mayor or City Council of said City, shall have the right at all reasonable times to examine all the books, vouchers and records of the receipts and expenditures of the Company, for the purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the reports herein required and the rights of the said City under this ordinance. The Board of Supervising Engineers shall have power to prescribe the form and manner in which the books and accounts of the Company shall be kept, subject to the approval of the City Comptroller. There shall be also an annual audit of the accounts of the Company covering all receipts and expenditures for the year ending on the thirty-first day of January next preceding, and a formal written report by public accountants selected by the City and the Company, the expenses of such audit and report to be paid out of the gross receipts of the Company as an operating expense.

In the event of any purchase of the street railways and property of the Company under the provisions of this ordinance, on the first day of August of any year, there shall be an accounting and report for the preceding six months similar in character to that hereinbefore provided.

COMPANY TO MAINTAIN OFFICE IN CITY.

Section 31. The Company shall not remove its principal office or any of its books (except bond registry and stock transfer books), records, accounts, contracts or original vouchers of receipts and expenditures beyond the limits of the said City, and shall maintain an office within said City so long as the Company continues to operate any part of the street railways mentioned and provided for in this ordinance under the provisions hereof.

FORFEITURE FOR NON-COMPLIANCE.

Section 32. The Company, by the acceptance of this ordinance, expressly agrees with the said City and obligates itself fully to comply with all of the terms and conditions of this ordinance throughout the period of time covered hereby, and so long as the Company continues to operate any street railways in said City under or by virtue of the authority hereof.

The Company further agrees that in the event that it shall make default in the observance or performance of any of the agreements or conditions herein required to be kept and performed by it (other than the obligations stated in subdivision (d) of Section 1 of this ordinance as to which special provision has been made in Section 25 of this ordinance, provided the Company has fully complied with the provisions of said Section 25), and if any such default shall continue for a period of three (3) months (exclusive of all times during which the Company may be delayed or interfered with, without its connivance, by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes or the orders or judgments of any court entered in any suit brought without its connivance), after written notice thereof to it from the said City, then and in each and every such case, the said City by its City Council shall be entitled to declare this grant and all of the rights and privileges of the Company to maintain and operate street railways in any of the streets or public ways of the said City to be forfeited and at an end; provided, however, that should the Company, for its corporate purposes, pledge or mortgage its street railway property or any of the rights secured to it by this ordinance, or any security representing the said property or rights, for the security of the payment of its notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness maturing not later than February 1, A. D. 1927, the amount thereof not being in excess of the value of all the property and rights of the Company, as defined in Section 20 hereof, such right of forfeiture of this grant by reason of any violation by the Company of the provisions of this ordinance shall not be asserted or exist against such pledgee or pledgees, mortgagee or mortgagees, or any of them, and shall not impair or affect the right of such pledgee or pledgees, mortgagee or mortgagees, to recover by foreclosure or other legal process against all the property of the Company, including the rights and privileges hereby granted, the face value of said notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, or any security representing the said property or rights to an amount, however, not in excess of the sum for which the City would then have the right under the terms of this ordinance to purchase the said street railway property for municipal operation; and it is hereby stipulated that any notice of default by the Company, upon which a forfeiture shall be claimed, shall also be given by the said City to the trustee or mortgagee of record in any trust deed or mortgage securing such indebtedness. The purchaser at any foreclosure or other sale shall acquire no other or greater rights or privileges than are hereby conferred, and such purchaser shall hold said property, so purchased at such foreclosure or other sale, subject to the right of purchase at any time, thereafter, as herein provided, by the said City, and also subject to the right of purchase by any licensee of the said City, upon the same terms as the said City might purchase and acquire said property, but without payment in either case of the additional twenty per cent. provided for in Sections 20 and 22 of this ordinance; and also subject to the continuing terms, conditions and limitations of this ordinance, including the forfeiture provisions to the same extent as if the said purchaser had been the original grantee hereunder except that such purchaser shall have no right to execute or deliver any mortgage, trust deed or other encumbrance on said street railways, rights and property or any part thereof without the consent of said City.

The City shall have the right to bid and become the purchaser at any such foreclosure or other sale.

The said Company further expressly agrees that, by the acceptance by it of this ordinance, it is obligated to complete the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" provided for in said "Exhibit B" within the time and in the manner set forth in said Exhibit (due allowance being made for any and all delays or interruptions arising without its connivance by unavoidable accidents, labor strikes, or the orders or judgments of any court entered in any suit brought without its connivance), and if the Company shall fail or neglect to proceed with the said work of "Immediate Rehabilitation" with all reasonable diligence and promptness after the acceptance of this ordinance by the Company, or to complete the said work within the time prescribed in said "Exhibit B," and said Board of Supervising Engineers shall certify to the City Council of the said City that the Company has failed or neglected to so proceed with said work, or has failed or neglected to complete the work in the time specified in "Exhibit B," the Company shall be and is obligated to pay to the said City for each day that such default or neglect shall continue, the sum of ten thousand dollars as liquidated damages; and if the Company shall, at any time after the acceptance of this ordinance by it, fail to comply with the provisions hereof with regard to the maintenance of first class street railway service over and upon its said lines of street railways, the said City shall have the right to sue for and recover in any court of competent jurisdiction the sum of not less than fifty dollars and not more than five hundred dollars for each and every such failure and each and every day that such failure shall continue shall be taken and held to be a separate offense; but the payment of such penalties shall not in any manner release the liability of the Company to incur a forfeiture of all its rights and privileges under this ordinance, as hereinabove in this Section provided.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS.

SECTION 33. The Company, in consideration of the grant made by this ordinance, upon the terms and conditions herein expressed, agrees to waive, surrender and release, and by the acceptance of this ordinance the Company does waive, surrender and release, all and every one of the rights and claims of every kind and nature in respect to the location, maintenance, operation or exclusion of street railways in the streets, or any of them, of the said City now or hereafter vested or claimed to be vested in the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the Chicago Passenger Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Tunnel Company, the North Chicago City Railway Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company, and the Chicago Union Traction Company, or in the Receivers of any of said Companies, and the Company hereby agrees to execute from time to time such further instruments of waiver, surrender and release of such rights and claims as the City may reasonably require, and the Company by the acceptance of this ordinance further covenants and agrees that it will not permit the stocks, securities or evidences of indebtedness of any of said Companies which it may at any time acquire, or any estate, interest or power of control which may exist in it by reason of the possession of such stocks, securities and evidences of indebtedness, or any of them, to be so used as to promote or sanction the assertion of any right or claim hereby agreed to be waived, surrendered and released.

TUNNEL RE-CONSTRUCTION.

SECTION 34. The Company, upon its acceptance of this ordinance, shall diligently proceed to finish and complete the work of lowering and re-constructing the tunnel under the south branch of the Chicago River at or near Van Buren Street, now in progress according to plans and specifications therefor prepared by Samuel G. Artingstall, Chief Engineer, and approved by the Secretary of War; said work of lowering and re-constructing of said tunnel according to said plans and specifications being now performed by the Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company under a contract in writing, dated July 24th, 1906, between it and the Receivers of the Chicago Union Traction Company.

The said Company shall, also, upon its acceptance of this ordinance diligently proceed with the work of construction of a false roof in the tunnel under the south branch of said river at Washington street, and with the removal of the crown of said tunnel, as provided in and by an ordinance of the City Council of the City of Chicago in relation to that subject, passed June 18, 1906, said work being now in progress according to plans and specifications therefor, approved by the Commissioner of Public Works, and being performed by Angus Brothers and Company, under a written contract dated July 24th, 1906, between said Angus Brothers and Company and the Receivers of said Chicago Union Traction Company. Bion J. Arnold is hereby selected and appointed the third member of said Board. The said City or the Company may respectively, at any time and from time to time, remove its representative on said Board, and may also respectively from time to time, appoint an engineer to represent it upon said Board, whenever and as often as it shall fail to have a representative upon said Board from any cause whatsoever. In case either the said City or the Company desires the removal of the said third engineer and the appointment of another engineer in his place, the party desiring such removal and new appointment may, upon giving ten (10) days' written notice thereof to the other party, apply to the said judges for such removal, and the said judges or a majority of them shall within ten (10) days from and after such application set the same for informal and summary public hearing, at which the party desiring the removal shall publicly present its reasons for asking such removal.

Upon such application of either the said City or the Company, the said judges or a majority of them shall have the power, but shall not be required to remove the said third engineer. The third engineer shall not be removed by the said judges or a majority of them at any time, except upon the application of either the said City or the Company.

Section 37. Nothing in this ordinance contained shall be construed as depriving the said City of the right of exercising any police power which it would have possessed or enjoyed had this ordinance not been granted.

The enumeration herein of special requirements and specific regulations shall not be taken or held to imply the relinquishment by the said City of its power to make other requirements or regulations, and the said City hereby expressly reserves the right to make all regulations which may be necessary to secure in the most ample manner the safety, welfare and accommodation of the public, including among other things the right to pass and enforce ordinances to protect the public from danger or inconvenience in the management and operation of street railways throughout the said City and the right to make and enforce all such regulations as shall be reasonably necessary to secure adequate and sufficient street railway accommodations for the people, and insure their comfort and convenience.

Section 38. For the purpose of carrying into effect the purpose and desire of the said City to provide for the unified operation and the comprehensive reconstruction of all the street railways within said City, an ordinance similar to this ordinance in general provisions and character, covering the system of street railways now maintained and operated by the Chicago City Railway Company, granting to said Company the right to operate said system, has been presented for passage by the City Council of said City, concurrently with this ordinance, and it is hereby expressly provided that in the event that the Company accepts this ordinance and files the bond as required in this ordinance within the time herein prescribed, and the said Chicago City Railway Company fails to accept the said ordinance after its passage and within the time and according to the terms provided therein, or in any ordinance amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, the Company hereby obligates itself to extend and operate its street railway system over and upon the streets and parts of streets in the said City covered by the said ordinance to the said Chicago City Railway Company, so far as and to the extent that the rights of the company or companies now operating the street railways upon such streets and parts of streets cease and expire by limitation or otherwise, the said street railway system of the Company to be extended over each such street or part of street as rapidly as and to whatever extent the said City is able to and does confer upon the Company lawful authority to construct and operate street railways upon such streets and parts of streets, respectively, and deliver to the Company peaceable possession thereof for such purposes. And the Company hereby agrees to construct and operate in each such street and part of street so turned over to it as aforesaid, the street railways and equipment required by the ordinance to said Chicago City Railway Company to be constructed by it therein, including the making of the contribution for the construction of subways and extensions thereof provided for in said last mentioned ordinance.

And the said Company agrees that it will furnish the necessary moneys to pay or to enable said City to pay for the physical property constituting the street railways and equipment in any such street or part of street which the City or its licensee may be authorized or required to purchase under and in accordance with the terms of the ordinances of said City which have been heretofore passed and are now in force with respect to any such street or part of street, respectively, property so purchased to be turned over to the Company as a part of the extension of the Company's system provided for in this section, and the moneys so paid or advanced shall be held and considered as a part of the expense of making such extension. For the purpose of making any such extension the Company agrees that it will, when authorized and required by the City, purchase and pay for the physical property constituting the then existing street railway and equipment located upon any street or part of street turned over to the Company under the foregoing provisions of this section, provided the price to be paid for such property shall not exceed the value of the same for street railway purposes as estimated by the Board of Supervising Engineers, and that, when acquired, said property shall be used by the Company as a part of the extension of its system upon such street or part of street under the provisions of this ordinance, and that the amount paid for such property shall be held and considered as a part of the cost of making such extension under the provisions of this ordinance.

All such extensions of the Company's system and the operations thereof shall be subject to the provisions of this ordinance, in the same manner and to the same extent as if herein expressly provided for as a part of the street railway upon such street or part of street under the provisions of this ordinance, and that the amount paid for such property shall be held and considered as a part of the cost of making such extension under the provisions of this ordinance.

The construction and equipment of all such extensions shall be made under the supervision of and the cost thereof determined by the said Board of Supervising Engineers, and such extensions shall be in all respects subject to the provisions of this ordinance as to purchase by the said City or its licensee, the determination of the character and cost of construction, reconstruction, equipment and re-equipment, the annual return to the Company upon its investment, the division of profits with the said City and the operation of such extensions by the Company, so far as such provisions can be made applicable thereto.

The City agrees that, in case it shall require the Company to extend its street railway system over or upon any street or part of street covered by the said ordinance to the said Chicago City Railway Company, under the provisions of this section, the Company shall have the right to extend its street railway system over and upon all of the streets and parts of streets covered by the ordinance of the said Chicago City Railway Company, upon the terms specified in this section, when and as soon as the now existing rights of other companies in said streets or parts of streets, respectively, shall expire or be terminated.

work shall be completed within three (3) years from the date of actual acceptance of said ordinance.

GENERAL SPECIFICATIONS.

In addition to the work hereinabove specifically required the Company shall, as promptly as possible, do the necessary work and purchase the necessary materials and equipment to put its entire street railway system and equipment in the best practicable condition to enable it to furnish to the citizens of Chicago the quality and kind of service contemplated and required by this ordinance, and shall at all times maintain the same at the highest practicable efficiency.

Permits.

The Company, before it makes any excavation in or in any way interferes with the surface of, any street or public way for the purpose of doing any work shall obtain from the Commissioner of Public Works of the City a permit so to do, which permit shall contain a condition requiring the Company to restore said street or way and maintain it for one year thereafter; and in every case the Company, after it has restored such street or way shall maintain it for one year after such restoration.

Permits for Buildings.

All permits issued for the removal of buildings on or across any track of the Company shall provide that the Company be notified at least two days in advance of such removal; that such removal shall only take place, unless with the consent of the Company, between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and five o'clock A. M.; and that the party to whom the permit is issued shall pay to the Company the actual cost of removing and replacing its overhead equipment, and for the interruption of its traffic from five A. M. to twelve o'clock midnight, if such interruption shall occur.

Tracks.

The tracks to be maintained by the Company shall not be elevated above the surface of the street or public way in which they are placed. They shall be laid and maintained by the Company so as to conform to the grade of such street or public way as the same is, or from time to time hereafter shall be, established by the City Council.

All new tracks shall be laid with the best materials and in the most approved modern manner.

Spacing Tracks.

In laying or relaying rails in any of the streets included in the accompanying ordinance upon which more than one track is located the distance between centers of tracks may remain as at present, but in order to accommodate large, modern cars, and provide for their safe passage, this distance may be at least nine (9) feet eight and one-half (8½) inches between center lines of tracks. The tracks at curves wherever practicable shall be laid to such center as to enable cars to pass with suitable and safe clearance. The exact location of tracks in the streets shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

Rails.

All new track construction hereafter laid in streets or public ways shall be laid with modern improved rails of the grooved type, weighing not less than one hundred and twenty-nine (129) pounds per yard, which shall in all respects conform to the specifications for grooved rails as contained in Section 1944 of the Revised Municipal Code of Chicago, as amended by ordinance of the City Council passed October 8th, 1906; provided, that all rail used in the tunnels and on their approaches, and in the subways and on their approaches may be "T" rail weighing not less than eighty (80) pounds per yard.

Joints.

All rail joints shall be either cast-welded, electrically welded, or of a type which will give an equally smooth and even joint, except that the joint used must be one which will provide a carrying capacity for the electric current equivalent to the carrying capacity of the rail.

Track Substructure.

The rails shall be laid upon concrete beams, wooden ties, steel ties or cast-iron chairs or in some other form of first-class modern approved street railway track construction. The foundation shall be either of concrete, crushed stone or other ballast material which in the judgment of the Board of Supervising Engineers shall best suit the conditions of soil and drainage. Said foundation to be brought to the proper height to serve as a suitable foundation for the pavement.

Bonding.

In case the rails are joined by any other form of joint than a cast-welded or electrically-welded joint, there shall be some form of bond used which will connect the ends of the rails in such manner that the conductivity of the joints shall be equivalent to the carrying capacity of the rail. The rails of each single track and the inside rails of the double track of all tracks shall be connected by cross-bonds of No. 2/0 (B. & S. Gauge) copper wire spaced not more than one thousand (1000) feet apart, and properly secured to the rails in such manner that the full conducting effect of the wire may be utilized. The rails shall be so bonded or joined and such return circuits and other necessary devices installed as to prevent damage from electrolysis as effectually as possible.

Special Work.

At all points of intersection of the tracks of the Company with its own tracks or with the tracks of other companies, there shall be provided suitable steel special work of ample strength and weight to correspond with the structure to which it connects. The frogs, switches and mates shall be provided with wearing plates of hardened steel. All special work and curves shall be laid in the same general manner required for straight-line track.

Poles and Wires.

All new overhead construction shall consist of one (1) trolley wire suspended over each track by span wires attached to poles set at the curb-line or suspended from brackets attached to poles.

The design of poles hereafter erected shall be subject to approval of the Board of Engineers, and shall be of iron or steel, weighing approximately nine hundred (900) pounds each, set in concrete and kept thoroughly painted. They shall be spaced on an average of from one hundred (100) to one hundred fifteen (115) feet apart for straight track, except at street intersections, and so as not to obstruct cross streets, alleys, or private driveways. The location of poles shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Public Works.

All material used in the overhead construction shall be of the most modern type and shall be capable of sustaining all the weights and strains that come upon it under normal conditions of operation and from wind, sleet and ordinary accidents.

The trolley wire shall be not less than No. 2/0 (B. & S. Gauge) hard-drawn copper, unless the Board of Supervising Engineers shall approve other sizes for specific cases. Phosphor bronze, silicon bronze or other material equal in strength may also be used. Trolley wires shall be suspended not less than eighteen and one-half (18½) feet above the rails, except when such wires are suspended under viaducts, bridges and other structures. There shall be at least two (2) insulations between the trolley wire and the supporting pole. Span wires shall be galvanized iron or steel or silicon bronze.

Feeders and Transmission Wires.

All feeder and transmission wires within that portion of the City bounded as follows: beginning on Halsted street at the south branch of the Chicago river, thence north on the west side of Halsted street to 22d street; west on the south side of 22d street to Western avenue; north on the west side of Western avenue to Belmont avenue; east on the north side of Belmont avenue to Southport avenue; north on the west side of Southport avenue to Clark street; north on the west side of Clark street to Lawrence avenue; east on the north side of Lawrence avenue to Lake Michigan; south along the shore of Lake Michigan to the Chicago river; thence west and south along the main channel and the South Branch of the Chicago river to the point of beginning, with such territory lying south and east of the Chicago river as is occupied by the tracks of the Company, shall be laid underground. To this end, authority is hereby conferred upon the Company to enter upon, excavate for, and construct a system of conduits in the streets, alleys, and other public ways of the City of sufficient capacity to carry its said wires. All feeder wires in any other territory shall be similarly placed underground whenever the City shall require all other overhead public service wires (except trolley wires) in such territory to be placed underground. All transmission wires used by the Company within the City limits, carrying a pressure of 1,000 volts or more shall be placed underground.

Feeder and transmission wires, not required to be placed underground, shall be suspended by insulators upon said poles supporting said trolley wires or upon poles placed at the side of streets, alleys or other public ways in locations to be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. These wires and poles shall be so situated that the Company may conveniently make all the connections authorized by said ordinance and the exhibits thereto. The said trolley wires, feeder wires and all other wires authorized by said ordinance to be installed by the Company, where located in streets, alleys, or other public or private ways in, along or across which are located railroads elevated above the surface of the streets, may be strung upon or from the structures of such railroads, with the consent of the company owning or operating the same. Said wires shall be attached to said structures and maintained under the supervision of the City Electrician.

Conduits.

Underground conduits to carry any of the wires authorized by said ordinance, to be installed by the Company, shall not exceed four (4) feet in width and three

(3) feet in depth, and shall be of tile, cement, iron or other material impervious to moisture and not subject to decay. All transmission and feeder wires and cables laid under ground shall be covered with lead or other impervious material. Before any cable containing such wires shall be put in use it shall be tested by an alternating current of twice the working voltage of the cable. All forms of cable used by the Company containing more than one conductor shall be tested in like manner.

City Conduits.

If at any time the City shall desire to place conduits and manholes in streets or public ways wherein the Company is then about to place conduits and manholes, a single trench may be used for both conduits, but the manholes of the Company shall be kept separate and distinct from those of the City. The expense in such case shall be divided between the Company and the City according to the space used by each therein.

Conductors.

All wires and conductors for the transmission of electricity in and along any street, alley or public way (whether under or above ground) shall be installed in a substantial and workmanlike manner, so as to interfere as little as possible with the other uses of said public places; and all electric work of every kind and character shall comply strictly with the ordinances of the City applicable thereto.

Maintenance of Streets.

The Company, as respects filling, grading, paving, keeping in repair, sweeping, sprinkling, keeping clean, or otherwise improving the streets or parts of streets occupied by its railway, shall fill, grade, pave, keep in repair, sweep, sprinkle, and keep clean and free from snow eight (8) feet in width of all streets and public ways, or portions thereof, occupied by it with a single track railway, and sixteen (16) feet in width of all streets and public ways, or portions thereof, occupied by it with a double track railway.

In removing snow the Company shall not deposit it upon the portions of the street or public way outside of the tracks, except temporarily; and in every case of such temporary deposit it shall be removed within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Commissioner of Public Works.

Pavement.

The Company, upon the order of the Commissioner of Public Works, and approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers, shall pave, repave, or repair the portions of the streets and public ways which by this grant it is required to keep paved and in repair, whenever and as often as the same shall reasonably require paving, repaving or repairing, and shall at all times keep the surface of all of its paving at least up to the top of the rail.

The pavement which the Company shall be required to lay down and keep in repair in the portion of any street or way which it is required herein to pave and keep in repair shall be of the following kinds, to-wit:

First. In all streets or ways in which the Company has in place, at the date of the passage of this ordinance, a good serviceable pavement, it shall repair and maintain the same while serviceable under the direction of the Commissioner of Public Works, as aforesaid.

Second. Whenever any existing pavement of the Company, in any paved street or way, can no longer be made serviceable by repair; and whenever the portions of any street or public way outside of the strip herein required to be paved by the Company are newly paved or repaved, with asphalt, granite, brick, creosoted block, or other similar material, as aforesaid, and the pavement of the Company therein does not comply with the following specifications; and whenever the Company relays its rails in any such paved street or public way in which its pavement does not comply with the following specifications, then, and in any of such events, the Company shall pave or repave the portion of any such street or public way, which it is herein required to keep paved, with granite paving blocks having a uniform grain and texture, without lamination or stratification, and free from an excess of mica or feldspar. Said blocks shall measure from three and one-half (3½) to five and one-half (5½) inches in width, from seven (7) to eleven (11) inches in length (except that shorter stones may be used to break joints), and not less than five (5) inches in depth. They shall be so dressed as to have substantially rectangular plane surfaces, so that when in place the joints at the ends and sides shall average one-fourth (¼) inch in width. Soft or weather-worn stones, obtained from the surface of the quarry, and stones which wear to a polish under traffic shall not be used. All blocks shall be laid in uniform courses across the roadway; and the space between the blocks, when in place, shall in no case be less than one-eighth (⅛) of an inch nor more than three-eights (⅜) of an inch in width. Each course shall consist of blocks of the same width. They shall be so laid that all longitudinal joints shall be broken by a lap of approximately three inches. The spaces shall be immediately filled to within two (2) inches of the top of the blocks with dry gravel free from loam or dirt, and the blocks rammed to a true surface and firm bed with a seventy-five (75) pound rammer of approved shape. No cracked or chipped blocks shall remain in the pavement. After ramming, the spaces between the blocks shall be completely filled with a paving pitch made by the distillation of "straight run" coal tar and of such quality and consistency as shall be approved by the Commissioner of Public Works. The pitch shall be used at a temperature of not less than two hundred and eighty (280) degrees Fahrenheit and be spread in such quantity as to apply two (2) gallons to each square yard of pavement. The spreading shall be done in sections if the Commissioner of Public Works so directs. Provided, that, in any ordinance providing for the paving of such streets the Company may be required to pave in like manner and with like material as therein specified for other contiguous portions of said streets, except that when asphalt is used a layer of granite blocks shall be put in next to and on both sides of each rail.

Third. Whenever any existing pavement of the Company, in any unpaved street, or public way, can no longer be made serviceable by repairs; and whenever the Company lays down any track or tracks in any unpaved street or public way, then, and in either of such events, the Company shall pave or repave the portions of any such street or public way, which it is required to keep paved or repaved, as aforesaid, with good serviceable granite blocks.

Fourth. In each case whereby said Exhibit A attached to this ordinance the Company is authorized and required to change a single track to a double track, in any street or part of a street, if the roadway therein be not at least thirty-eight (38) feet in width, the Company shall, at its own cost (such cost to be charged to capital account) widen said roadway to said width, and shall rebuild the catchbasins and their connections and curb and pave said street, as may be required by the City Council; provided, that the Company shall not hereby be required to pave, in addition to the part of the street occupied by its double-track street railway, as provided for in this ordinance, more than eight (8) feet in width of such roadway nor to acquire private property in order to secure the necessary width for such roadway.

Power Houses, Buildings.

The Company shall build such power houses and auxiliary buildings, together with the necessary machinery and appurtenances as may be determined upon by said Company with the approval of the Board of Supervising Engineers to supply whatever electric power may be required (in addition to such power as the Company may acquire by lease or contract with such approval from sources other than its own plants) to enable the Company to operate at all times its street railway system efficiently and continuously.

In the construction of power plants, sub-stations and other buildings, the Company shall comply with all general ordinances of the City in regard to buildings and to the installation of machinery, boilers and smoke-consuming appliances. The buildings of said power plants shall be substantially fireproof and supplied with smoke-stacks sufficient to carry off all gases emitted, and the foundations for the machinery therein shall be constructed in a solid and substantial manner.

The machinery and apparatus employed shall be selected and installed with a view of affording uninterrupted operation of the cars upon said railways, and to attain this end the machinery shall be so arranged that a stoppage of one machine shall not prevent the operation of the remaining machines, and reserve machinery shall always be ready to be thrown into service. All boilers, piping, valves, fittings, steam engines, turbines, generators, switchboard apparatus, and other appliances used, shall be of the latest and most approved design and constructed and installed in accordance with the best engineering practice.

In all dynamos and connections where a high voltage current is produced or used approved methods for the protection of human life shall be employed.

The high tension switches shall be entirely enclosed in fireproof material, and shall be operated by levers, compressed air, auxiliary currents, or by such other means as will, as far as practicable, prevent personal contact with high tension current.

All feeders leading out of power plants and sub-stations shall be provided with some form of safety switches or automatic circuit-breakers designed to instantaneously open the circuit in case of a short circuit occurring on the feeder or on the trolley which it feeds.

All the foregoing specifications regarding modern and approved apparatus, protection from fire, and provisions for the protection of human life, shall apply with equal force to the sub-stations in case a system of transmission involving the use of sub-stations is adopted.

In case it is found desirable to secure power from any other source than the Company's own power plant no contract for supplying such power shall be entered into by the Company without the consent of the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Car Shops and Machinery.

It is contemplated that the present car shops and machinery contained therein will remain as at present installed with such additions thereto as may be necessary and located as follows:

Complete plant east of West 40th avenue, extending from Washington boulevard to the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad.

Cars.

All new cars hereafter put in service shall be of the type known as double truck cars, seating from 40 to 50 passengers; and in construction, design and equipment shall conform strictly to all the provisions of Section 10 of the ordinance.

The Company may retain in operation on said streets until the Board of Supervising Engineers otherwise directs, 486 closed and 564 open cars of the present single truck cars now in service, it being understood that these cars shall be selected from the best cars now in service and shall conform in every respect to all general ordinances of the City regulating such cars.

All the above cars shall be equipped with sufficient motor capacity to properly operate the cars at the schedule speed required by the service over the particular lines that they may be operated upon.

Electric or hot water heaters or heaters of other types approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers, of sufficient capacity to heat the above cars as stipulated in the accompanying ordinance, shall be used.

Every passenger car used by said Company which is not now equipped with a power brake shall, on or before nine (9) months after the passage of this ordinance, be equipped with a power brake of a type approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Every passenger car used by said Company which is not now vestibuled shall, on or before nine (9) months after the passage of this ordinance, be vestibuled in such manner as may be approved by the Board of Supervising Engineers.

Rolling Stock.

The Company shall provide all necessary snow-plows, sweepers, repair cars, work cars, etc., to properly take care of its system and maintain it in first class working condition.

EXHIBIT D.

THIS AGREEMENT, Made this.....day of....., A. D. 1907, by and between the.....Trust Company, a corporation duly organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of Illinois, hereinafter called the "Trustee," party of the first part, the Chicago Railways Company, also a corporation duly organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of Illinois, hereinafter called the "Railways Company," party of the second part, and the several persons, firms and corporations owning or controlling certificates of stock of the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the North Chicago City Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company, respectively, who may become parties hereto by depositing their certificates of stock and receiving certificates of deposit therefor, as herein provided, hereinafter called the "Depositors," parties of the third part.

By an ordinance of the City Council of the City of Chicago, passed on the ..... day of ....., A. D. 1907, entitled "An Ordinance authorizing the Chicago Railways Company to construct, maintain and operate a system of street railways in streets and public ways of the City of Chicago," it was, among other things, provided that no right, permission or authority should thereby vest in the Railways Company, and the Railways Company should not have the right to accept said ordinance, unless at the time of such acceptance there should have been deposited with the Trustee under an agreement substantially in the form of this agreement certificates of stock duly endorsed in blank for transfer, representing not less than certain specified amounts of the capital stock of the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the North Chicago City Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company, respectively, with reservation of the right to the City to modify the aforesaid provisions and conditions so as to reduce the proportion of stock of each or all of said Companies to be so deposited to such amount as to the said City should seem proper.

By said ordinance it was further provided that the permission and authority thereby granted should cease and determine unless, within a period of one hundred and fifty (150) days after the passage of said ordinance, the Railways Company should have promulgated a plan of reorganization and readjustment which should comply with all the provisions of said ordinance and which should have been approved by Hon. Peter S. Grosscup or, in case of his death, refusal or inability to act, by Hon. William H. Seaman, as being fair and equitable to each of the parties in interest hereinafter referred to, all of the conditions and circumstances of the situation being considered.

The Depositors, in reliance upon the undertaking of the Chicago Railways Company to accept said ordinance and to promulgate a plan of reorganization and readjustment and to obtain approval thereof as in said ordinance provided, and in order to enable the Railways Company to accept said ordinance, have severally deposited their certificates of stock hereunder, and have severally assigned, transferred and set over, and do hereby assign, transfer and set over, irrevocably to the Trustee, its successors and assigns, the said stock and all rights and powers thereby represented and all beneficial interest thereto appertaining, and the said Depositors and the said parties of the first and second parts, in consideration of the premises and of the mutuality of this agreement, have agreed, and do hereby agree, with each other as follows:

First: This agreement shall be signed by the Trustee and the Railways Company and deposited with the Trustee at its office in the City of Chicago, Illinois. Holders of stock of the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the North Chicago City Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company, respectively, may become parties hereto by depositing the certificates for their stock with the Trustee, duly endorsed in blank for transfer. Each of the Depositors shall thereafter, upon demand of the Trustee, execute or procure such further transfers, assignments, powers of attorney and proxies in respect of the stock so deposited as the Trustee may deem necessary or proper. Each of the Depositors shall be entitled to receive from the Trustee a certificate in form substantially as follows:

> The ..... Trust Company, as Trustee under the Agreement hereinafter referred to, hereby certifies that ..... has delivered to said Trustee certificates duly endorsed in blank for transfer for ..... shares of the ..... stock of the ..... Company, in acceptance of a certain Agreement dated .....A. D. 1907, between the Chicago Railways Company, the Depositing Stockholders of said ..... Company, and other depositors, and said ..... Trust Company, as Trustee, to be irrevocably held and disposed of as in said Agreement provided and the registered holder, at the time, of this certificate will be entitled, upon receipt thereof by said Trustee and upon surrender hereof and upon compliance by him with the terms and conditions of said allotment, to the securities or other proceeds allotted in respect of said deposited shares under such Plan of Reorganization as may be finally promulgated in accordance with the provisions of said Agreement or any modification thereof. On the conditions in said Agreement specified, said deposited certificates first above mentioned may be returned to said registered holder upon surrender hereof. This certificate is transferable but only on the books of the Trustee and subject to the terms of said Agreement in that behalf; and the Trustee and all other persons interested in or under said Agreement shall be entitled to treat the registered holder as the absolute owner and beneficiary for all purposes.

> By .....

Each such certificate shall be transferable only on the books of the Trustee by the registered holder thereof in person or by attorney upon surrender of such certificate, duly endorsed or assigned. Each such transfer shall entitle the transferee to all the rights, powers and advantages represented by such certificate of deposit, but no such transfer shall relieve the party making such transfer from any obligation herein expressed.

Second: If, on or prior to the last day allowed for acceptance of said ordinance by the Railways Company, under the terms of said ordinance or any ordinance amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, there shall not have been deposited hereunder with the Trustee certificates of stock of said several Companies in the amounts which may be necessary to enable said Railways Company to accept said ordinance, or if said Company shall for any reason fail to accept said ordinance, then the Trustee shall return the stocks deposited hereunder to the holders of the respective certificates of deposit therefor upon surrender of such certificates, duly endorsed or assigned.

Third: In the event that the Railways Company shall accept said ordinance and shall promulgate a plan of reorganization or readjustment which shall be approved as in said ordinance provided, then and in that event the Trustee is hereby authorized to enter into any contract or contracts, or to take any action not inconsistent with the provisions of said ordinance or of this agreement for the disposition of all or any part of the beneficial interest appertaining to said shares of stock deposited hereunder which shall or may be necessary to carry into effect the terms of such plan of reorganization and readjustment, provided the Trustee shall receive the stocks, securities or other benefits allotted under such plan in respect of the stocks deposited hereunder for delivery to the holders of certificates of deposit representing such last named stocks, upon performance of the conditions, if any, attached to such delivery by the terms of said plan of reorganization or readjustment, but only in case the said plan shall conform to the conditions and requirements in this agreement set forth.

Fourth: The Trustee shall take no steps to carry the said plan into effect until it shall have been approved by ....., or, in case of his death or refusal or inability to act, by ....., as being fair and equitable to the Depositors of stock of the North Chicago City Railway Company and the Chicago West Division Railway Company, all the circumstances and conditions of the situation being considered. Or, if said plan be not so approved, then only in case the same be modified in respect of the treatment accorded to the depositors of such stocks last mentioned, in such manner as the said ..... or the said ..... may determine to be fair and just relatively to the treatment accorded to the depositors of other stocks, securities and evidences of indebtedness provided for in said plan; and in determining what is relatively fair and just as aforesaid, the said ..... or the said ....., as the case may be, shall not discriminate against the stock of said North Chicago City Railway Company or of said Chicago West Division Railway Company by reason of the fact that such stock is technically less available for the purpose of clearing the title or bringing about a liquidation of the affairs of the Companies than it would be if the value or interest appertaining to such stock were represented by a bond; but the said ..... or the said ....., as the case may be, may accord to said stocks the same relative treatment as though the value or interest appertaining to said stocks were represented by a bond, leaving open, however, for the consideration of said ..... or the said ..... the questions of amount, rank and extent of lien.

Fifth: In case said plan of reorganization or readjustment shall contain any provision for modifying or supplementing such plan, in the event of impossibility of performance or other contingency therein provided for, the Trustee shall be and is hereby authorized from time to time to enter into any contract or contracts or to take any action necessary to carry into effect the provisions of said plan, as modified and supplemented, pursuant to such provision. The approval of said plan or any modification thereof by said Hon. Peter S. Grosscup or said Hon. William H. Seaman shall be conclusive upon the Trustee and the depositors, (subject, however, to the provisions of Article fourth of this agreement), as to the validity, regularity, scope, nature and legality of said plan, and of all the powers, trusts, provisions, conditions, limitations and proceedings therein contained or provided for, and of its and their consistency with the provisions of said ordinance and of this agreement, and the Trustee shall incur no liability by proceeding to carry said plan into effect or endeavoring so to do according to its judgment after receiving such approval, nor shall the Trustee be liable for any error of judgment or in any event otherwise than for its own wilful malfeasance or gross negligence. Said plan when so approved shall become a part of this agreement with like effect as though herein set forth, subject to modification only in such manner as said plan may provide. The plan may provide a committee or committees for the exercise of any discretion or powers hereby conferred upon the Trustee, in respect to the execution of such plan, and in that event the provisions of this agreement relative to the Trustee shall be applicable to such committee or committees to the extent that said plan may so provide; provided that the Trustee shall always retain the custody of the deposited stocks upon the trusts herein expressed, subject to the provisions of Article eighth of this agreement.

Sixth: Said plan of reorganization and readjustment shall provide for the deposit under said plan of all the stock, bonds and evidences of indebtedness of the North Chicago City Railway Company, the Chicago West Division Railway Company, the Chicago Passenger Railway Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Tunnel Company, the West Chicago Street Railroad Company, the North Chicago Street Railroad Company and the Chicago Union Traction Company, respectively, and shall determine the stocks, securities or other benefits to be allotted to the depositors of such bonds, stocks or evidences of indebtedness, respectively, and shall specify the conditions upon which the same are to be delivered, and shall make provisions for the expenses and compensation of any receivers appointed of the property of any of said corporations and for the expenses of reorganization and readjustment; and shall make all said provisions to such extent and in such manner as may be deemed fair and just by those charged with the formation and approval of such plan; provided, that equal treatment be accorded to the holders of all stocks, bonds or evidences of indebtedness of the same rank and class, but the foregoing provision shall not be construed to prevent the requirement of a cash payment as a condition of deposit under said plan after such time as may be fixed in the plan or pursuant to its terms. Such plan shall also provide that all stocks or securities representing any interest in the funds described in subdivisions (1) and (2) of Section 20 of said ordinance which may be allotted in respect of the bonds, stocks or evidences of indebtedness of any of said corporations in this Article named, to the extent that such bonds, stocks or evidences of indebtedness shall not be deposited under the plan, shall nevertheless be delivered to the Trustee to be held in trust and to be applied by the Trustee under the direction of the Board of Directors of the Railways Company to perfect the title of said Railways Company to the system of street railways mentioned in and authorized by said ordinance and to remove therefrom liens and encumbrances, excepting such as are by said ordinance authorized to be created; and that such stocks, securities or other benefits shall be applied to no other purpose until such title be made complete and free from liens and encumbrances as aforesaid.

stocks deposited hereunder, together with all other stocks of the same Companies, which shall be acquired by the Trustee by means of the stocks, securities or other benefits, set aside pursuant to the terms of said plan, or which shall be delivered to the Trustee for the purposes of this Agreement, shall remain in the possession of the Trustee, to be held, used and disposed of by it upon the following continuing trusts, and in the following order of priority:

(1) To secure the performance of all obligations of the Company toward the City of Chicago in respect of said stocks set forth in said ordinance, with power to use and apply said stocks as in said ordinance provided.

(2) To apply the voting power appertaining to said stocks and the beneficial interest therein, including any dividends that may be received thereon in distribution of assets, liquidation or otherwise, in such manner and to such extent and upon such conditions as may be provided in said plan of reorganization or readjustment, or the contracts made pursuant thereto.

Eighth: In case the permission and authority granted to the Railways Company by said ordinance shall cease and determine by reason of the failure of the Railways Company to comply with any of the covenants or conditions of said ordinance, the said shares of stock deposited hereunder and all the beneficial interest appertaining to said stock shall pass to, vest in and become the property of, or subject to the control and disposition of, the City of Chicago, or of such person or persons or corporation as said City shall be ordinance designate, and the Trustee shall deliver the certificates for said stock in its possession to or upon the order of said City; provided, however, that such title shall not so pass or vest, nor shall possession be so delivered of any of said certificates except in one or the other of the following events:

(1) In case a plan of reorganization and readjustment shall have been promulgated and approved, as provided in said ordinance, and stocks or securities or other benefits shall have been delivered to the Trustee, pursuant to said plan, for distribution to the holders of certificates of deposit for such stock.

(2) In case the City of Chicago shall deliver to said Trustee an agreement in writing to the effect that the holders of certificates of deposit for such stock, issued under this agreement, shall share equally in all respects with the holders of outstanding non-deposited stock of said Companies, respectively, in any sum or value which the City, or any licensee of the City, may at any time allow or pay for the assets of said respective Companies.

Ninth: The benefits of this agreement shall be confined strictly to the parties hereto and to the City of Chicago and the same shall not be construed to create any trust or obligation to or in favor of any person or persons or corporation other than the City of Chicago, the Railways Company, the Trustee and the holders from time to time of certificates of deposit issued hereunder.

CHICAGO, January 15, 1907.

Hon. Charles Werno, Chairman Local Transportation Committee, City of Chicago.

DEAR SIR—The Chicago City Railway Company desires that your Committee and the City Council should clearly understand the position of the Company with relation to the clause proposed to be added to the ordinance, providing, in case of a referendum, that the ordinance should only take effect in case a majority of the votes cast upon the question should be in favor of the ordinance. The Company is advised by its counsel that said proposed clause will be legal and valid, and the Company will in no event and under no circumstances make any claim to the contrary. In case of a referendum as proposed, if a majority of the votes cast are not in favor of the ordinance, the Company will make no claim that the ordinance is operative, and will make no claim to any rights under the ordinance. The Company does not desire to undertake the reconstruction of its street railways under any ordinance which is disapproved by a majority of the people of the city. The Company is willing to execute any formal contract which may be desired by your Committee to further protect the City in the matter above referred to.

Respectfully yours,

CHICAGO CITY RAILWAY COMPANY,

By T. E. MITTEN,

President.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
January 21, 1907.

To the Honorable, the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—I return herewith, without my approval, an ordinance passed by your Honorable Body at the meeting of January 15, 1907, (Council Proceedings, 2714), directing the Water Assessor, in making a survey of water pipe in North 48th avenue, from West North avenue to Thomas street, to consolidate the survey of that pipe with the survey of the pipe in West Division street from North 46th avenue to North 48th avenue, for the reason that I am advised by the Water Pipe Extension Division that the pipe in Division street, from North 46th avenue to North 48th avenue, was laid by the City out of the water fund, while the pipe in North 48th avenue, from Thomas street to North avenue, was laid by special assessment, and if pipes laid separately and distinctly are to be included in one survey, as directed by this ordinance, great confusion will exist and it will work to the decided disadvantage of the City by requiring refunds upon water pipes that do not pay the necessary revenue.

I would recommend that the vote by which the ordinance was passed be reconsidered and the ordinance be re-committed to the Committee on Finance.

Respectfully submitted,

E. F. DUNNE,
Mayor.

Ald. Race moved to reconsider the vote by which the ordinance referred to in the veto message of His Honor, the Mayor, was passed.

The motion prevailed.

Ald. Race moved that the ordinance be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The Clerk presented the following communication from the Commissioner of Public Works, which was referred to the Committee on Streets and Alleys, South Division:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
January 28, 1907.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—In compliance with the order of your Honorable Body I beg to advise you that this department is unable to find any authority for the maintenance and operation of a switch track across Indiana avenue south of 130th street, by the Illinois Central Railroad Company. The atlas in the Bureau of Maps shows Indiana avenue, from 130th street south to 134th street, as a street, but there is no record of its dedication to the city.

Very truly yours,
WM. L. O'CONNELL,
Commissioner.

ALSO,

The following communication, which was placed on file:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
January 28, 1907.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—Referring to the order of your Honorable Body of January 7, 1907, to report by what authority private enterprises are permitted to occupy that portion of Wallace street between 55th and 56th streets, I beg to state that the west thirty-three (33) feet of what should be Wallace street is lot A, Gardner's 55th Street Addition in N. W. ¼ of Section 16-38-14. The records of the Bureau of Maps and Plats show that this piece of land has never been dedicated for street purposes, and that the same is used by the Commonwealth Electric Company.

Very truly yours,
WM. L. O'CONNELL,
Commissioner.

ALSO,

The following communication and opinion:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS,
January 23, 1907.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and the City Council:

GENTLEMEN—In accordance with an order passed by your Honorable Body I notified the Illinois Central Railroad Company to place a watchman at its crossing at 121st street. Said Company failing to comply with the notice I requested an opinion from the Law Department as to what action should be taken to enforce the order against said Company. This opinion states that the railroad company cannot be compelled to place watchmen outside the limits east of the west line of Western avenue, or north of the south line of 39th street as provided in Section 1991 of the Municipal Code, unless an ordinance is passed, designating at what crossings flagmen or watchmen must be stationed, or enlarging the territory within which at all crossings they must be placed and maintained. Opinion attached.

Very truly yours,
WM. L. O'CONNELL,
Commissioner.

OFFICE OF THE CORPORATION COUNSEL,
January 21, 1907.

Hon. William L. O'Connell, Commissioner of Public Works:

DEAR SIR—Your recent communication to this department in which you state that in compliance with orders passed by the City Council you have given notice to the Illinois Central Railroad Company to place watchmen at various crossings, and particularly at the crossing at Michigan avenue and 121st street, and that the company pays no attention to these notices, and requesting instruction as to the proper course to be pursued in the matter, has been referred to me.

I do not find in any of the ordinances granted to the company any provisions requiring the placing of watchmen or flagmen at street crossings within the city. Section 1991 of Municipal Code provides that:

> "Every person or corporation owning or operating a steam railroad whose track or tracks cross or intersect at the street level any of the streets in the city, east of the west line of Western avenue, or north of the south line of 39th street, and also at all crossings of street or horse railways shall station, keep and maintain at all times at their own expense, at each and every such street and railroad crossings, a flagman, whose duty it shall be to signal persons traveling in the direction of any or either of the crossings and warn them of the approach of any locomotive engine, or any impending danger."

Unless the company's tracks are crossed at 121st street by street car tracks, this section is not applicable.

It seems that all that the Council has done in the matter is to pass orders directing you to have the railroad company station watchmen or flagmen at certain crossings.

The result sought cannot be accomplished by a Council order in the absence of an ordinance that shall require the company to place flagmen or watchmen at designated crossings, or that shall enlarge the territory within which they must be stationed and maintained.

It is for the Council to determine that a necessity for stationing a watchman at a certain crossing actually exists—discretion and judgment are to be exercised, and they become effective only when embodied in some act of legislation. An ordinance is the proper medium by which the legislative will of the Council can be expressed.

An order is the medium through which a municipal act is sought to be enforced. It is not legislation.

Our Supreme Court, in C. & N. P. R. R. Co. v. City of Chicago, 174 Ill., 485, says:

"A resolution or order is not a law, but merely the form in which the legislative body expresses an opinion. An ordinance prescribes a permanent rule of conduct or government, while a resolution is of a special and temporary character. Acts of legislation by a municipal corporation, which are to have continuing force and effect, must be embodied in ordinances, while mere ministerial acts may be in the form of resolutions or orders."

I am, therefore, of opinion that until an ordinance is passed, designating at what crossings flagmen or watchmen must be stationed, or enlarging the territory within which at all crossings they must be placed and maintained, you cannot compel the company to place watchmen at crossings outside the limits established by Section 1991 of the Municipal Code.

Very respectfully,

W. W. De Armond,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.

Approved:

Wm. D. Barge,

Assistant Corporation Counsel.
